PITTSBURGH, THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 19, 1855.

An aged gentleman, who felt disposed to exertise the privileges conferred upon him by the laws and Constitution, approached the ballothor, when he was offered a Pro-Slavery vote.—
He remarked that he did not vote that ticket, when some one knocked off his hat, another conficted him, while a third applied the boot, and forced him from the ground, threatening to put a bullet through him unless-the left instance.

The friends of Freedom, finding themselves borne down by the inviders, quietly retired from the polls; and we are assured no Free-State votes, other than three or four, were cast in the District, though that party was largely in the majority; while the Pro-Slavery manuaders from Missouri polled between four and five hundred. The late ceasus returns showed that, thus far every Election Dutriet in the Territory was settled by a large majority of voters from the Free States, and that, if left to the odinary course of things, the Legislative Assembly of the Territory was settled by a large majority of voters from the Free States, and that, if left to the odinary course of things, the Legislative Assembly of the Territory was settled by a large majority of voters from the Free States, and that, if left to the odinary course of things, the Legislative Assembly of the Territory was settled by a large majority of voters from the Free States, and that, if left to the odinary course of things, the Legislative Assembly of the Territory was settled by a large majority of voters from the Free States, and that, if left to the odinary course of things, the Legislative Assembly of the Territory was settled by a large majority of voters from the Free States, and that, if left to the odinary course of things, the Legislative Assembly of the Territory would be a unit upon the subject of human rights.

Proceedings of the blood, and happily exempt if the grade of March 30:—

It is now 5 o'clock in the morning of the election. For this whole night the country round had been vocal with carousing of the immigrants.

8.—Mascu 31.—The true vote of this place would be about 250 Free to 175 Stave. As declared, it was 809 to 60—the rest of our voters having been frightened or driven from the polls. The true work of the true of the true of the county with a nation with which we have been friends from the day of our national existence, following too on the heads of was made to the two of Lawrence.

Sr. Lours, Tuesday, April 10, 1855.

The Kansa Election has resulted in favor of Slavery. The voters were citizen of Missouri. They marched with cannon from Westport, in Missouri, to the town of Lawrence. These memore loaded with small arms; they took votein possession of the polls, which they belt in military array until they felt assured that their tide of would succeed—and then they returned to Missouri. The election was held on Friday the distinct of the country with surprise and incredulity. The public had been informed that our dovernment had foreshold to sell it, and supposed therefore that the fiscal to sell it, and supposed therefore an armed cavalcade, which dained to be 6,000 as trong, preceded by two cannon mounted, and by a wagon loaded with whiskey—this whole military array, armed with deadly weapons and led by a Col. Young, left Westport, in Missouri, for an armed cavalcade, which dained to be 6,000 as trong, preceded by two cannon mounted, and by a wagon loaded with whiskey—this whole military array, armed with deadly weapons and led by a Col.
