The case was thus continued. The case was thus continued. This Anson Casz.—In the Court of Quarter Sessions on Wedneseay, District Attorney Rob-erts stated for the Court that there were three indictments for arron still remaining for trial against Janes Dickson, convicted of an attempt at arson, on Taesday last. He did not desire to push the prosecutions on these indictments at present. The pinishment he would receive on one couvidion would be sufficient to reform him if such were possible. Mr. Black, Dickson's counsel, urged a trial on the other indictments, stating that he was confident the innecence of his client could be clearly proven. Mr. Roberts, however, refused to proceed.

JULY IN APRIL.-Old mother Earth must have JULT IN APRIL.—Old mother Earth must have made a wonderful leap sun-wards yesterday.— The thermometer was up to 88 degrees in the shade at two o'clock in the afternoon, and the whole city was fairly sweltering in the flery gleams of old Sol. This is getting into summer a little too carry. There must be something wrong with the machinery.

PIG-METAL THIEVES .- Officer Frost yesterday rost two burners --Unter Frost yesterday arrested two boys named Morton Osen and Jo-seph Frembloy for stealing pig metal from the Allegheav Wharf. A woman named Cashing, who acted as receiver of the stolen iron, was al so arrested. As this was their first offence, they were allowed to depart after payment of costs and a for hours imprisonment in the watch-house.

Occultation of VERUS.—Many of our citizens were last evening enjoying a fine view of that beautiful astronomical phenomenon, the occulta-tion of Venus. The simosphere was remarkably clear and the heavens were without s cloud.— Venus kissed the shadowed check of pale Dian at about ten minutes past eight, and shortly af-ter was entirely hidden from give.
