when the license laws were in force, may be ap-plied to the county since their repeal, where the reason is as cogent, the remonstrance as atrong and universal. Even when the license laws were in full force and effect, the legislature never lost-aight of the counteracting influence of remon-atrances; special legislation for Allegheny coun-drances; special legislation for Allegheny coun-ty, (which some may forget, but this Court must remember.) rendered it imperative on this Court to pay respect to remonstrances as well as poit itions. An application for license is a petition to grant—a remonstrance is a polition to refuso. Remonstrance comes with double force, now that all twys licensing taverns are repealed.
