We ask the descendants of the Irish and Scotch Presbyterians, and of the English and Irish Methodists, in Western Pennsylvania, who have been inveigled into the Order under the pretense mainly that it was to oppose the encrosed ments of Popery, to consider these things. certainly could not have been from feelings of rents who braved the dangers of the deep and the hardships and perils of this western wilderness to establish a home for their offspring where they should enjoy perfect religious and civil liberty, that led them into the meshes of this double-faced modern political jesuitism. tainly could not have been an Anti-Foreign feeling. No, it was that Anti-Popery feeling, sucked in with their mother's milk and fostered by their education and their reading—a feeling which we respect, and which is proper and just in itself, when it is confined to legitimate pur-poses and does not descend to injustice and persecution; then it becomes akin to the spirit of Popery itself, which has always persecuted the people of God where it had the power, and always will, for it is unchanged and unchangeable. It was this proper spirit, we say, this love of the truth and hatred of error and of a gross system of oppression, which led hundreds of the descendants of foreign Protestants into the Know Nothing Lodges. What will these persons think when they find that they are affiliating with the most bigoted and besotted Catholics in America, with the faithful followers of the Pope, and the worshippers of the Virgin Mary? And what is and punsus!" The pro-clavery party is of course rampant-The Kansas Herald breaks out as follows: "Yesterday was a proud and glorious day for the friends of Southern Rights. The triumph of the Pro-Slavery party is complete and over Abolitionism is rebuked, her fortress stormed, her flag is draggling in the dust! The tri-colored platform has fallen with a crash, the rotten timbers of its structure were not sufficient to sustain the small fragment of the party."

The most extraordinary exhibition of Southern fanaticism we have ever seen, however, is a letter from Kansas to the St. Louis Christian Advocate, signed by "A. Monroe,!" a Minister of the Methodist Church South, of high standing .-The reader will recollect that this letter was written about the time the Missouri Slaveholding mob resolved to hang every Methodist Minister of the church North found in that region. The Beverend Monroe says that Kansas is settling fast, but, "of course not much can be accomplished by preaching for a time!" "This is the time in polities"—"the time for the great South to locate and establish her claim, to put her impress upon the institutions of the country." "Now, this the very season, is the time for the South to se cure her interests in this country." "We hope to see thousands of families here from the slave-holding States before aix months pass." Grow-ing excited as he proceeds, the Reverend gen-tleman calls for the "men and vast wealth of the South to be called into requisition," for the

Have they reflected that it will bartie door effectually against, the intelligent, high-minded lover of liberty? His self-respect will not permit him to subject himself to such indignities in a country that boasts that all men were created free and equal. On the other hand it will be no barrier to the ignorant and the abandoned. The high-minded, intelligent Protestant will not consent to be placed in a proscribed class, but Catholics who have had less opportunities of instruction, and who have not been taught the value of personal and civil rights and franchises, will still crowd to our shores.
