PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.
THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 3, 1855.
The Kansas Cause.
The Advertiser and Editor of the Kansas Cause, Secretary Davis, who is the ruling member of the Cabinet, takes sides with the Atchison party against the Kansas Cause. He has spoken his mind freely in a condemnation of the new working of the Kansas Cause, but it is believed that he will ultimately be influenced by Davis. Gov. Reeder is hourly and anxiously expected at the head of the column.

Slavery Illustrated.
We ask special attention to a letter on another page from Paris, Kentucky, detailing certain facts suppressed by the press of that town. In the United States, upon the question of imported liquors and State prohibitions, it was a case under the law of Rhode Island in 1847.

TEMPERANCE LAWS.

TEMPERANCE LAWS.
In connection with the various opinions now before the public on this subject, it may be interesting to read that of Chief Justice May, of the Supreme Court of the United States, upon the question of imported liquors and State prohibitions, it was a case under the law of Rhode Island in 1847.
