What will the rresudent do: Ine covernor will soon be with him and lay these facts before him, in all their bitter force. What will he do? He cannot play fast and loose in such an emergency. He must either sustain the officers whom he sent to Kansas, or he must take sides with Atchison, the fire-caters and the mobocrats. What will he do ?

We know what "Old Hickory" or "Old Rough and Ready" would do, if either were living and co-cupied Pierce's place. Gov. Reeder would, in that case, find himself backed up with a substantial arcase, not aimset packet up, with a substantial of ray of men and munitions of war. peace or war, as may consist with the national honor. KET WEST, April 23.—The Jamestown, a few days before her arrival, and when but one day's sail from Haraga, spied a man-of-war at a dis-tance, and supposing her to be a Spaniard, she was cleared for action, the guns were shotted, and every preparation made for an immediate nt-tack. Much to their disappointment the atran-ger when three miles distant, hoisted the Ameri-can fing to her fore and saluted it with thirty-two guns. She proved to be an English frigate. So sooin as the shot could be withdrawn the salute was returned. he has the pluck to do it, and will do him the the justice to think that he is willing to stand by the Governor whin whom he has laid such a heavy burlen. We fear, however, the influences which surround him. The Secretary of War is said to sympathic with the marauding Missouri-ans; and as he has the disposal of the army ans; and as The has the disposal of the army at his command he can so embarases and thwart the wishes of the Gorernor as to make the aid of the administration of no service to him, even if the President should make a tonder of it. Late and interesting from Havana. Havara, April 23.—Yesterday afternoon there is a grand review of 10,000 troops. The day was a beautiful one, and all Havana, rich and poor, high and low, thronged the streets and perceive. The crowd was dense but perfectly or-derly, and good-natured, as are all crowds here. The troops were drawn up in double file, from the Funta through the Passo Isabel to the Campo Marte, (where the cavalry were stationed.) and from thorace through the Passo. Tacon to Fort. Primipe. Onchar twiewed them on horesbert, passing along the lines, and afterwards they filed past him as he stood in front of the Tacon Thea-tre. What with the music and the gay banners and bright gilitter of bayonets the score was a fine one. The volunteer regiments filled the air with their "Vivas" as they passed the Captain General; the regulars were silent. Behind the ine one. The volunteer regimers, containing pr Commidero McCanley and Captain Gruing Commidero McCanley and Captain form eral, and other Spaniah officers. I was pleased to see this courtesy extended to Commodore Ma-tons between himself and Concha were entirely to a friendly nature. I here Commodore is here for warlike purposes satisfactorily as our mercanille agencies. There is some prejudice existing in the country in re-sy gard to them, but when the system is well un-ad derstood, all good and asfe merchants will give it their approval. It will slop irceponible men r-from starting business in every village, whose on-ily thought is to make sales without regard to profits, very much to the jointy of those who ar-po peet to pay for what they buy. It does no man harm who is really good, to have it widely known, will be it is a great injury to the whole comuni-it, ty to have a bad man, one totally unworthy of d credit, placed on the same footing.
