PITTSBURGH GAZETTE

A HUNGRY CARPET-BAG.—The Buffalo Express relates an amusing incident which occurred at Erie a few days since. A gentleman left Cleveland for New-York at an early hour in the morning, without his breakfast, and being very hungry, upon the arrival of the train at Erie, entered the dining room, and placed his carpet bag upon a chair, sat down beside it and commenced a valorous attack upon the viands placed before him. By and by, the proprietor of the establishment came around to collect fares, and upon reaching our friend, ejaculated, "Dollar sir!—"A dollar!" responded the eating man, "I don't—bar—thought you only charged fifty cents a meal for one—eh!"—"That's true," said Mesmerus, "but I count your carpet bag one, since it occupies a seat." (The table was far from being crowded.) Our friend expostulated, but the landlord insisted, and the dollar was reluctantly brought forth. The landlord passed on. Our friend deliberately arose, and opening his carpet bag, full in its wide mouth, discovered unto it, saying, "Carpet bag, it seems you're an individual—a human individual, since you eat—at least I've paid for you, and now you must eat,"—upon which he seized everything eatable within his reach, such as nuts, raisins, apples, cakes, pies, and amid the roars of the bystanders, the delight of his brother passengers, and the discomfiture of the landlord, philosophically went and took his seat in the cars. He said he had provisions enough to last him to New York, after a bountiful supply had been served out in the cars. There was at least eight dollars worth in the bag—upon which the landlord realized nothing in the way of profit. So much for meanness.

ANOTHER Pittsburgher testifying to the wonderfully curative powers of Boerhave's Holland Bitters.
PITTSBURGH, Dec. 6th, 1854.
Messrs. Brod, Page, Jr., & Co.—Gentlemen—For a year past it has been a source of great pain to me to know what to do with my stomach refused to retain anything. I have tried almost every remedy, and the regiment of physicians employed in my behalf, in addition, but began the use of Boerhave's Holland Bitters, and have now found relief, since I commenced to use them. They relieve the stomach instantly and the nervous debility occasioned by this disease, removing the nervous dreadful fear equal to the severest paroxysm, and generally as a conclusive test of their superiority. Respectfully, JOHN A. KEYS, 51, below Market.
CAUTION—Be careful to ask for Boerhave's Holland Bitters. There are many other Holland Bitters in the market, many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing as the genuine Boerhave's Holland Bitters can be had only at the sole depot for sale, by proprietors,
