The course of the Illinois State Council on the Kansas question has opened its eyes wide, and it such language. Massachusetts and New Hamp-refuses to be humbugged any longer. Its defection leaves the Order without any organ in that National Council, and branded as traitors; aye city. In its last issue it says : "It is known that the party that assumed to be able to correct the crying abuses connected with the foreign vote of this country, and to put to route that army of demagogues who had controlled that vote for the most selfish purposes, has had aid and comfort, more or less, from the Tribuse. We have seen the accomplishment of a good work by the organization, in the assertion of true American principles and we have no discounted the introduction of alayery into any portion of the territory embraced in the position to quarrel with it; but we cannot that our eyes to the danger with which that party is threatened through its intimate connection with the ultraint of the South; and we should fall in our duty to our readers in neglecting to warn them of the treacherous nature of the ground upon which they tread."

the position assumed by the Order on the subject of slavery, it proceeds as follows:

of the most zealous of the Know Nothing organs. The name of the paper was even changed from "Whig Banner" to excommodate it to the prejudices of the order, and great has been the editor's glorifying over the growth and immaculate purity of "Nam." Hear him now. He of the most realous of the Know Nothing or-contributed to its triumphs. With the warning example of defunct parties, the evils of slavery, the aggressions of the Slave Power, and the utter folly and humbig of Union saving before their eyes, will the leaders of the American party adopt an evasive policy on the subject of Slavery! We would be glad to gree this question a negative anner, but we fear we cannot. Presses and politicians are hard at work, with subtle argument and fulsome appeals to the patriotism of the country, striving to bnild up a national party. "Abolitionists" are to be pacified and the Union is to be saved. The very same stale and unmanly rallying cries that led to the dissolution of old parties are re-hashed to nationalize and render permanent the American party. From such Americanism, Good Lord deliver us. There is not one manly, independent American idea about Americanism, Good Lord deliver us. There is not one manly, independent American idea about it. That party which undertakes to dodge the Slavery question at this day, or that endorses Slavery question at this day, or that endorses Slavery, directly or indirectly, evasively or open-ly is not an AMERICAN party—it is a despicable dough-face organization unworthy the name of American or the character of republican freemen. American or the character of republican treams. Southern men saknowledge no nationality which does not wink at Slavery and humiliate the North-Will the honest, intelligent and independent voters of the Free States sacrifice their free principles to help build up a National party, in the acknowledged sense of that term? We think not Neither "Sam" our any other pairon saint will the honest, intelligent and independent veters of the Free States sacrifice their free principles to help build up a National party, in the acknowledged sense of that term? We think not. Neither "Sam" nor any other patron saint can induce them to so far humiliate and disgrace themselves or their country. They are Anti-Siavery, free thinking, free acting, and will repuditate every attempt to "crush out" the eternal principles of justice and equality which have been infused into them by education, and an acknowledged duty to God and their fellow men.—The "higher law" principle governs their political action and they will desert the American party, just as they did the Whig and Democratic sparties, the moment it bows the knee to the dark spirit of Slavery, overfuses to stand in the breach and fight for Freedom and the Right.

There is no neutral ground on this question—Thuy that are not against Slavery are for it. In the present crisis there are two hostile elements—Freedom and Bondage. If the American party, does not declare for Freedom its existence will be as best payments we have ever seen any where can now be found in Pittsburgh. made of im-

New Hampshire State Councils had appointed Free Soil Delegates, and had passed Auti-Nebrasks resolutions, that paper says:

"It is not to be expected that so important and delicate a consummation as the nationalization of the American party can be effected without op-position. When it is done, it must be by mutual position. When it is done, it must be by mothal concessions, by compromises. But it cannot be expected that any State will concede rights or make compromises inconsistent with her futures welfare or her present security or that are derogatory to her honer. Were a State to do so, she would be untrue to herself, and unjust to posterity. With those who held that the regular of the fugitive slave law, the sholition of slavery in the District of Columbia, and the admission of no more slave States into the Union, are cardinal principles, points immovably fixed, the people of the South cannot even negotiate. The pre-notice of the South cannot even negotiate. The pre-notice of the South cannot even negotiate. it will prevail in that region quite extensively. The Horntourverse for May, is a welcome precludes approach, still more the possibility of adjustment. With such people those of the South cannot and will not concern expandative sither in the councils of the nation, in the concentions of the American party, or in the elections. While the people of the South are perfecily willing to take the chances under a faithful administration of the chances under a faithful administration of the laws and the requirements of the Constitution, whether the people of the territories shall ever inaugurate another State with a constitution precognizing slavery, yet will they never, never submit to the arbitrary enforcement of the rule submit to the arbitrary enforcement of the rule that there shall be no more slave States admitted that there shall be no more slave States admitted into the Dision. This is a fixed, settled determination of the people of the South, which those nation of the people of the South, which those nation of the people of the South, which those of the North will do well to learn, if they do not

On the banners of that party! No more glave territory—so more scave meant by the ignoring of the slavery question is, to let the South have its own way, without let or hindrance, in carrying out its gigantic designs for the artension and agreement and account of religious opinious or place of birth; no obsolete or the artension and agreement and account of religious opinious or place of birth; no obsolete or hindrance, in carrying out its gigantic designs for the extension and aggrandizement of slavery.

There is a shivering in the wind, however, nearer home. The American Republican Banner, published at Conneautville, in this State, is one of the Know Nothins or the American of the Know Nothins or the American of the Know Nothins or the Know Not Massachusetts passed similar resolves, and this is treason, and, with the traitors, is to be kicked out of the Know Nothing National Council.

We can tell the Louisville Journal that such sentiments may be rejected with score by the Know Nothing Convention, and they probably will be; but they cannot quite so easily be kicked out of the Union.
