PITTSBURGH: MONDAY MORNING, MAY 14, 1855.

BIRGULAE DEATH.—The Steubenville Hord&I is yr Captain John B. Hell was found dead in a fadd near Newburg in Jefferson county on Tues-ia gather herbe, and the supposition is that he took sick while out, and died. When his remains ware found they were protected by two of his fags which went out with him on Sunday morn-ing. The faithful animals were probably the only witnesses of his last moments, and kept watch over his body until it was discovered:— (Capt. H. was formerly a resident of Allegheny cuty, ad was about sixty-five years of age. city, ad was about sixty-five years of age.

DRATH OF ALDERMAN NEAL.—We are pained to announce the death, after a lingering illness of Elliott S. Neal, Esq., Alderman of the First ward, of this city. The painful event took place early on Sturiday morning. Mr. Neal had many and warm friends who will deeply mourn his loss. As a public officer Mr. Neal was efficient and ap-right and his name was ever above reproach. The funeral took place yesterday athalf-past two o'clock, from the residence of Lufermenn on Second street. A large number of Firmenn two o'clock, from the residence of Lukwichomis, on Second street. A large number of Firemen and citizens attended the remains to their last resting-place in the Allegheny Cometery.

to our city, stopping at the Monongahela House. DROWNED.—One day last week a young man named Cool Haney was drowned at Port Perry on the Monongahela River. The deceased was engaged on one of McClosky's coal boats, and, while working about one of the pumps, he fell overboard and was drowned. His body was it-covered about an hour atterwards, and several efforts were made to restore life, all of which proved ineffectual:

Max BURNED TO DRATH. -- On Saturday night, 5th inst., a railroid shanty, belonging to Benj. Wester, contractor, and also a small bridge close by on Section 21 Allegheiry Valley Bailroad, opposite Tarentum, were burned to sabes, having caught fire from a store pipe in the shanty. 'An Irish laborer sleeping in the house. was so budly burned that he died the next day.
