EXTENSIVE LARCESTES.—On Tuesday evening, a series of larcenies were perpetrated in West Pittsburgh upon some half a dozen German young men. The thieves went to their boarding house and gearching through their trunks tole three watches, and about $13 in money belonging to Andrew Mayers and Softer Higher. They then repaired to the shop where the young men were engaged at labor and took a number of articles of clothing to the value of about $50 in all. The larcenies were son discovered and information was immediately sent to officer McCully, of West Pittsburgh, who went to work with his usual vigilance and in an hour or two had traced the crime, to a man named Charles McDonald, in whose possession he found most of the stolen property. McDonald stated that he was innocent of the theft, that a man named William Shields had stolen the goods, and the same night brought them before Ald. Boyd, Fourth street, who committed them until yesterday morning when they were examined and McDonald finally committed for trial. Shields will have a further hearing.

RAIRBOAD EXCURSION.—The steamboat Thoract Striter leaves her wharf this morning at nine o'clock for West Newton for Layton of the Connelsville Road from West Newton for Layton station. A collation will be provided by the West Newtonians on the arrival of the excursionists. We understand a large number of our citizens, including members of the Councils, the Press, &c., intend going up.
