Removal.

THE OFFICE of the Pittsburgh Gazette has been removed to the new building on Fifth street, instance, smithfield, and immediately adjoining the Methodist Protestant Church.

Advance Payments.—Hereafter no sub-fore, in the most unequivocal manner indicated their wishes that no citizen of that commonwealth should consent to act as Slave Commissioner under its provisions. As there was no compulsion in the matter this was an easy and quiet way mon, to the attention of the intolerants. should consent to act as Slave Commissioner under its provisions. As there was no compulsion in the matter this was an easy and quiet way of nullifying an insulting and unconstitutional enactment. Mr. Loring held a high and responsible office from 'the state, that of Judge of Probate, and yet he stooped to accept the office of Slave Commissioner, and exercised his duties under it in the rendition of the fugitive Burns. The people of Massachusetts were naturally exceedingly indignant that one of their Judges should thus degrade the office he held from the State, and outrage their cherished opinions, and they called for his removal—not from the office of slave Commissioner, over which they had no direct control, but from that of Judge of one of the state courts, which they considered diagraced and degraded by his conduct. The Legislature of the State, by a large majority, in obedience to the will of the people, and we have adopted by accomply, and the whole pro-slavery press, North and South, has set up a shout of trimph. The North American says the "Constitution is vindicated!"

Now who are to be the judges of what is constitutional for the people of Massachusetts themelves! and who have the best right to say what is fitting or not fitting in the conduct of one of their judges, the people of Massachusetts themelves! and who have the best right to say what is fitting or not fitting in the conduct of one of their judges, the people of Massachusetts themelves! and who have the best right to say what is fitting or not fitting in the conduct of one of their judges, the people of Massachusetts themelves! and who have the best right to say what is fitting or not fitting in the conduct of one of their judges, the people of Massachusetts themelves! and who have the best right to say what is fitting or not fitting in the conduct of one of their judges, the people of Massachusetts themelves! and who have the best right to say what is fitting or not fitting in the conduct of one of their judges, the people of Massachusetts is much superior to that of Commissioner under the Fugitive Slave Law. It is more reputable, and its duties are not half so degrading. The one executes the sentence of the law upon a convicted murderer: the other sends an innocent, friendless human being into hopeless slavery, with all his posterity, for no crime whatever, and he pockets an additional five-dollar fee for so doing!

Is there any compulsion upon any citizen of Massachusetts to act as Slave Commissioner?—

that recognise any rights in a sovereign State? rest was right. that recognise any rights in a sovereign State? If one of our Supreme Judges should accept the office of hangman from the Federal Government, and the people of this State should demand his removal and the demand should be refused, would the North American raise the shout, "The Constitution is vindicated?" We repeat, the office of hangman is more constitutional, and far more reputable in the eyes of the people of Massachureputable in the eyes of the people of Massachusetts than the office of Slave Commissioner. If the North American says the public opinion of Massachusetts is wrong, we would ask, who has authority to be judge in the ease? Have they elecen were standing on the platform when they not the best right to decide what is proper and met their death. So says the Report of the state Engineer and Surveyor, and travellers on fitting in the conduct of their own public officer?

But Gov. Gardiner, it seems, was only carrying out Know Nothing principles. The North Ameri-

"We are more gratified that he adopted the course he did for the reason that he is understood to have been elevated to his office by the vote of a party which, in view of the control it seems destined to exercise in the future in our national government, we have been anxious to see taking lofty national ground in its creed and action. Had he failtered in the grave juncture in which he was placed by the circumstances which surrounded him he would have inflicted a disastrous blow upon the character of that political movement of which, in his own State, he is regarded as the representative. We are glad that Gov. Gardner, in the very centre of a fanaticial agitation, hostile to the Union, has planted himself, a leader of the American party, on the platform a leader of the American party, on the platform of the Federal Constitution, and thus afforded or the reterial and liberal loyalty of that political community to which he belongs. If all who represent it in public station, bear the same noble testimony to the faith that is in them.

We shall see. We rather think the North will not consent to perform the ignoble work of slavecatching much longer for the haughty slavemasters who would not soil their fingers with such dirty work. If the Know-Nothing party is to take up the work, and if its leaders are to their servility to the pro-slavery sentiment, the "triumph of the cause" will be as evanescent as the Anti-Slavery sentiments of the North-
