TO DEALERS IN WASHBOARDS.

IN 1847 O. RICE, of Cincinnati, invented a washboard, for which in 1848 he obtained a Patent in Oct., 1849. Said improvement consisted in properly preparing the Edges of a sheet of Zinc (or other suitable metal) and then causing them to Bend or cut their way into the solid wooden sides or legs of a Washboard, which edges, when so set, are found to have been placed a groove or cut a sufficient to receive the metallic plate. O. RICE subsequently sold his entire Patent right (except in Ohio) to A. WELLS, who is now Sole Proprietor thereof, as well as only authorized manufacturer of RICE'S PATENT ZINC EDGED WASHBOARDS, having succeeded the late firm of Wayne, Bailey & Co. in that business. Induced by the great popularity attending said Washboards, numerous unauthorized persons have engaged in making and vending them without right so to do, thereby violating the Rights secured by said Patent. Suits have been commenced and are now pending against such parties, known to be thus engaged, and it is my intention to prosecute for all infringements upon my legal and just right to the extent of the law in such cases made and provided against purchasing or dealing in Zinc Washboards, made after the manner patented by Rice, and known as "Rice's Improved Washboards, Patented Oct. 1849," some other brand or name. It may be well to remark that the variation in the Zinc Washboards, so called, from the original Machine to nail Washboards, does not give the right to make Zinc Washboards, and that the Patent Right by which the sales of the Board really depends. Wholesale purchasers will receive circular respectfully solicited and promptly executed as to low prices and terms. All unauthorized makers, by JOSEPH W. WAYNE,

Sole Proprietor and Manufacturer,

Office at Hardware Store, No. 196 Main st., opposite 5th, Cincinnati, Ohio.

NEW YORK ADVERTISEMENTS.

From VISSCHER & SCHELL'S General Advertising House, No. 346 and 348 Broadway, New York, (late No. 80 Nassau street.)

Reliable Firms in the City of New York.

Pure Unadulterated Brandies,

DIRECT FROM THE GROWER.

ONE of the principal and great causes of the high price of Brandy in this market, is the indirect source from which it is derived. Nine-tenths of that imported is received from mercantile houses in Cognac, who buy of the farmers in that district and ship it to the United States, at much advanced prices, and frequently in an adulterated state. In view of these facts, and for the purpose of securing a fair price for their produce, a union of twenty growers in France has been accomplished, with the view of shipment to the United States.

The name of the consolidation is the Central Society of Vineyard Proprietors of Cognac, under the general management and the direction of E. Reddon, President, a Vice President, and a Committee of Inspection of eight members. The society itself numbers five hundred vineyard proprietors, amongst them some of the most influential noblemen in the neighborhood of Cognac, who contribute, under certain by-laws, the entire growth of their vineyards to the general fund of the society, the present capital of which is three millions francs. The advantages to be obtained from this combination are so apparent as to render unnecessary any further comment on the subject. It may be worthy of observation that few features in this society possess a more striking claim to public attention than the fusion of interest effected between buyer and seller. Since all are shareholders, it necessarily becomes the interest of each individual to contribute by every means in his power to uphold the reputation which the society is endeavoring to earn, for shipment of the best qualities of brandies. For this purpose a clause introduced in the statutes (article 40) renders it imperative that shareholders shall supply the society with the very best Cognac brandies, otherwise they incur the liability of an entire forfeiture of their shares.

The undersigned, sole agents in the United States for the Central Society of Vineyard Proprietors of Cognac, would solicit the attention of merchants, hotel keepers, grocers and others to the vintages now on hand, confident that they will compare more favorably than ordinary brandies now in the market, and as prices are below the standard of even ordinary Cognacs.
