BURGLATISS IN BIRATIONAR.-On Friday night last at a late hour, the house of M. F. Eaton, on Carson street Birmingham, was en-tered through a back window; the burglars searched all through the house, and succeeded in carrying off considerable plunder. Fifteen dollars were taken from the pocket of O. Orma-by Gregg who was sleeping in the house. They also obtained about $30 worth of silver ware. The house of J. C. Mowry was also entered on the same night but the rouges became alarmed and made off in a hurry. Amour A HAT.-The gentleman who took the wroug hat and left one of the same make (by j Paulson,) at the Court of Quarter Stession, on Saturday, will please call at this office and make the exchange.
