PITTSBURGH:

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 5, 1855.

COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS.—Before Judges McClure, Boggs and Addison.

Court convened on Tuesday at nine o'clock.

The first case taken up was a trifling surety of the peace case, in which Catherine Gausley was plaintiff, and Angeli Smith, Eliza Graham, David Graham, Homer Stephens, Joseph Daugherty, Isaac Bennet, William Stoner, William F. Smith, Thomas Barker, William Robinson, Samuel Kirby, and Isaac Cunningham were defendants. The parties all reside in the borough of Elizabeth, and were alleged to have created a disturbance at prosecutrix's house. Nearly the entire morning session was occupied with the hearing of the case (a most unnecessary extravagance of time for so petty a matter.) The Court ordered the defendants to pay the costs and refused to bind them over.

Commonwealth vs. Maria Strattan. Indictment, larceny, on oath of William Craig. Mrs. Strattan is indicted jointly with a lad named Rufus Connor, who has been sent to the House of Refuge.

William Craig, testified—Live on 3d street; lost a silver watch, No. 1143, on the 28th of December last; this watch (here produced,) is the one I then lost; it was hanging in my kitchen when I last saw it; the next time I saw it officer Moon showed it to me; the watch cost me $35.

A. T. Bougher, testified—Am one of the Mayor's police; found the watch in possession of Mr. Berger, watchmaker; had a search warrant; this is the same watch; it was some time in January when I found it.

Mrs. Berger—My husband lives at the corner of Washington street and Pennsylvania Avenue; he is a watchmaker; a boy came to me in the evening to sell a watch; he said his father had sent him; I would not buy it; he said he would leave the watch if I would give him fifty cents to buy bread; gave it to him and kept the watch; about a week after, the boy came back, and asked if I would buy the watch; told him I would not unless he brought his father or mother; he said his father was a cripple; his mother (the defendant here) came and I agreed to give her $2,50 for the watch; when she got all the money, she gave me a receipt; the boy said his name was David Jones, and his father's name was William Jones; it was the 18th of January when I gave her the last payment on the watch.

Officer Bougher re-called—Know a boy called Rufus Connor; know his mother; this defendant is not his mother.

No testimony offered for the defence.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Commonwealth vs. Eliza Fisher. Indictment, assault and battery, on oath of John Nidsbach. The offence was alleged to have been committed on the sixteenth of April last and to have consisted of a blow on the head with a stone. Roberts for Commonwealth; Irish for defence.

The Jury rendered a verdict of not guilty, defendant to pay the costs.

The Jury in the case of Maria Strattan returned a verdict of guilty, with a recommendation to the mercy of the Court.

Commonwealth vs. John Tagg and Joseph Wymer. Indictment, larceny, on oath of John Bryant. Roberts for Commonwealth; Hampton for defence. The alleged larceny consisted of the stealing of two cows from prosecutor who resides near Baden station on the Ohio & Pennsylvania Railroad.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty as to both defendants, with a recommendation of John Tagg to the mercy of the Court.

Commonwealth vs. Pennington Ray. Indictment, indecent exposure of person on oath of C. Yeager.

The Jury rendered a verdict of not guilty.

Commonwealth vs. Henry Fitzgerald. Indictment, assault and battery, on oath of Mary Schneder.

FATAL OCCURRENCE ON THE ALLEGHENY VALLEY R. R.—CORONER'S INQUEST.—On Tuesday morning about seven o'clock as a number of laborers on the Allegheny Valley Railroad, were going to their work, about seven miles from the city, they discovered a man lying at the bottom of an embankment about fifty feet high. On reaching the spot where he was lying, they found that he was very much injured but was still living. He had just strength enough to articulate a few words, and informed the men that his name was Robert Curry, and that he resided in the Fifth Ward, Pittsburgh, where he had a wife and seven children. He then called for a drink of water which was immediately brought him, but the vital action was so weak that he was unable to swallow it, and he shortly after breathed his last. One of his legs was badly fractured and it is presumed he had also received severe internal injuries. He was seen walking along the road alone, the evening before, and, although not habitually intemperate, it is presumed that he had been drinking to excess and had fallen asleep on the edge of the embankment over which he fell and received the injuries mentioned.

Coroner Lowry held an inquest, yesterday, when the Jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the facts.

ANOTHER VICTIM OF THE BOTTLE.—CORONER'S INQUEST.—A woman about thirty-five years of age, named Mrs. Mary Meekin, was found dead in her house on Monday evening. She formerly resided on Webster street, but on Friday last moved into a house on Basin alley, in the Seventh Ward. She was observed in her house on Sunday, but on Monday she did not go out or in as usual, and the neighbors, becoming alarmed, broke open the door of the house and found her lying upon the floor, dead. A little daughter of deceased was found in the same room in a condition bordering on starvation. Mrs. Meekin was a woman of very intemperate habits and her death may be added to that fearful catalogue which annually mounts up to hundreds in this region. She was a sister of Mrs. Charlotte Burke, who committed suicide in the County Jail on Friday last by throwing herself from the third tier of cells upon the stone floor below.—Mrs. Meekin's husband left the city in March, and is now down the river.

Coroner Lowry held an inquest on the body yesterday and a verdict of "Death from Intemperance" was rendered.

MAPLE SUGAR.—Mr. John Wilson, No. 268 Liberty street, has received some very fine Maple Sugar, in bbls., which he advertises for sale. The difference in price between this and common sugar is but a trifle, while the difference in quality and taste is decidedly in favor of the Maple. Those who are fond of this kind of sugar (and who is not?) would do well to give Mr. Wilson a call.

HOUSE BREAKING.—The dwelling of Mrs. Dalzell, on the bank of the canal, near the Aequeduct, Allegheny, was entered by some petty thieves on Monday, while the occupant was absent, and a quantity of clothing together with a small amount of money taken.

THE thermometers yesterday indicated a warmer atmosphere than we had on Sunday and Monday. The morning was of the same chill, frosty unusual character for the month of June, as on the two previous mornings.

NARROW ESCAPE.—Mrs. Angelina Smith, of Elizabeth, fell from the Brownsville wharf boat, into the river, yesterday morning, but was rescued without difficulty. She had a child in her arms at the time.

BAILED.—David Robinson, who was arrested as an accomplice of Yeats and Graham in the burglary of Mr. Shriver's house, was admitted to bail yesterday in the sum of $2,500.

A NEW locomotive—the "Allegheny"—a very handsome machine—is now at the Canal in Allegheny and is intended for the Allegheny Valley Railroad.

We are informed by the physician of the jail, that the prisoners who were recently attacked with the scurvy, are mostly recovered.

THE stores on Market street hereafter close at seven o'clock, P. M. A very good arrangement, which we hope to see adhered to by all.

THE County Committee of the old Native American Party meets next Saturday.

England & France to keep each two ships therein; Turkey undertaking not to enter into a treaty with Russia unless it be submitted to France and England.

According to the Vienna papers the Conference will be reopened. The meeting is to take place on the 28th without the Russian plenipotentiaries; another on the 28th at which they will be present.

Lord Palmerston's explanations to Parliament indicate that these meetings are preliminary only.

The Austrian envoy leaves immediately for Frankfort to urge the immediate mobilization of the German federal forces.

It is reported that Austria has sent secret circulars to all the German Courts insisting that each shall specify distinctly the line of conduct they mean to follow.

Pellissier's appointment is immensely popular and operations on a great scale are confidently looked for. It is surmised that Pelissier will make a bold attempt to cut off Liprandi's army.

The secret expedition recalled from Keilah, it is reported has again sailed; its destination is unknown.

A correspondence from the English camp dated the 8th, says that the army is well supplied with luxuries and all the necessaries. There was some fever and cholera still prevailing.

There was a spirited engagement on the right attack on the night of the 10th; loss considerable. On the 11th and 12th there was a sortie made on the left attack. The Russians charged up the British trenches; some leaped over the parapets and were bayonetted. The loss was severe. The British lost one captain and over 100 were hors du combat.

Under date of the 19th, Gorischakoff telegraphs that the enemy's fire is weak. Our losses are moderate. Both sides are repairing and erecting batteries. There was a severe battle before the walls.

Pellissier telegraphs on the 24th, that there was a very lively combat against our important position which lasted all night. We obtained complete success. The Russian loss was enormous; ours considerable.

The Paris gives further particulars. The French attacked the Russian entrenched camp near the bastian on the 23d, and carried it by assault.

LATEST.—Saturday Morning.—The Moniteur has a despatch from Pellissier dated the 25th, stating that the French occupied a large place, D'Amire, between Central bastion and the sea shore, the enemy having had enormous losses the preceding day, yielded more easily.

Walenski is a circular to French agents abroad, answers Nesselrode's late note.

An imperial ukase authorises the Polish treasury to effect a loan for the current expenses of the army in Poland.

A great debate occurred in the British Commons on the 24th on D'Israeli's motion of want of confidence and expressing dissatisfaction at the ambiguous language and uncertain conduct of the government. Sir Francis Baring, on behalf of the government moved an amendment regretting the failure of the conferences and promising every support to continue the war. D'Israeli and his party lashed the government, especially Palmerston, and Russell. The latter replied defending his conduct at Vienna. The debate continued until Friday. On a division there were 219 for D'Israeli and 319 against, consequently the ministry stands.

NEW YORK, June 5.—The Know Nothings held a meeting at Stuyvesant Institute last night, to make an open declaration of American principles. The meeting was not large. Addresses and Resolutions similar to those of the Barker Know Nothings were adopted. An attempt was made to introduce the question of slavery which caused some disturbance, but it signally failed. COMMITTEE OF ARBITRATION, FOR JUNE.
W. H. SMITH, V. P.—JAS. M. COOPER, S. HARBAUGH, THOS. SARGENT, W. P. JONES.

REVIEW OF THE PITTSBURGH MARKET.

For the Week ending June 5, 1855.

The weather since Friday last has been quite cool, and we have rumors of frost in a few quarters, sufficiently heavy, it is said, to injure the fruit which is in bloom. The Wheat is not yet far enough advanced for that. We think that the frost must have been very slight, indeed, and confined, to exposed hill tops. The rains which fell on Thursday, Friday and Saturday were very opportune and, unless the cold weather be protracted, must prove of immense benefit to the growing crops.

The general tenor of all our advices from the West is favorable—the crops are promising. In some counties of Southern Michigan and Northern Ohio there are bitter complaints of the ravages of the fly; but in Northern Michigan and throughout the West generally there is a remarkable absence of all complaints. In Eastern Pennsylvania, Maryland and Virginia there are bad reports, the drouth having injured the fields immensely.

Business continues to grow gradually duller. The rains have not affected the Rivers, except to keep them from falling, and the business of freighting is nearly over. In the jobbing line there is a steady trade going on, and manufacturers are still kept busily employed. The receipts of Pittsburgh and the country during the past Spring have been very large, leaving stocks quite low. The aggregate to the 1st inst are: 233,058,2lbs. Window Glass; 173,982, &c. Glass Ware; 425,476 bars. Iron; 145,882 bdls. do.; 346,213 kgs. Nails; 4,'08 pkgs. Copper; 83,464 pcs. Steel; 7 1,644 Springs and Axles; 10,022 sets Wagon Boxes; 37,116 kgs. White Lead, and 37,020 pkgs. sundries.

Prices of Produce remain nearly as they were.—The fall in the River has advanced freights so much that the decline of Flour in Cincinnati can have no effect here. The feeling throughout the country is against the produce trade of any material decline before harvest. We subjoin the prevailing prices of Flour and Wheat throughout the West at latest dates:

| | FLOUR. | WHEAT. |
|---|---|---|
| Buffalo, | 9,37@9,62 | 1,96@1,98 |
| Cleveland, | 9,25@10,00 | 2,00@2,05 |
| Toledo, | 9,50@9,75 | 1,95@2,00 |
| Detroit, | 9,00@9,75 | 2,05@2,10 |
| Chicago, | 9,00@9,75 | 1,90@2,00 |
| Cincinnati, | 9,00@9,25 | 1,70@1,80 |
| Louisville, | 9,25@9,50 | 1,90@2,00 |

The Boston shipping List since the arrival of new No. 3 Mackarel and sales at $8,50, which, it says, "is a considerable decline."

The imports of the week at New York, other than Dry Goods, were $2,040,940, against $2,567,236 same week of last year. The aggregated imports of the week were:

| | 1854. | 1855. |
|---|---|---|
| Dry Goods, | $1,221,553 | $ 671,574 |
| General Merchandize, | 2,567,236 | 2,049,940 |
| Total, | $3,788,794 | $2,671,514 |

The export of Specie from New York last week was $2,189,867, of which the steamer to Liverpool took $1,686,288 and the steamer to Havana $480,625. The amount in Boston to-day is expected to take over a million. These shipments are in advance, so far, of our receipts from California, and show no signs of abatement. The total shipments from New York from Jan. 1st to June 2d were $14,702,256, and from Boston, $6,282,067; aggregate $19,984,-343—or twenty millions in round numbers, and the average, now, is $1,500,000 a week. Unless California produces better than she has ever stood this long, for specie or the week, from New York, exclusive of Specie, were $1,-258,805, against $1,573,081 same week last year.

The aggregate imports at that port, to June 1st, were $66,500,951, against $60,310,014 last year, or exceed the same period, exclusive of Specie, $27,190,038, against $29,063,385 last year.

The business of the Philadelphia Mint for May was small in the Metal Coinage, viz: Gold coinage, $266,000; Silver purchases, $272,000—total of Gold and Silver deposits, $268,200. Total Gold coinage, $255,756; total Silver, $41,000. Total number of pieces coined 1,633,845. The Gold coinage was mainly in Double Eagles, and the Silver very largely of Quarter Dollars. The lightness of coinages is occasioned by the shipments of California Gold in Bars to Europe, as fast as it arrives.

The second suspension of Messrs. Page, Bacon & Co., at San Francisco, of which we have word by the last steamer, complicates the affairs of that House in the most wonderful manner. The New York Tribune says it will most likely be found that the immense liabilities have been over rated and that we shall hear of, further failures by the next arrival.

The tone of the Eastern Money market is unchanged.—The New York papers quote money as "abundant at 6 ₰ cent. on call and prime securities. At Philadelphia Money continues abundant, and first-class paper is readily absorbed by the Banks. For paper-class the rates are 7@8 ₰ cent. At Boston the supply is increasing, and rates are rather easier. At Baltimore the rates are quoted as nominal out of doors, the Banks absorbing all the good paper offering.

MONEY & EXCHANGE.—Monetary affairs remain as before. The Banks continue to do a fair business, absorbing the larger part of paper presented. Sight Exchange, No. 1 paper as offers outside is quoted at 1 ₰ cent. a month. Currency and Eastern Exchange remain at previous rates.

ASHES—Pearls met with good sale at 6¾, four mos. Pots are quotable at 5¾@6, as in quality, and Saleratus at same figures; Soda Ash is steady sale at 3¾, on time, for common quality.

APPLES—nothing doing, the season being pretty well over.

BACON—the demand is not so active as it was, but is still good and steady; prime city-cured Shoulders, Sides and Hams bring 9, 9 and 10, cash, cured Hams 11, and Sugar-cured do. 13. On time a fraction is added to these quotations.

BUTTER & EGGS—prime Roll Butter is not offering to any extent; we quote 14@15 as the outside rates. Common Roll 12@13. Fresh Packed, 12¼. Eggs are in good demand and inquired for at 13.

BEANS—very few to be had; held freely at $2,75 ₰ bus, on Small White.

BROOMS—there is a firm request for common to good Ohio on arrival at $2,25@$4,00, and from store at $2,50@$3,000.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—sales at mill at New Brighton, of Buck at $1,75 ₰ 6cwt.; Large Tubs $5,50; Small do. $6,00; Keelers $3,00. From store, Buckets $3,25; Large Tubs $7,50; Small do. $7,00.

COTTON YARNS—sales are steady at our quotations, as arrived below:

| | FOUR YARN. | | SIX YARN. | |

CATTLE MARKET.

ALLEGHENY, June 4, 1855.

The supply of stock was very large on Monday, the high prices prevailing at the previous week's sale and the fact that large numbers had been purchased in the East, having tempted holders forward. The Ohio & Pennsylvania Road brought in on Saturday night 28 car loads of Cattle, Sheep and Hogs; besids which an immense number was driven in. There were 1650 Sheep and 320 Hogs intended for this market, and a large part of the Cattle, also, "but was intended for the same" destination. If not sold here—Prices, of course, gave way considerably, the butchers ruling down for gentlemen of fastness. Good qualities, with a large variety of selected fruit. Also, cost on the premises. Three indispensable, for all purchasers, will be found constantly at my room at the United States Hotel, Penn street. Where plots and drafts of the lands can be seen, and title papers examined. Will be sold in a body, or separate, as desired. R. MICHELS.
