PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

PUBLISHED BY D. E. WHITE.

PITTSBURGH:

THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 21, 1855.

Removal.

THE OFFICE of the Pittsburgh Gazette has been removed to the new building on Fifth street, just above Smithfield, and immediately adjoining the Methodist Protestant Church.

☞To Advertisers.—Neither the Editorial Room or Printing Establishment of the Daily Gazette, are opened on Sunday. Advertisers who desire their notices to appear in the paper on Monday morning, will please hand them in before 3 o clock, on Saturday.

Advance Payments.—Hereafter no subscription will be taken for the Daily or Weekly Gazette, unless payment is made in advance. Whenever the time is up to which the subscription is paid, the paper will be invariably stopped, unless the subscription is renewed by advance payment. All transient advertising, of every description, will be required to be paid in all cases. The only exceptions will be where special month ly or yearly contracts are made. sept1-tdaw

☞Pittsburgh Weekly Gazette.—The extensive circulation of our Weekly Gazette offers to our business men the most desirable medium of making their business known Our circulation is larger than that of any other paper, reaching almost every merchant, manufacturer and shop-keeper in Western Pennsylvania, and Eastern Ohio.

☞Mr. H. P. MUELLER, late editor of the Staats Zeitung and now connected with the Pittsburgher Courier, is authorised to solicit subscriptions and advertisements for the Pittsburgh Gazette, according to our published terms Pittsburgh March 1, 1855.

Reading Matter on each page of this paper

THE FIFTH STREET EXTENSION.—No report has yet been made as to the probable cost of this undertaking, and consequently no steps taken towards its accomplishment. It is proper that abundant time should be given to have the matter thoroughly understood at the beginning; and we recur to it, now, not for the purpose of hurrying action, but to keep the matter before the public.

Another suggestion has been made with reference to this improvement, which was not before councils when the examination and estimates were ordered, viz: to commence the extension from the corner of Ross street to the Pennsylvania Avenue at Chatham street, instead of from Grant street. It is urged that this would be much less expensive than the other, inasmuch as it would interfere less with valuable property already occupied. This is undeniable; and if the mere expense is to be the controlling consideration, this plan will have to be preferred.

Presuming, however, that other considerations will be of some avail, it can do no harm to mention the objections to this proposition. The first is, that it would make the street of unequal width. Pennsylvania Avenue is the same width as Fifth street from Liberty to Grant; while from Grant to Ross streets, Fifth is several feet narrower than the main part of the street. To extend it, therefore, from the corner of Ross to the Avenue, preserving the width of the latter, would give us a street wide at the two ends and narrow for a small space in one of the principal points of the thoroughfare. The second objection is that the departure from a straight line would be increased by beginning the extension at Ross street, and would detract that much from its general appearance.

The first objection might be remedied by widening Fifth street from Grant to Ross, so as to make it of uniform width, and in that event the second objection would not be insuperable; but it remains to be seen whether the additional expense this would entail would not make the plan as expensive as the other.

There would be one advantage in this arrangement. It would, by preserving the whole of Fifth street as it nowstands, save the little space from the corner of Wylie to the corner of Ross from being an eyesore, as it would be if the extension should be commenced at Grant.

These are all matters to be taken into consideration; and we bring them forward, now, for the purpose, not only of pressing them upon public attention, but for the additional purpose of keeping the general question, involved in this important improvement, before the public eye.

IMPORTATIONS FROM EUROPE BY PITTSBURGH MERCHANTS.—We were not aware, until furnished with the following table from the books of the Custom House, in this city, of the extent of direct importations into this city from Europe, and we presume the information which this table furnishes will be new to most of our readers.—The table is as follows:

	Invoices.	Value.	Duties. Paid
Whitmore, Wolf & Co.,	16	$12,000 00	$3,302 45
W. McClintock,	1	3,836 00	1,150 80

This information is important, inasmuch as it conveys the assurance to country dealers that Pittsburgh merchants are not absolutely dependent upon eastern importers for their supplies.—The feeling which generally prevails abroad is that our merchants have to buy of eastern importers and cannot therefore sell as cheaply as their eastern competitors. This is a mistake.—Some of our largest mercantile houses are constantly making heavy purchases in France, England, &c., and shipping the same to Pittsburgh, paying the duties either at the Custom House here or at the east.

Up to within a year past duties were not paid to any extent on direct importations, at our Custom House, owing to the want of facilities for the receipt of goods direct, and our importers therefore preferred paying at the Custom Houses on the seaboard. But these facilities having been furnished under some new Treasury regulations, foreign goods are received here direct, in their original packages, and the duties paid to the U. S. Collector for this port. Whatever advantages, therefore, are possessed by direct importers in the east, are now shared by our own merchants, and they can therefore offer unusual inducements to country dealers.

The table above given does not, we would remark, indicate the full extent of Pittsburgh importations. A number of our merchants, as we know, in virtue of their arrangements at the east, prefer for the present to pay duties there, and their names do not appear in this list. The publication of it, however, affords the opportunity of bringing the general fact before the public that Pittsburgh merchants are direct importers of European goods, and that they present unusual facilities to western buyers.

The Know Nothings of Washington County have nominated John A. Happer, of Union, and John Birch, of Claysville, for Assembly, and James B. Ruple for Sheriff. Both the late members of Assembly were Know Nothings, and it seems inexplicable that they should both have been left off. The new nominees are both clever gentlemen, personally, but are not above the average which has lately prevailed in the Legislature. Mr. Birch has been a leading democrat, hitherto, and Mr. Happer a whig. Mr. Ruple, the nominee for Sheriff, has been an active democrat, and is at present Deputy Sheriff. Both the whigs and democrats will nominate distinct tickets.

The Kansas Herald of Freedom, just received chronicles the death of N. W. GOODRICH, Esq., late of Mo-Kean County, Pa., and a member of the Pennsylvania Kansas Company which went to that Territory last autumn. Mr. G. stopped with his family in Kansas City, Mo., last winter, and in the spring selected a location at Waubonsa, a point seventy-five miles west of Lawrence, on the river. Here he erected a dwelling and place of business, and about the last of April went with a team for his family. He set out with them, and arrived as far as Cedar Creek, fifteen miles from Westport, where he encamped for the night. In the morning he found himself too ill to proceed with his journey, and at one o'clock was a corpse. His disease was of the bowels and closely resembled the cholera.

The Herald also says that "Mr. Smith," a member of the legal profession, from Butler County, Pa., has purchased a claim about a mile east of Lawrence, and proposes improving it as a private residence. "Mr. Smith" is rather indefinite. We presume that George W. Smith, Esq., is the gentleman alluded to.

Efforts have been made by the steamers in the Kansas river to ascend it above Lawrence, but they failed to get above Topeka, some 25 miles from there. The Kansas is therefore believed to be navigable only as far as Lawrence except in times of flood.

☞The rain of Saturday night extended pretty far to the North-west, although seeming to be but a thunderstorm. It was very heavy at Cleveland, and was as severe on the upper parts of the lake. The Sandusky Register says:

It is remarked upon all hands that the storm of Saturday evening was one of the most terrific which ever has visited us. Such volumes of water never before poured down our streets, and cellars that never have stood in water were overflowed. In the country hail stones of a large size fell, cutting trees and vegetation, cracking glass, &c. Grain in many places is beaten down to the ground and injured very much, but may straighten up again ere harvest.

The Toledo Blade says: "We were visited Saturday night by a severe rain storm, which continued until yesterday. The streams in this vicinity are considerably swollen by it."

The Ashland Times says: "The rain of Saturday evening last, was the hardest ever known in that section of the State. A. Mr. Proudfit lost one hundred head of sheep by the flood, and other farmers suffered, the bottom lands being covered with water."

The storm even extended as far west as Fort Wayne, Indiana. The Standard of that place under date of Monday evening, says:

We have been visited with the most severe rain storm, that we have experienced for years. It commenced about 6 o'clock on Saturday afternoon and continued with but little cessation until after daylight yesterday (Sunday) morning and we have no recollection of ever having witnessed a more flood like storm than it was.—It was but a very short space of time, after it began to rain until some of our streets were being swept with the rushing waters. Last evening it commenced raining again and we had another very hard rain which lasted near an hour, then a cessation until near ten o'clock, when it commenced again and at what time it ceased we know not; present prospects are that we shall have more soon.

The Canal has been badly damaged. There are said to be seven breaks in the Canal and feeder, within seven or eight miles of the city.

We have not witnessed the water so high for years previous. The bottoms present the appearance of Lakes. The St. Mary's and St. Joe' Rivers are rising at this hour and when we may look for an abating of the waters, is yet in the future.

It is impossible to give any thing like a just estimate of the damage done to the crops within Allen County.

The announcement made in a Telegraphic despatch to the New York Times, from Philadelphia, that the Executive committee of the K. N. Council of this State had endorsed the platform of the National Council, has given great trouble in this quarter. One faction asserts that it is not true; while the other says that the act of the Executive Committee will be reversed when the State Council meets. Both factions (or fractions?) agree in looking forward to the State Council as their only hope of salvation from the blunders of their National delegates.

We have no doubt of the truth of the dispatch copied from the New York Times. At least, it is safer to believe a statement emanating from one on the spot, and whose other statements have been fully corroborated, than the denial of one who has (by implication, if not directly,) denied his membership in the Order and esteemed it an insult to be charged therewith.

As to the meeting of the State Council on the 3d of July, we have no faith that it will result in the abandonment of the National organization. Mr. Freeman, one of the delegates to the National Council, is Vice President of that body, and, holding the office second in influence therein, is bound to use his utmost efforts to make the action of the State Council comport with that of the national body. The Order in Philadelphia has already enthusiastically endorsed the platform; and if the actions and views of the late delegates from the middle and northern parts of the State be any indication of the sentiment of those localities, there can be no doubt that the lead of Philadelphia will promptly be followed there. Berks, Lancaster, York, &c., in the centre of the State, and Lycoming, Clinton and other neighboring counties in the North, are more likely to fall in with Messrs. Small, Vancleve and Bell than to rebel in behalf of anti-slavery sentiments, which have never had a staunch foothold there. The leading men of the Order in the State are committed to the National platform and are bound to get it endorsed if they can; Philadelphia alone constitutes nearly one-fifth of the State, and will also bring to bear a vast amount of influence in the same direction; and the outside pressure from the National Council and the Order in other States will be almost irresistible. Only the western counties are likely to show any thing like pluck in the way of resistance; and if they are not represented by men of more firmness in the State Council than they sent to Philadelphia lately, all their resistance will amount to but little.

The K. N. ratification meeting in New York on Monday night was equal to the usual affairs of that kind got up in that city. The papers claim that there were 10,000 present, which is 90,000 less than the Philadelphians claim. One fourth of the population of the Quaker City, men, women and children, must have been out to the demonstration in Independence Square, according to the estimate of the K. N. press.—The New Yorkers are either more modest or less enthusiastic.

The speakers were all from the South and Pennsylvania; but, as the Keystone State has adopted the Southern platform, we may very properly say that the speakers were all from the South.

The Tribune says that the demonstration was a regular Silver-Gray affair throughout. The long array of Southerners who aided Barker & Co. in adopting the Pro-Slavery Platform at Philadelphia to the disruption of the National Council occupied the whole attention of the meeting, and they were determined to let the dough-faced Northern members of their party know that "there is a South."

The Hon. Neil S. Brown, of Tennessee, informed his audience that he was not much afraid of foreigners generally, and was fearless of the Irish in particular; but then, said Mr. Brown, they had "to fight for that long line of posterity which came streaming up from the great womb of time; it was for their great destiny looming up from the halo of mighty ages that they were endeavoring to hedge around the Constitution and this Union." Oh, oh!

The Hon. Mr. Burwell, of Virginia, said "the Virginia delegation had pledged itself to the platform of the New York delegation; and allow me to say had it not been for the gallantry of the New York and Pennsylvania delegations that platform could not have had an existence!" Thank you, Mr. Burwell. We had a slight suspicion of this before.

The Hon. J. Cunningham, of South Carolina, said that the K. N. party had a three-fold mission to perform. The first was to control the elections; the second to put American statesmen in office; and the third to put down the Anti-Slavery spirit of the North.

This was the general tenor of the whole affair. The platform, of course, was adopted; and the ten thousand men in buckram went home at a late hour with the conviction that if the free spirit of the North was to be tamed, "American" demagogues manufactured into statesmen, and "that long line of posterity which came streaming up from the great womb of time" taken care of, they were just the fellows to do it. The country is safe; and not only in this generation, but the safety of posterity as it comes "streaming up from the great womb of time" is provided for. Who is afraid?

The Ohio River and Beaver Creek are again at flood height. The Embankment which is to intersect the Bridge of the Cleve. & Pitts. R. R. Co., at the mouth of the creek, has resisted all the force which the raging waters were able to bring against it. The bank at the western pier of the Bridgewater Bridge has been washed away, and the road that formerly led along the edge of the creek to the river, has been completely destroyed. A large sum of money, and a vast quantity of stone will be required to repair the damage.—Beaver Argus.

BROOKLYN, L. I., is much agitated by the liquor law excitement. The grand jury has found two hundred indictments against the liquor dealers, and the latter have held several meetings to prepare for their defence. The German movement to organize a military force to resist the enforcement of the law, has called forth a proclamation from the Mayor. A police force has also broken up the meetings of the company.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Another Case of Fever and Ague Cured.

—A few days ago we recorded an astounding cure of Fever and Ague by the use of Dr. M'Lane's Liver Pills. We have now another to mention, viz: that of Mr. James Sharpe, of Madisonburg, who states that he had labored under a very severe attack of Ague and Fever, and was soon restored by the use of these Pills. Mr. Sharpe also expresses an opinion, founded on observation, that the Liver Pills are the best for billious complaints ever offered in his section of country.

Although long known as a sovereign remedy for chronic cases of Hepatic derangement, or diseases of the Liver, the proprietors of Dr. McLane's Pills were not prepared for the frequent, but gratifying evidences of its general utility and curative capacity. In this respect, this invaluable medicine has exceeded their most sanguine expectations, and induced them to hope that it will be introduced into every family in the United States.

Purchasers will be careful to ask for DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS, and take none else. There are other Pills, purporting to be Liver Pills, now before the public, also, his Celebrated Vermifuge, can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in the United States; also, for sale by the sole proprietors, FLEMING BROTHERS, Pittsburgh. Successors to J. Kidd & Co., 69 Wood st.

Persons of Sedentary habits, who are generally affected with Vertigo, Lassgour and Exhaustion, Nausea and Headache, have in Burhave's Holland Bitters a never failing remedy. It gives strength and energy to the system, stimulates the digestive organs, and corrects acidity of the stomach.

We would mention to the public against purchasing any of the many imitations of this delightful Aroma. To prevent imposition, be careful to ask for Burhave's Holland Bitters.

The Greatest Medical Discovery OF THE AGE.

Mr. Kennedy, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cure every kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula to a common Pimple.

He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates, of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples of the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate cases of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing in the pastures, and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system; yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to come! There are no ifs nor ands, hums or haws about it; sitting some cases and not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston, and in fact, effects in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I save it to children a year old; to old people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, wormy looking children, whose parents were rich and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle,

To those who are subject to a sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief to catarrh and dizziness. Some who have been afflicted for years, have been kept down and been regulated by it. Where the body is sound, it work quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular results, but you must not be alarmed—they will last from a year to a few days to a week. There is never a bad result from it. On the contrary, when that feeling is come you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever my ears listened to. No change of diet is ever necessary—eat the best you can get. I have likewise a bath which, when simmered in it over oil, dissolves Scrofulous humors from the neck and under the ears. Price 50 cents. Price of the Medical Discovery $1 per bottle.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.—Adults, one table-spoonful per day. Children over eight years, dessert spoonful; children from five to eight years, tea spoonful. The above can be made applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

MR. KENNEDY gives personal attendance in bad cases of erysipelas.

An ounce of fact is worth a pound of

PUFFERY and the swarm of conclusive facts that cluster around that immeasurable preparation, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia, establishing its value as a tonic and restorative, are such as would prevent incredulity itself from questioning its efficacy. In all cases of disease of the stomach, throat, lungs, acute or chronic, it may be recommended for its soothing, cordial and renovating influence. Dyspepsia, heartburn, loss of appetite, nausea, nervous tremors, relaxation and debility, &c., are relieved in a very few days, and in a short space of time and a perseverance in their use never fails to work a thorough cure. A Secret for the Ladies—How to preserve

BEAUTY—Don't use Chalk, Lilly White, or any of the so-called cosmetics, to conceal a faded or sallow complexion

If you would have the rose brought back to your cheek a clear, healthy and transparent skin, and the life and vigor infused through the system, get a bottle of Comstock's English Mixture, and take it according to directions. It does not taste quite as well as your sweet-meats; but, if after a few doses you do not find your health and beauty reviving, your step elastic and vigorous, the whole system refreshed and invigorated like a Spring morning, then your case is hopeless, and all the valuable certificates we possess, go for naught. It is the greatest purifier of the blood known; is perfectly harmless, and at the same time powerfully effacious.
