We frequently meet in our exchanges with individual renunciations which hold up the order to the contempt and detestation of mankind, and now we have the renunciation of a whole Council, No. 147, in Lyme, Connecticut. The Council was composed of sixty-nine members, all of whose names are signed to the renunciation. The proximate cause of this action was the revocation of its charter by the State Council, which lately met in Norwich, because the majority of the members of the Lyme Council with the dictates of their own concepts. The Council met and passed among others, the following resolutions:

**Resolved, That in our opinion the time has arrived for the alarm to be sounded in the care of the people of Connecticut, and to inform them of the existence of a secret order in their midst which is striking a blow in the dark against-our institutions of civil and religious liberty, and which, if suffered to go on, will soon destroy all we prize most dear in religious politics and morals.

The following description of some of the evils of the Order is nervously drawn:

"It has entired the people from their homes in while really maintaining the connection intact this is simply scoundreline.—The second, is, to process of meeting bound them to its foul and fearful purposes by administering the most hordid each, with one hand resting on the Bible, and the other raised to Heaven, to yield themselves unreservedly to the control of this secret power, and even to deny to their families and the world that they hold connection with the Order. No person is permitted to hold an opinion which has not the sanction of the self-constituted month-pieces of the party. Within this temple of superstition fire Oracle reigns supreme. The devotee who worships at its abrine is completely unmanmed. He no longer feels nor acts his former self. In secret he steals away like a complete to the control of the secret his former self. But all these are sviis of small magnitude and comideration when compared with some other gigantic wrongs with which it labors to curse our land. The scattering of a few pieces of red paper of a peculiar shape obliges every brother to arm himself with a bowle-knife and revolver, or other deadly weapons, and follow the bock of their leader, even to the shedding of blood. The Cincinnast, Lonizville, St. Louis and other fearful bloody Know-Nothing riots are but the legitimate workings of the Order, and but the beginning of such scenes as were snacted on the soil of france under Red Republican rule.

Those who control and manage the safairs of this corrupt concern are in it, for the spoils of office! and no means however desperate, are left untried to compass this end."
