☞Pittsburgh Weekly Gazette.—The extensive circulation of our Weekly Gazette offers to our business men most desirable medium of making their business known. Our circulation is between four and five thousand; reaching almost every merchant, manufacturer and shop-keeper in Western Pennsylvania, and Eastern Ohio.

☞Mr. H. P. MURLLER, late editor of the Saturday Visiter and now connected with the Pittsburgh Courier, is authorized to solicit subscriptions and advertisements for the Pittsburgh Gazette, according to our published terms Pittsburgh March 1, 1855.

Leading Matter on each page of this paper to-day.

WHAT THE WHIGS, AND OTHER ANTI-NEBRASKA VOTERS OF ALLEGHENY COUNTY, OUGHT TO DO.—Since we expressed a decided opinion that it was not best, in the present condition of affairs, for the whigs of this county, who are a unit in their opposition to the aggressions of slavery, to unite in the support of a union ticket with Nebraska democrats, an impression has been industriously circulated by designing politicians that the whigs intended wholly to ground their political armor, and that there would be only two tickets in the field this fall. This we think will be found a great mistake. As the last election there were some five thousand whigs in this county, who had not been allured into the ranks of proscription Know Nothingism. GEO. DARSIE received 4627 votes, and there were no doubt many others who did not vote at all. Some may have gone into the order since, but we think not many, while others have withdrawn from it. We think there is good reason to believe that there are five thousand reliable anti slavery whigs in Allegheny county to-day. A pretty good foundation on which to inaugurate a Republican party.

What the Whigs ought to do, and what we believe they will do, is to unite with their fellow citizens of all parties in the Republican movement which is now animating the opponents of slavery aggression in all the free States. We do not see why a party should not be organized here on the simple principle of "No more slave territories—no more slave States," and which which carry its ticket in October. There is no doubt that opposition to the introduction of slavery into Kansas now animates the hearts of at least three-fourths of the voters of the county. There can be no doubt that a large majority view it as the most important question now before the people. The only difficulty is to concentrate this sentiment into one compact, homogeneous party.

The "American" party as it is called, is divided into three factions, or organizations. There is the old Native American party, open in its organization, and two secret Orders. It is not certain that these separate organizations can unite on one ticket, and, unless they do, they have no chance of success. If they can agree, and can keep their members together, they may possibly carry the county, by a small majority. But can they keep their members together? This will depend somewhat on the action of the State Council, but not altogether. In the event of any action which may be taken they will find difficulty. Except among the office seekers, and their friends, it will be difficult to convince a sincere Anti-slavery K. N. that any good can be accomplished by keeping up a distinct organization, when by so doing the main political object they have at heart is endangered. They will naturally reason in this wise:—"If the slavery question is of such paramount importance as to override the distinctive principles of the Order, the prime political object to be attained is, "which has read for its only plank, and on which it can unite without any yielding of principle, "or endorsement of obnoxious measures. We "see no use, then, but much evil, in keeping up "a separate organization which will neither "promote the success of our minor principles "nor those of the major. By going with the "Republicans we may succeed in our chief object, the turning back of the advancing tide of "slavery, while by keeping up a local Know-"Nothing or American organization, we can "neither succeed in opposing Slavery or advancing Americanism."

"But," says a Know Nothing office seeker, "why cannot the opponents of slavery unite with us—we, in this county are sound on the slavery question?" We reply that we cannot for some very sound reasons. One is, that you ask us either to join a secret political order, which we cannot conscientiously do with our views of the duties of American citizenship, and to adopt proscriptive views which we abhor, or to support a ticket composed of men holding such views, in the selection of whom we had no part. Now, we ask any candid and honorable man if this is fair Can any upright, honorable man consent to such such an unequal political partnership. Certainly not. Again, the Know Nothing organization of this county, having no national connection, and no union of effort and action with any party strong enough to be effective, cannot promote the success of the great Anti-slavery movement. The Republican party is organized in Ohio, and several Western states. It will soon be organized in New York and New England.—It will most certainly be in a condition to take the field for the Presidential conflict. There is then a peculiar fitness in uniting with this movement.

The Know Nothings of this county profess to be anti-slavery. There are some five or six thousand voters who are not Know Nothings, who make opposition to the aggressions of slavery their chief political object. Is it not then fair and honest that these two bodies of voters should come together on a platform of principles which both acknowledge to be paramount with them? Is not any other course dishonest, and does it not smack of hypocrisy?

There is then, a great, a truly noble work for the Whigs of Allegheny county to do. It is to set an example of a self-sacrificing spirit of devotion to the cause of freedom, by laying down their distinctive political views, by yielding up even a beloved name under which they have so long fought, and which has been borne by so many great and beloved statesmen, and calling upon their fellow citizens of all parties who agree with them in the one great sentiment of opposition to the further encroachments of slavery, join in the inauguration of the Republican party of the North, on a platform so broad that all but Doughfaces and Slaveholders can stand upon it. In such sparty, victory or defeat will be alike honorable.

THE GREAT NORTHERN MOVEMENT.—In another article to-day, we have pointed out what we conceive to be the duty of the Whigs, and other Anti-slavery voters of Allegheny county, and to which we may add, the voters of Pennsylvania. If proof is needed to convince any that such a movement is called for by the State of the politics of the country, that it is now going on, that it will most probably tear down and sweep away every opposition, and that it carries with it the prestige of success in the approaching Presidential contest, we are prepared to furnish it.—We could fill a sheet three times as large as ours, daily, with movements and opinions on this subject, from every quarter, and from friends and foes of the movement, all tending to the same end, showing that the great heart of the free North is moved, and that a current is gathering head which will sweep away all the puny attempts of Doughfaces and Demagogues to stem the mighty torrent.

Our first quotation to-day is taken from the Cincinnati Commercial, one of the very ablest papers in Ohio, highly conservative in its character, and which has hitherto opposed any tendency to wards the formation of a sectional party. That paper, of Monday last, says:

"Deprecate as we may the foundation of sectional parties in the Union, it is evident that the time is approaching—if it has not already arrived when we shall be forced to contemplate their existence as an actuality. When causes are in being which tend irresistibly that way, it is idle to talk of the impropriety of sectionalization. Let the cause be faithfully removed, and the mischief—if mischief it is—will cease of itself. The Father of his country in his farewell legacy, left a solemn warning to the people of the United States, not merely in regard to the dangers of forming parties on "geographical discriminations," but against those things which should furnish "any ground" for such an act of party construction. The "ground" being in existence, it is not necessary to discuss the question whether or not sectional parties are proper or otherwise. They will arise. They are of spontaneous growth. Given the circumstances and the sentiment is the natural consequence.—This under the influence of the social affinities, becomes power, and in the operations of our republican system—party.

While at the North with the assiduity, but neither the skill nor the success of a couple of jugglers, both Democrasy and Whiggery have been endeavoring at their own cost to preserve their balance upon the slavery question, the South has never failed to keep in view its determination to construct a purely southern party so soon as the time should arrive, when it found itself unable to make use of both the others. The ability to do this during the past years is the only thing that has stood in the way of a formal southern organization. There has been a constant readiness to begin whenever the emergency should demand, and threats to let it loose have been the means by which the issues of office seeking dough-faces at the North have been held to the southern grindstone. The initiative of sectional parties may therefore be safely charged upon the South, where, in the form of a pro-slavery fanaticism, it has never hesitated to measure the value of the Union by an estimate of the worth of its instrumentality in fixing the market price of negroes, or adding to the security of property in man.

At this time, the tendency to the formation of a SOUTHERN PARTY is exceedingly strong in a large portion of the the slaveholding States. A public meeting, recently holden at Columbus, Ga., passed strong resolutions upon the subject, which are heartily supported by most of the leading Democratic presses of the South. The New Orleans Delta, in an article upon the subject, says:

"The signs of the times are too significant to allow of mistake, or misapprehension, and we firmly believe that the organization of a Southern party on the Georgia platform, or on some similar platform, must be the result. We think the last few months the loss of entire States has been gaining ground rapidly, and many of our ablest men regard it as a necessary measure for self-defence."

To this the nullifiers of South Carolina respond with delight. The times of CALHOUN and nullification are on the eve of returning under better auspices. South Carolina instead of standing alone in opposition to the power of the confederacy, will find herself in union with her sister slaveholding States, battling for the Southern institutions. The Abbeville (S. C.) Banner declares that South Carolina is now ready, and speaks thus in favor of the proposed Southern party.

"True to our old secession principles, we are ready to embrace any measure that is likely to lead to that end, and to the long wished for and oft-promised fame of Southern co-operation."

The New Orleans Courier avers that the whole South is filled with serious misgivings and well-founded fears; and that the question of the dissolution of the Union—an impious and hated one ten years ago—is now mooted and discussed by the ablest pens of the land, as one of policy and strict necessity. The Charleston Mercury thinks that the people of the South can no longer avoid the facts which stare them in the face, and adds:—

"The North and the South cannot unite upon any basis of political faith or feeling. The antagonism is ripening which will shake to its foundations the fabric under which them together, and settle their future fate. There are some who watch the progress with indifference, and the fateful year, who have longed for the day in which the South would be recalled to a true sense of her duty and destiny; and when, forbidden by the Union to assert the rights of Southern Union, see now with gladness the promise of its speedy fulfilment."

The Savannah Courier regrets that the southern Know Nothings carried their platform in the recent National Council, as it will only perpetuate the unfortunate divisions, of the South, and thus stand in the way of a Southern organization. Even the conservative Whig journals of the South appear to be prepared to run a muck at the North. One of the ablest of them, the New Orleans Commercial Bulletin, makes use of the following language:—

"We must not be undarstood as having made a new discovery of the wide spread influence of abolitionism: the growth and progress of the element have been so plainly obvious to the most casual and careless observer. It literally pervades all space, and has been for the last few years past the insidious, amidst principle that has invaded all the creeds and professions of each and every political party in the Union. We have no faith in the fidelity to the nationality of any of them. These is not a Free State in the Union in which either the Whig or Democratic party is free of this taint of Freesoilism."

That under this state of things, the formation of a Northern party for Northern purposes, and with concurrent Northern principles in relation, and Northern interests to conform to proper, will soon be disputed. At present, it seems to be both necessary and inevitable: It will come; and in its persistency existence will demonstrate the vitality of the Late Justice of the Peace, East Birmingham, Pa. says:

"I have been afflicted with a disease of the stomach, liver complaint, dyspepsia, nervousness, pain in the left side, pain of heart and nervous headache, for about fifteen years, and have spent some hundreds of dollars in order to effect a cure, but found no relief. After having used two bottles of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I found myself entirely relieved from all pain and distress, and almost regained my health and strength. I can recommend it to all those who are similarly afflicted."

Dyspepsia and Indigestion.—Those great scourges of our people cannot be too well understood, or the means of advertise or curing too highly appreciated. The person who discovers any means of cure or alleviation, confers a benefit upon his fellows, and is deserving of honor. This is indeed the consummation has been achieved, and not only may dyspepsia be cured, but it may be prevented, by the use of "Hoofland's German Bitters" prepared by DR. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia, which medicine is a combination in terms of the highest commendation by thousands who have tested its efficacy. It is perfectly innocuous in its nature, and possesses the valuable property of improving the health of the subject, as well as restoring the health of this sufferer. See advertisement. jy23-eod-w

THONGS AND SWITCHES,

Keep constantly on hand, received direct from their Factory, in York Co., Pa., a full and varied assortment of Whips, Thongs, Switches, Lashes, Warm accomplishment of their civil duties. The Free-Soil Democrats will promptly meet the Whigs on this offer. The Liberty Party men would meet us The Free-Soil element, lately disrupted from the Know Nothing excitement, would meet us. The free Germans warned off from Kansas and Nebraska by the Slavery-Propagandists, would meet us. Had we offered foll, frank, fair fusion to them last year at Saratoga, they would have accepted it. They will accept it this year, if we offer it, and satisfy them as we ought to do, and must expect to be required to do, that we are sincere, and single-minded to Freedom and the Public good.—If the test should be exacted of us, of building all questions of Federal Office-seeking to complete suspense, and of leaving them every one to time and trust, we should cheerfully yield it. It is Principles that we are after. And the men whom we have selected to represent these principles, and officially accomplish them, we can abundantly afford to commit to the Future.

Stronger reasons urge the Whigs of New York to this generous course, since the disruption of the Know Nothing Convention there existed before. That event has strengthened and encouraged the faction which is attached to the Federal Administration, the slave of the slave Power, and will release from distinctive Hunkerism and 'Americanism' a vast number of old Democrats who will hurry to re-enter their political fold. Slavery has acually been buttressed in this state of New York, by the election of Wise in Virginia, the disruption of the Know Nothing National Council in Philadelphia, and the overwhelming defeat of HOUSTON in Buffalo. In this flush of victory, the German and Irish voters will lose sight of the truth, that Immigration and Free Labor have no such deadly foe on this Continent, as the Slave Power, and will be in great danger of losing their numbers to the Administration Democratic party. Naturally antagonistic to National Democrasy—having the best reasons to fear and hate a sect which is the ally and child of the statesmen who ascribe the Federal Supremacy of the North to the immigration from Europe of abundant cheap labor—and who desire to shape the policy of the Government so as to check the incoming of Germans and Irish to the United States—our foreign born citizens are nevertheless, just on the edge of falling into the armf of the South. No so great misfortune could happen to them. What the Know Nothings talked, the slave holders mean. These will improve their first hour of power, to discourage and diminish European Immigration.

Indeed this Slavery Question underlies, disturbes, and corrupts every issue that arises in the politics of the State and the Nation. We never shall have peace till it is settled. Our prosperity requires the solution forthwith, of the too long vexed question, whether the South with her Slavery shall give law to the Union, or the North with her Free Labor, her Free Schools, and her Free Soil, shall dictate its policy. It is the only one broad enough, strong enough, to sustain locally and nationally organized Party action.—The honor, the wealth, the power and the perpetuity of the Nation are involved in it. It now stands apart as an issue which can be wholly segregated. Parties always heretofore by some incidental question, introduced to stave off contact with Freedom; the fall at Philadelphia of the wall built to shield it, leaves Slavery entirely accessible to the grasp of the North. Whigs and Democrats let us unite forthwith, to make the politics of New York first, and of the Nation afterwards, Republican and Free—and forever Republican and Free."

FROM OREGON TERRITORY.—By the arrival of the George Law, we have Oregon papers to May 26, two weeks later than previous advices.

The general election was to take place on the first Monday in June. Political feeling was running high. A delegate to Congress was to be elected, with members of the Legislature and county officers. For delegate General Gaines was the Whig and Know-Nothing candidate, and General Lane, the Democratic. They were "stumping" the territory together. At Dallas, in Polk county, on the 21st of May, each outraged all honorable and gentlemanly conduct; they gave each other the lie, and came to blows. Th ey were separated by the crowd. They appear to have been equally to blame. The difficulty arose out of some allusion by one of the speakers on the Democratic side to General Gaines' conduct at Encarnacion during the Mexican war.

General Gaines pronounced the speaker a liar, coward and scoundrel, and General Lane endorsed him as an honorable man, insinuating also that General Taylor had reflected upon General Gaines, so far as to say that the old hero, when told of the surrender, remarked that he would have fought, a little. Gen. Gaines replied, "Gen. Taylor never said so;" upon which Gen. Lane retorted, "You are a d—d liar," whereupon they fell to blows. We see that they afterwards were together at political meetings.

The papers are engrossed with the elections, the editors and their correspondents seeming to have neither time nor thought for anything else.

The recent rains had swollen the Willamette river sufficient to sallow navigation to be resumed.

The Greatest Medical Discovery
OF THE AGE.

Mr. Kennedy, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures every kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula to a common Pimple.

He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates, of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a scrofula sore mouth.

One to three bottles will clear the system of blotches.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure any scaly eruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate cases of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum in its worst form.

Two to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing in the pastures, and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system; yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start There are no ifs nor ands, buts or ha's about it suiting acts cases and not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I now fix effects in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I have it to children a year old; to old people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health, by one bottle.

To those who are subject to a sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief to catarrh and dilatness. Some who have been costive for years, have found it and been regulated by it. Where the body is bound, it work quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular results, but you must not be alarmed—they always disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it. On the contrary, when that feeling is gone you will feel supremely delightful. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that man ever listened to. No change of diet is ever necessary—eat the best the market affords. I have lived on salt pork—have partaken in sweet oil, dissolved scrofulous swelling of the neck and tender limbs, etc. Price 50 cents. Price of the Medical Discovery $1 per bottle.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.—Adult, one table spoonful per day. Children over eight years, dessert spoonful. Children from five to eight years, teaspoonful. As no direction can be made applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate gently, but powerfully on the bowels.

Life Dyes.

Poetry suggested by a single application of Cristadoro's Kreslair Hair Dye.

As red clouds darken in the twilight;
And blacken over heaven's blue skylight
So CRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE turneth
To black the hair that redly burneth.
The cattle fish cunningly blackens the foam
When an enemy's near to the little morsome;
But as quick CRISTADORO will darken the Hair,
With his DYE of all dyes most efficient and rare!

Cristadoro's Kreslair Hair Dye is sold wholesale and retail at DR. KEYSER'S, 140 Wood street, at the sign of the Golden Mortar. ap27-d&w

A Secret for the Ladies—How to preserve BEAUTY—Don't use CHALK, Lilly White, or any of the so-called cosmetics, to conceal a faded or sallow complexion

If you would have the rosee brought back to your cheek a clear, healthy and transparent skin, and life and vigor infused through the system, get a bottle of Carter's Spanish Mixture, and take it according to directions. It does not taste quite as well as your sweetmeats; but, if after a few doses you do not find rosy health and beauty reviving, your step elastic and vigorous, the whole system refreshed and invigorated like a Spring morning, then your case is hopeless, and all the valuable certificates we possess, go for naught. It is the greatest purifier of the blood known; is perfectly harmless, and its use many times powerfully efficacious.
