The public opinion of the inhabitants of the free States is, and has been, adverse to ala-very, and that option has been confirmed and strengthened by receat events. We sympathise with this northern sentiment in regard to slavery, and claim the right on all legitimate occasions, to discriminate by the be-stowal of our suffrages in favor of the men and the measures promising the most to concerve Is it mate occasion, to the Northminia to the men and the measures promising the most to connerve and give efficacy to the Northern seminerve to subject has been forced upon us to regard the interval of the subject has been forced upon us to regard the interval of the Northern seminerve trepsal of the Missoari Compromise as an in fraction of the pighted faith of the Nation, and the subject has been forced upon us to regard the interval of the Northern seminerve trepsal of the Southern States the viole interver to the Northern seminerve the subject has been forced upon us to regard the interval of the Northern seminerver for the formed out of any portion of the Territory for the laws it already exists but that ito every attempt to subject her territory for the there are partnership with laws rejected—c for the result of a subject her there or the party to do as the piesses.

We declare ourselves now and immutably op-posed and repoguant. Resolved, That the repeal of the Missouri Compromise was an infraction of the plighted faith of the Nation, and that it should be re-stored; and if efforts to that ead should fail, Congress should refuse to admit any State tol-erating slavery, which shall be formed out of any portion of the territory from which that in-stitution was excluded by the Compromise. The minority report embraod the whole Na-tional platform, except the twelfth section, for which the collowing was anbeituted: signs; and, for the sake of tender-minded brethren, since the Slavery question has been forced on them, it expresses the simple opinion that the repeal of the Missouri Compromise was wrong, and that, if not restored, Congress should refuse admission to slave States formed out of territory north of the Missouri line. And that is all.

Longress should refuse to admit any Biate toler ating slavery which shall be formed out of any portion of the territory from which that institu-tion was excluded by the Compromise. The vote was ordered without discussion, un-der the previous question; but just as the roll was about to be called on the majority platform, Goy. Johnston arces and ex-majority platform, Goy. Johnston arces and exmajority platform, Goy. Johnston arose and exthe people; and which can do no more than utter pressed a wish or hope that that part of the plata vapid opinion of dissent from the wrong-doing form relating to slavery should not be adopted. This was halled with delight by the eastern men of the last Congress while the members of the of the last Congress while the members of the party are left free to perpetuate that wrong, if they choose. We spit upon all such platforms and all such opinions, and scout the spirit which prompts them. These are times when men should be seen; and when those who claim the public confidence should do it in virtue of their and the moderate members of the council, as paying the way for adopting the minority report as a compromise between the cast and west, and conclinatory of both. When the vote was taken, accordingly, Gov. Johnston led off in voting:

against the majority report, followed by some separate the majority report, followed by some sentiness, instead of insulting the public judg-manliness, instead of insulting the public judg-manliness, instead of insulting the public judg-ment with such a skulking and barren and pue-rile programme as is contained in the platform of the Pannylvania State Council. We will these mays being western anti-slavery men who were not estimated with such a winby weaky conhave none of it.

Banasquantly, a resolution was affered to in new paper just started at Consellsville, Fayette county, Pa., by Markle & Jones.
