the American Party is to be considered and diseased.

Slavery is the great question after all. Nativism has no power to keep the party together. The great question of slavery scatters it like chaff before the wind. How senseless, then, is it for Anti-Nebraska man to hold on to Nativism at the risk of ruining the Anti-alayery cause, and subjecting Kantas to the curse of slavery. The unity of the Order in Pennsylvania is completely broken, ann it is thus powerless. Away with such trisling and let all true Northern men rally on the Republican platform.
