GAZETTE—CITY DEPARTMENT.

PITTSBURGH:

TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 24, 1855.

THE TOUR TO LAKE SUPERIOR.—Our citizens are particularly referred to the advertisement of the Lake Superior line of boats, to be found in another column. Hussey & Sinclair—gentlemen well known to many of our business men—are the agents at, Cleveland. Of all pleasure excursions there is none to equal that to Lake Superior, as every one who has tried it will attest. It affords every possible attraction of climate, scenery and novelty to the sportsman, the invalid or the pleasure-seeker. And to the speculator in lands or copper stock there is every inducement to visit that glorious region. Now that the canal at the Sault Ste. Marie is completed, the magnificent steamers which have heretofore been shut out from the waters of Lake Superior, now steam away to the farthest extremity of the lake, where the St. Louis pours its noble flood. The North Star is one of the best boats on the Lakes, having been built especially for this trade, and in point of magnificence rivals the famed floating palaces of the Hudson River. Capt. Sweet is an "old salt"—a weather-beaten sailor, with a big heart, and an accommodating smile for every one. We have enjoyed the Captain's hospitalities and know him for a gentleman and a safe and capable master of a splendid craft. The Northerner is an older vessel. She has ever been a favorite with Pittsburgh copper men, and under the command of Capt. Turner will attract all her old friends. The Northerner's tables were always noted for their excellence, and a tourist snuffing the clear, cold bracing air of Saginaw is the very best judge in the world of a good dinner. We intended particularizing some of the sights to be seen on Lake Superior, but the following from the Cincinnati Times is at our hand, and we copy in preference:

"By all means go up Lake Superior. Last season the entire fleet, on that vast inland sea consisted of two steamers, two propellers, and one sloop, but now the canal is opened, and vessels from the Atlantic Ocean can run directly to the copper region. As you proceed up the Lake it would be well to stop now and then for a day or two, at the small harbors and primitive villages upon the coast. At Marquette, visit Iron Mountain and the quarries of stone near the village. The town has a good situation, with good accommodations for travelers.

"At Copper Harbor, Eagle Harbor and Eagle River, you can find an abundance of crude ore, beautiful specimens of copper, agate, cornelians crystals and other stone; every half-breed Indian has a stock on hand for sale. From either of these harbors the mine can be reached in a few hours. Eagle Harbor and Eagle River and Ontonagon are the best points from which to penetrate into the copper region. At any of the mines you will be well received and kindly entertained. Indian villages are plenty near Fon du Lac, the head of navigation. We saw a large party of Chippewas, in a very primite costume of red and yellow paint, perform a war dance and other savage antics, in that neighborhood last August. The exhibition was decidedly original. Three day's sail from Fon du Lac will take you to the Falls of Ste. Marie again, giving an opportunity to view the famous "Pictured Rocks" by daylight. From the Falls take a steamer down Lake Huron, Lake St. Clair, to Detroit, and thence home via Cleveland. This trip would require about one month, and could be made very cheap."

Beside the points enumerated by the Times, there is in that fairy island, Mackinaw, replete with all the natural wonders, and with a tip-top hotel, Mr. R. A. Frank's. Above Ontonagon, also, there is the village of La Pointe, the oldest settlement in the entire West, except Mackinaw. At the head of the Lake, the new town Superior is springing into life. The entire region is a wonder, and the Times well says "by all means go to Lake Superior."

OUTRAGEOUS ATTACK ON THE ANDERSON STREET CATHOLIC CHURCH.—After that Torch Light Procession had tramped through the round of half a dozen streets on Saturday night last, and disbanded for want of candles and enthusiasm, a party of about thirty rowdies, gaining possession of a number of the transparencies, marched about the streets, yelling like dogs and creating the utmost disorder.

As they passed the Catholic church on Anderson street, a volley of brickbats and stones were hurled at the building. The Venitian blinds of the windows were broken in, some glass was knocked out and the doors exhibit the marks of violence.

This was simply an inexcusable and contemptible outrage, perpetrated by lawless raffians. We detest and abhor this dastardly spirit—this church-burning mania—which seems to fire the breasts of some, the lowest and meanest of society. We are no lovers of Catholicism—we are not so much as friendly to it, yet would we do our share towards defending a Burning church from the attacks of a mob, such as this, actuated as it was not by the pure sentiments that should inspire American hearts, but by the basest and most lawless passions of which the human heart is capable.

We hope the rowdies who did this thing, will be hunted down and brought to merited punishment.

THE TRACT CAUSE.—Rev. F. H. De Hass, Corresponding Secretary of the Pittsburgh Conference Tract Society, publishes his report for the year ending June 1st, in the Methodist Advocate of this week. He states that "the Society has lost none of its interest among our own people that the receipts, notwithstanding the pressure of the times, are far in advance of the former year, and that we can still claim, so far as the aggregate of our operations is concerned, the banner among the Conferences."

From the statistic published, we take the following:

Number of district agents employed,	18
Aggregate time of labor,	7 years 8 mos.
Number of families without pastoral care,	7,710

HORRIBLE DEATH OF A CHILD.—One of the most revolting, horrible and shocking occurrences we were ever called upon to record, we are credibly informed, occurred in Allegheny City on yesterday. Our informant states that a young child, aged three or four years, whose parents reside in the lower end of the First ward, on Saturday night, or at an early hour on Sunday morning, by some means or other possessed itself of a quantity of liquor which had a short time previously been brought into the house, and of which it partook freely. The parents knew nothing of the matter until on Sunday morning, they attempted to wake their child, which was lying in bed. All their efforts were fruitless, and a physician was sent for, who, on his arrival, pronounced it in no danger. The child lay pretty much in the same state until the afternoon of this day, when it began to show evidence of pain and the doctor was again sent for. This time he pronounced the child irrecoverable, and so it turned out to be, for at five o'clock its spirit fled.—Chronicle.

TARGET EXERCISE AND PIC-NIC OF THE SHIELDS GUARDS.—This fine company, under the command of Capt. Coyle, paraded yesterday. After passing through a number of our streets, they repaired to Denny's Grove, where a target had been placed, and the company proceeded to test their shooting capacities.

Capt. Coyle himself was the victor, having made the three best shots, and he was entitled to the reward, a silver medal.

Quite a large party of ladies and gentlemen attended, and although the afternoon's rain-storm somewhat interfered with the festivities, the pic-nic passed off with much pleasure to all who participated.

PROF. SPENCER ON SPIRITUALISM.—The famous Prof. Spencer, probably the most successful psychologist in the world, has arrived in the city, and will deliver a free lecture at the City Hall on Wednesday evening. In addition to his usual experiments in mesmerism—that unexplained mystery—the Professor will demonstrate by actual experiments the entire fallacy of the Spiritual theory, and will produce all the wonders, such as table tipping, &c., without the aid of anything spiritual more than is contained in the psychologic or magnetic influence. We have no doubt an immense crowd will assemble to hear and see the Professor and his experiments.

FINANCIAL OF THE HIGH SCHOOL.—A special meeting of the Central Board of Education was held last night, at which Wm. J. L. G. McKown, A. M., of Cooperstown, N. Y., was elected Principal of the High School of this city.

The gentleman chosen is at present Principal of the Female Seminary at Cooperstown, an institution that enjoys an extended reputation, and the fact that his selection was made from about eighty competitors, speaks strongly in his favor.

ACCIDENT.—On Friday afternoon about four o'clock, a young lady named Emma Selbert, who resides on Centre Alley, met with a very painful accident. She was sitting on a railing on a pleasure in the second story of her home, when losing her balance she fell to the pavement below, injuring herself considerably—her face and head being severely cut.

THE child of Jacob Fry, Allegheny, who was run over by a pair of timber wheels on Friday, died on Saturday and was buried on Sunday.

THE CITY PRESS OF THE TORCH LIGHT.—Our cotemporaries unanimously concur in pronouncing the Torch Light Procession of Saturday night a fizzle. With regard to that transparency, they are all indignant.

The Journal says: "We have only unmitigated contempt for the designer of a transparency intended to ridicule an honorable and most respectable gentleman of Alleghany, whose misfortune it is to be deprived of a limb—lost, too, in the service of his country. It is a burning disgrace to all concerned in the business."

Says the Union: "There was but one caricature among the number, but it was amply sufficient to cover with lasting infamy and disgrace those who assisted in getting it up."

The Union also remarks as follows: "If we had any sympathy with the opposers of the ordinance, we must acknowledge that Saturday night's proceedings utterly annihilated it. The citizens who were lookers-on, denounced it in the most unmistakable terms. We know there are well meaning men in favor of repealing the ordinance, but they cannot sanction the course taken by those who seem to be actuated solely by political ambition and self-interest."

The Post pitches into the Torch-Light, right and left, and thus talks: "The man who would be guilty of an act so low as this, is beneath contempt. Whether Mr. Sample is right or wrong in his present course, relative to the public squares, he fought bravely for his country, as his lost limb attests, and no one save the meanest and lowest, would seek to cast ridicule upon him on that account."

The Dispatch thinks "our neighbors across the river have taken a queer way to express their disapprobation of the act of their representatives in Council assembled. If the majority of the citizens really are opposed to the ordinance, let them get up a monster petition to the City Fathers, and we have no doubt they will come down, in obedience to the will of the majority of the sovereigns."

The evening papers also condemn the whole affair.

"DUTCHTOWN" IN ARMS!—We understand that about sixty Germans in that part of Allegheny known as "Dutchtown" were congregated in a vacant yard behind a fence, on Saturday night, waiting for the Torch Light Procession to pass. They meditated an attack, and had a supply of brick-bats and boulders piled up and ready for use, Fortunately, the leaders of the procession got wind of it and did not venture on the dangerous "dark and bloody ground."

WE are informed that prosecutions will be instituted against the designers of that offensive transparency in case they can be discovered. The persons thereon caricatured are determined to protect themselves from a repetition of such insults.

By the way, we were told yesterday that the transparency was badly used up by a stone hurled at it as it passed along the streets.

GRADING IN ALLEGHENY.—Messrs. Palmer, Gang & Co., have been awarded by the Street Committee of the Allegheny Councils, the contracts for grading and paving eight streets. The contracts amount to about $70,000.

THE Chronicle came out yesterday in an enlarged form. The Chronicle appears to be prospering finely.

Iron City Commercial College,

OF WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA.

CHARTERED APRIL, 1855.

And Fully Organized.

THIS Institution will be kept open both day and evening during the entire year.

BOOK-KEEPING,

This beautiful art, so easy to acquire, so useful to every business man, and, as an accomplishment, far more lucrative than most trades are, can be acquired in a few weeks, being taught here in a style unsurpassed for the thoroughness of its principles. Though every feature of this subject that can be had in the city is taught, no one of them is extensively followed, for the reason that the teacher of that art practices a mode of teaching a book-keeper all he knows, instead of first qualifying a book-keeper all he knows, instead of first qualifying a book he and his pupils down greatly superior to any laid down in books.

In ARITHMETIC, too, the method of working used here (and here only) is not only far easier to acquire, but is also much shorter, plainer, and better adapted to general business than can be found in any treatise before the American public. It has been called, and not inaptly, ARITHMETICAL MAGIC, from the extraordinary facility with which new results are obtained with very little figuring.

In WRITING, the chief aim is to impart to the student a bold, beautiful, rapidly executed hand, suited to book-keeping, no correspondence and ornamental hand, suited to Book-Keeping, no correspondence and ornamental hand, suited to Book-Keeping generally, and to business generally. Pictures flourishing, though not neglected, is regarded as secondary.

COMMERCIAL LAW—Lectures on this subject are regularly delivered by a highly competent member of the Pittsburgh bar.

Young man, if you would lay the foundation of future prosperity, come here and spend two months, or less, at the Iron City College, where you will find a full, well organized school and every appliance for physical comfort and mental training.

Public Sale of the Main Line of Public Works of Pennsylvania.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by authority of an act of Assembly of Pennsylvania, approved May 16, 1855, I will, on the 4th day of August next, at the Merchants' Exchange, in the City of Philadelphia, on TUESDAY, the 28th day of August, at 12 o'clock, P. M., the whole MAIN LINE OF PUBLIC WORKS, between Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, consisting of the Philadelphia and Columbia Railroad, the Allegheny Portage Railroad, including the new road to avoid the Inclined Planes, the Eastern Division of the Pennsylvania Canal, from Columbia to the Junction, the Juniata division of the Pennsylvania Canal, from the Junction to the Eastern terminus of the Allegheny Portage Railroad, and the Western Division of the Pennsylvania Canal, from the Western terminus of the Allegheny Portage Railroad to Pittsburgh, and there are many thousand tons of superior American Iron now preparing upon our market at lower rates than Anthracite Iron, for founder purposes, selling at $20 to $22. Scotch Pig is also held back by prices of English Pig, which rule somewhat materially with the present state of the British Bar market.

After a busy trip through the towns of Pennsylvania, it is very evident there is a rapid decrease in the admirable stock of first class furnace banks, and our iron masters will soon be able to command considerable advance. Wear of the regions supplying the Philadelphia and New York markets, whose prices open the markets for furnaces, with every indication of a healthy market. The make for the year to date in Cambria, Somer set and Westmoreland counties promises to be double that of any previous year.

Transactions for the past week exhibit an improving market, and that early preparations are making for summer and winter business. Sales of pig are 4500 tons, as per brand $22 to 26 for No. 1 Foundry; $24 to 25 for No. 2; $22 to 24 for Forge. Bars are in more active demand; mills fully employed; sales 475 tons, quotation $70 to 75, common sizes. Sheet iron and boiler plate are in quotations. Nails are improving. We quote as before, varying according to brand—Foundry Pig, $20 to 22; Forge $23 to 25; Car wheel Pig $30 to 35; for Malleable Casting $23 to 26; Charcoal Blooms $70 to 75; Under do $40 to 50; Gas and Water Pipe Cast, $40 to 45; Rolled Iron, small sizes, $70 to 75; Hammered do, $65 to 70; Railway Chairs, castings 2½ to 3, do do No. 1 machine made, $3; do do continuous line, 5½c; Nails, first quality, $3.50, cash; do Cut Spikes $4.50. do Sheet Iron (Juniata), Pittsburgh North American.

Flour was again lower yesterday. Sales having been made at $6.75, and the tendency was still downward. Many millers or delivery holders were offering to sell at $6, and there were but few buyers at $6.75.

The Mechanics' Bank of Memphis suspended payment on the 10th instant.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

GRAIN—There has been quite a panic in the Wheat market during the last few days. New Southern has been arriving freely, and in a limited demand for milling, the large operators are mostly holding off. Prices have receded fully 10c per bus since the 16th inst., and sales include about 30,000 bus New Southern, at 2 with 10c to 240 for good reds and 180 to 240c for white, including inferior lots at less rates. The closing prices are 220 to 230c for reds, 230@240 bus prime at our lowest figures, and buyers still not disposed to operate freely. Rye has also been considerably settled and lower, and 3000@5000 bus Penna. sold at 110@ 112c, mostly at the latter rate. Some small lots of new have been brought at the distilleries at 115@6, which all they can get.

WOOL—The new clip is coming forward freely and the market is buoyant and firm, buyers however come forward slowly, and the heavy purchases made in the West by most of the large operators, and the market has been very quiet during the past week, sales being confined to a few small lots of Saxon and pulled at full rates.—[Phila. North American.

IRON—From the variety of advices from England, we are confirmed in the belief that the rolling mill properties are too strong enough to hold the present rates without a decline for this month. A considerable decrease in stocks, and the stopping of several important concerns, affords them get up a monster petition to the City Fathers, and we have no doubt they will come down, in obedience to the will of the majority of the sovereigns.

The evening papers also condemn the whole affair.

"DUTCHTOWN" IN ARMS!—We understand that about sixty Germans in that part of Allegheny known as "Dutchtown" were congregated in a vacant yard behind a fence, on Saturday night, waiting for the Torch Light Procession to pass. They meditated an attack, and had a supply of brick-bats and boulders piled up and ready for use, Fortunately, the leaders of the procession got wind of it and did not venture on the dangerous "dark and bloody ground."

We are informed that prosecutions will be instituted against the designers of that offensive transparency in case they can be discovered. The persons thereon caricatured are determined to protect themselves from a repetition of such insults.

By the way, we were told yesterday that the transparency was badly used up by a stone hurled at it as it passed along the streets.

GRADING IN ALLEGHENY.—Messrs. Palmer, Gang & Co., have been awarded by the Street Committee of the Allegheny Councils, the contracts for grading and paving eight streets. The contracts amount to about $70,000.

THE Chronicle came out yesterday in an enlarged form. The Chronicle appears to be prospering finely.
