So far as the land speculation pretext is conowned, you can rely upon it, Gov. Reeder is well prepared, he will show as clean a record as any honest man may desure.

The attack of Stringfellow on Reeder, was not on a personal quarrel, but really because Governor Reeder, would not allow a Missouri fanatic and blackguard to dictate his official action.
Did not these people feel that the General Government was courting and yielding to them, S.
would not have dared to make this attempt.
In conclusion allow me to assure you that the course of Governor Reeder is endorsed by a great majority of the best citizens of Kanasa—that he

In the meantime, the Berstary of the Territory, one woodson, from Virginia, will become the soting governor, and he will do everything required by the ruffians' legislature.

Perhaps it was the Catholic priests might, with good reason, deem this fact of sufficient importance to make them strive to keep European Catholics at home, and doubtless they have done so; but it is a little old that they should have the Know Nothings for coadinates. the ruffians legislature. Perhaps it was the knowledge of this fact—that the desired wrong sould be consummated by the acting governor a man to the vacancy who was too far distant to a man to the vacancy who was likely to decline sested by parties who have runished provisions, secept readily, and who was likely to decline sested by parties who have runished provisions, and materials to the road along the line; when he knew that by accepting he could do labor, and mate
