Where the Tennersee and Georgia wheat, part to arrive, was soil at good prices. It appears that there is an extensive and valuable grain growing country in Eastern Tennessee, but the count of any market, but now Tennessee and Eavenand, and to be strained as might be imagined. There is some delay and unnecessary routine to be performed, and heavy expenses in the way of fees to be provided for, as is common with every thing in which the English government has a finger, but the provisions of the law regulating naturalisation are on the whole very liberal. In the statute 7 and 8 Victoria, o 66, entitled "an act to amend the laws relating to allena," it is directed that the applicant muntisend to the liome Secretary a memorial praying for the grant, and setting forth the name, say, and profession of the applicant, whether married or single—if any children or not—of what friendly State a native—and if he intends to continue or reside in the United Hingdom. This memorial must be substantisted by an affirmatory of his respectability and loyalty. A certificate of naturalization is then issued, which entitles the person to whom it is granted the right to vote, hold treehold properly, and all the other immunities and privileges of a British subject, except that of a seat in the Legislature Council.

The cost of procuring this certificate amounts to nearly thirty dollars.

It appears the are gathered peaceably upon their reservation to the number of fifteen hundred, and in the adjoining districts to the number of were three thousand. The difficulties with the luddins in Illinois valley have also been settled, and they have returned to their reservation on Rouge river, after giving up six of their numbers as the birenders who had committed the murders. If the philes would but let these red men alone we should hear no more accounts of outbreaks and fight; but, being frained to seek revenge for injuries, they very naturally retailists for whatever is done against them. The superintendents and agents will doubtless have a difficult task to preserve order between them and the reckless whites. North American.
