VICTOR GALBRAITH.

BY M. W. LONGFELLOW.

Under the walls of Monterey
At daybreak bugles began to play,
Victor Galbraith!
In the mist of the morning damp and gray,
Those were the words they seemed to say:
"Come forth to thy death,
Victor Galbraith!"

Forth he came with a martial tread,
From his quarters in the old Presidio,
Victor Galbraith,
He who so well the bugle played,
Could not sound the words it said:
Come forth to thy death,
Victor Galbraith!

He looked at the earth, he looked at the sky,
He looked at the line of musketry,
Victor Galbraith!
And he said with a steady voice and eye,
"Take good aim; I am ready to die!"
Thus challenge death
Victor Galbraith.

Twelve fiery tongues flashed straight and red,
Six leaden balls on their errand sped;
Victor Galbraith
Fells to the ground, but he is not dead,
His name was not stamped on those balls of lead,
And they only smash
Victor Galbraith.

Three balls are in his breast and brain,
But he rises out of the dust again,
Victor Galbraith!
The water he drinks has a bloody stain,
"O hall me not, I am not out of my pain!"
In his agony prayeth
Victor Galbraith.

Forth dart once more those tongues of flame,
And the bugler has died a death of shame,
Victor Galbraith!
His record has come back to where it came,
And no one answers to the name,
He has been forgotten saith
Victor Galbraith!

Under the walls of Monterey
By night a bugle is heard to play,
Victor Galbraith!
Through the mist of the valley damp and gray
The sentinels hear the sound and say:
"That is the wraith
Of Victor Galbraith!"

THE HAMBURG PIANOS are undoubtedly superior to all others in the purity of tones and power of tone. Those who have not only received the highest meed of approbation from the best Pianists, such as Liszt, Thalberg, and others who have them constantly in their own use, but also from our resident Professors. The following is an extract from a letter of Professor Henry Rowbotham. After describing the particular style, which he wants for his own use, one third grand or Square Piano, he speaks as follows of their excellent quality:

"My little daughter, who plays very well, must, with me, have a good instrument, and yours are the only ones which can satisfy me.

"Instruments are offered me on the most accommodating terms, but I do not like them, they have not the elastic touch and the tone of yours."

I remain yours respectfully,

To the Musical World.
Great Improvement in the Covering of Violin Bridges.
(Garnie de Violon de Progrès.)

MANUFACTURED BY JAMES DODD.

IN introducing his new Cordes de Violin to the notice of Professors, Amateurs and the Public at large, J. Dodd has great pleasure in announcing that the long-felt desideratum of preventing Strings from communicated to him by Simon Sirom, the only guail of the late famous Saxonian, during his sojourn in this country, and is identical with that adopted on the Continent, where these cords have been hitherto manufactured for those great Violinists. They are beautiful in appearance, covered with silver, and possess a softness and brilliancy of tone unequalled by any of the strings in present use; qualities which he feels confident must insure a speedy adoption in this and the United States of America. The Violincelli Strings on the same principle, with plated wire which has on likewise confidently recommended.

Testimonials from the following, some of the most distinguished Professors, have been rec'd among many others.

MEDICAL.

AYER'S PILLS

ARE CURING THE SICK TO AN EXTENT NEVER BEFORE KNOWN OF ANY MEDICINE.

Invalids, Read and Judge for Yourselves.

JULES HAUEL, Esq., the well-known perfumer, of Chestnut st., Philadelphia, whose choice products are found at almost every toilet, says:

"I am happy to say of your CATHARTIC PILLS, that I have found them a better family medicine for common use than any other within my knowledge. Many of my friends have realized marked benefits from them and entire health in believing that they possess extraordinary virtues for purifying our diseases and curing the sick. They are not only effectual but safe and pleasant to be taken, qualities which must make them valued by the public, when they are known."

The venerable Chancellor WARDLAW, writes from Baltimore, 15th April, 1854:

"DR. J. C. AYER—Sir: I have taken your Pills with great benefit, for the habitual costiveness, languor, loss of appetite and Bilious Headache, which has of late years overtaken me in the morning. A few doses of your Pills cured me. I have used your Cherry Pectoral many years in my family for coughs and colds with unfailing success. You make the three remedies which I esteem the best within reach, and I feel it a pleasure to commend you for the good you have done and are doing.

JOHN F. HEATTY, Esq., Sec'y of the Penna. Railroad Co., says:

Ft. R. R. Office, Phila., Dec. 15, 1853.

"Sir: I take pleasure in adding my testimony to the efficacy of your medicines, having derived very material benefit from the use of both your Pectoral and Cathartic Pills. I am never without them in my family, nor shall I ever consent to be, while my means will procure them."

The widely renowned S. S. STEVENS, M. D., of Wentworth, N. H., writes:

"Having used your CATHARTIC PILLS in my practice, I certify from experience, that they are an invaluable purgative. In cases of disordered functions of the liver causing headache, indigestion, costiveness, and the great variety of diseases that follow, they are a surer remedy than can be had for $2.50.
