made to hang him, but we learn that he as sunitiving.

We have neither space nor time to enter into any particulars. We will attempt to do so tomorrow. A number of Americans were slain by the foreigners, and a number of foreigners met a heavy retribution. We do not know now many have been killed, but have already heard of some twelve or fifteen in all, and some twelve or thirty have, been more or less dangerously wounded.

The Rior at Louisville.—The telegraph brings us some particulars of a sanguinary riot.

VOLUME LXVIII-NUMBER 800.

about as twelve to one.—Botton Times.

A letter to the Buffalo Roublic, giving some additional information from Kansas, says:—

"Of course I cannot inform you whether Mr. Reeder will at once leave the scale of office in the bands of Mr. Woodson, who, under the Kansas bill in the absence of the Governor, acts as exceptive; but I do hope the Scoretary will have a chance to show what As would do, and that be, and Atchleson, and Stringfellow, and Parson Johnson, &c., &s., will take 'rope, enough!' They have see themselves up as superior in power to the National Congress the superior in power to the National Congress.

Let them dare to carry out the spirit of the act, and their political rain will be complete.
