DIAMONDS OF THE FRENCH CROWN.—The great object of attraction at the Paris exhibition is the diamonds of the crown, which are placed in the centre of the old Panoramic building. The finest of the crown jewels is the diamond known by the name of the Regent, because it was purchased in 1718, by Philippe II. Duke of Orleans, during the minority of Louis XV.; it weighs 136 karats, and is valued at about five million francs. According to the last inventory, made out in 1832, the precious stones of the State are in number 64,812, weighing 18,751 karats, and are estimated to be worth 20,900,260 francs. The richest article in this inventory is a crown which has not less than 5,206 brilliants, 146 rose diamonds, and 59 sapphires, the whole valued at 14,702 708f. 85c. Next comes a sword with 1,606 roses, valued at 261,166f. 99c.; a clasp with 217 brilliants, value 273,119f. 37c.; a sword ornamented with 1,678 brilliants, value 24f., 874f., 87c.; a clasp for a cloak, mounted with an opal valued at 87,500f.; and 197 brilliants, worth 30,606 ; and a necklace for the hat with 21 brilliants, worth 240,700f.

Pittsburgh Hedge Farm Nursery,
SITUATED on Wilkins Avenue, about one quarter of a mile from the Penn-sylvania Railroad Depot, and about three and a quarter miles from Pittsburgh.
P. M. & J. S. MURDOCH, Proprietors.
They offer for sale a very large collection of well grown young trees, well suited for transplanting this fall and coming spring.
The Nursery now covers some 50 acres of ground and contains over 500,000 trees, vines and shrubs, and over 10,000 fruit trees, and 20,000 Evergreens and Shrubs, one of the sizes for removal, together with ornamental and Grape Plants carefully packed and sent according to directions to any part of the United States.
We beg leave to call the attention of the lovers of shrubbery and vergery in the trade to our unrivaled collection for the fall trade, embracing nearly all the known Evergreen family, Indigenous and Exotic, that is worthy of cultivation in this section of the country. Plants can be procured of many things quite large to give immediate effect, and to screen unsightly views. From strangers, cash or satisfactory reference in the city of Pittsburgh required or prepaid.
Orders addressed to us through Wilkin Post Office, near Pittsburgh, Pa., or left at our stand on market days, in the Diamond Market, will be promptly attended to.
