ANOTHER CHAPTER OF THE MARKET HOUSE DIFFICULTIES.—The officers of the Market continue in trouble. The confusion, clashing, and contradiction of the numerous ordinances regulating the Market Houses and those occupying them, and the space outside, have created so much difficulty and involved different individuals in troublesome and costly litigation, that it would seem a pressing necessity for our councils to authorize a thorough revision, simplification and adjustment of the entire Market code, and we hope it may soon be accomplished.

On Saturday last, John Tiernan was again occupying the disputed stand in the market space, when he was arrested by Superintendent Cordell and Constable McCombs. He was taken before Mayor Volz and fined $2 and costs, which he paid. The Mayor informed him that in case he again appeared there as a defendant, he would see and imprison him for Barratry, which, according to Blackstone, is the grievous sin of exciting and encouraging law-suits and quarrels.

Subsequently, Tiernan entered a civil suit in the District Court for trespass vi et armis for assault and battery and false imprisonment against Allen Cordell and Marshall McCombs. He deposed that he was violently seized by the defendants and dragged through a part of Market St. and finally taken to the Mayor's office, and he avers, that he was not guilty of any breach of the peace, nor was he engaged in anything which authorized the defendants to lay hands upon him; and further that the defendants exhibited no warrant of arrest, and, as the deponent well knows, they had none, nor any authority to arrest his person.

A capias was issued by the Prothonotary—bail in $500 required.

Tiernan also prosecuted Cordell and McCombe in a criminal suit for assault and battery, before Ald. Steel. Bail in $500 was given to appear.

JOHN FREEMAN.—An Appeal to the Benevolent. John Freeman, a man of color, is at present in this city, and is desirous of receiving pecuniary aid from those who have a heart for Liberty and who sympathize with the colored man in the many trials and oppressions to which his race is subjected in our slavery-scourged land. Mr. Freeman, (our readers will remember the case,) was the subject of a most villainous prosecution by a slaveholder in Indianapolis in 1853. We propose to make a brief statement of the case:

Mr. Freeman was a much respected citizen of Indianapolis, Indiana, for many years; where by industry he acquired a small property, in the enjoyment of which he lived undisturbed until about the month of July, '53—when Pleasant Ellington, a citizen of Missouri, claimed him as his slave, and instituted suit accordingly, stating that Freeman had escaped from him, while he (Ellington) was a resident of Kentucky. He then caused the imprisonment of Freeman for sixty-eight days, during most of which time the U. S. Marshal required of the prisoner three dollars per day for guarding him, positively refusing to take bail, in any amount, though offered to the amount of half a million.

Several of the citizens of Indianapolis, convinced that Freeman never had been a slave, interested themselves in his behalf, and letters were written to Georgia, where Freeman had formerly resided. Citizens of that state forwarded the most conclusive evidence of his freedom, but Ellington persisted in urging his claim, which made it necessary to call other witnesses from Georgia, Alabama and Kentucky. And to the credit of those generous Southerners it must be said, they promptly responded to the call of Freeman, and came to his relief. The people of Georgia, concerned in the matter, have shown themselves worthy of the land in which Meade successfully labored.

Freeman was finally discharged, but all his means had been absorbed in asserting his freedom, and he still found a large balance against him. The total amount of his expenses on the 9th of January, '54, was $1,238. Under these circumstances, Mr. Freeman determined to appeal to the friends of liberty, and they have manfully come to his aid. Many citizens of Georgia nobly contributed. There are still some $300 to be paid, and we earnestly hope that amount will be made up in our city. Let Pittsburgh have the honor of cancelling that bond. There are hearts and pockets in our midst ever open to the cry of the distressed, and we confidently appeal to them in behalf of this unfortunate sufferer for color's sake.

GENIUS IS THE WEST.—This is the title of a literary monthly published by our friend Willis us R. Coggeshall, Cincinnati, at one dollar per annum, and there is no magazine published in the country that is better worth the money. It is ably edited and contains the choicest efforts of western genius both in the departments of romance and science as well as of poetry. We hope the Genius may have a large list of subscribers from this city.

DESECRATION OF THE SABBATH.—Patrick Hughes was brought before A. B Stevenson, Justice of the Peace in Lower St. Clair township, on Saturday, charged with desecrating the Sabbath, by keeping open store and selling various articles therefrom on Sunday, the first of July and other Sundays. He was fined the usual penalty, and in default of payment was committed to jail for ten days.

We find in the St. Louis Herald, that the number of deaths in Pittsburgh last week, was 131. This is rather a large figure; something larger, in truth, than the facts will justify; larger, by one hundred and sixteen, than the reality. Mr. Herald, don't kill us quite so many next week, and just add, by way of a puff, that Pittsburg is just now one of the healthiest cities in the United States.

PICNIC.—The Western Literary Society, of this city, intend having a picnic at Killbuck station, on Friday, the 31st instant. The young gentlemen composing the association, are making great preparations, and expect to have a very large attendance. It will, no doubt, be a very pleasant affair.

Mr. SHARP'S Steam Fire Engine Young America is soon to become part and parcel of the Philadelphia Fire Department. The people of the Quaker City have raised within a few hundred dollars of the amount required to purchase the engine.

LARCENY.—Benjamin Williams alias Benjamin Folulk, was arrested on Monday last for the larceny of a pair of shoes from Henry Kronmall, had an examination before Ald. Major, on Saturday, and was finally committed for trial.

A SPLENDID PIANO was taken away, a few days since, from the ware rooms of H. Kleber & Bro., to the residence of John Parker, Esq., at Braddock's field. It is what is called a Full Serpentine seven octave, with elaborate and most tasteful carvings, and comes from the factory of Nunns & Clark, New York. It is finished in the highest style of art, and may be considered almost the perfection of elegance and beauty. Good judges in musical matters have assured us that the tone of the instrument is magnificent for volume and power, and at the same time, when lightly touched, of the most silvery and delicate sweetness. It is calculated to be placed at one end of the room, away from the wall, and presents a striking and beautiful appearance in that position. We congratulate Mr. Parker on the acquisition of this noble specimen of art, and doubt not but that it will considerably add to the appearance of his tasteful and elegantly furnished residence.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY.—A bold attempt was made to commit a robbery on Friday afternoon in Pitt township near the city line. A well dressed man who wore a white hat, stepped into a house and demanded of the woman, who was alone, her money. She declared she had none, whereupon he struck her a stunning blow and made off. He was pursued for some distance, but finally made his escape.

LARCENY.—Officer Moon, of the Mayor's Police, on Saturday morning, arrested two men named Bernard McCloskey and John Smith, on a charge of breaking open a box containing several articles of clothing, on board the steamer Philadelphia. The officers of the boat declined prosecuting and the culprits were discharged.

ABOUT nine and a half o'clock on Friday evening, a horse and buggy plunged over the bridge on Washington street, near Liberty, into the canal. The buggy was drowned and the horse saved. No inquest.

WILLIAM C. GRAHAM, the victim of the Louisville riots, was buried on Saturday at ten o'clock. The funeral was largely attended.

Dr. Simmons and the ladies of the garrison have left, and the Chaplain is the only officer remaining in the Fort. The Cholera is of the worst type and is very fatal.

COFFEE—The Coffee market continues quiet, but as for some time past very firm. Most of the Coffee now here is in the hands of parties who are holding for a higher price, and are importuning considerably looked for. There is an inquiry from the trade, and good lots would sell readily at full rates. The sales of 250 bags Java damaged Rio at 9¾ cents, and of a small lot of good do at 11¼. We quote ordinary to prime Rio at 10@11¼; Laguyra at 11@11¾; and Java at 14¾@15c.—[Balt. American.

EAST—The Loan and Trust Company of Canada, have negotiated $1,000,000 of their Bonds over here, in England, and are letting it on farm property at eight.

A few days since we published the amount of Corn in store in this city as near 60,000 bushels, and of other Grains as not a few thousand bushels more. Of course there was but a little over one thousand barrels. So large a body of Corn in store together with the large receipts for the season, has caused an inactivity in this staple; though the price has held up very well, the week opened at 85c on board the Corn, and closes at 86c, about 75,000 bushels having been reported sold during the week by the cargo.—The receipts for the last five days have been 116,650 bushels while the shipments by Lake for the same time were 58,870 bushels. Receipts of Wheat have been very light, and both winter and spring are in demand at improved figures. If 500,000 bushels of Wheat could be had at this moment transactions will not long continue. Oats receipts have also been light, and have been maintained at a fair figure, though closing dull, with a decline, and no shipping demand or supply. Rye and Barley have remained about the same. Flour there has been very little activity owing to the small amount in store. Some 700 barrels have been exported as above stated, and the returns during the week, 33,008,8.50 and the market closes firm.

There is no change in money affairs. The Brokers and Merchants are equally well supplied as 6 W cent. on call loans, and 6@7 on time paper. Of long paper there is not much offered in the street. We quote 4 to 6 months' dates at 7@8 per cent, but the best only of such names. Negotiations from a distance are not so easily made.—[N. Y. Times.
