PITTSBURGH GAZETTE

AN INSIGNIFICANT DWARF.—The Sultan's favorite dwarf, a man about 40 years of age, and 3 feet high, a few years ago, took a notion to marry, and applied to the Sultan for a wife. The Sultan gave him permission to go into his harem, and take the one whom he could kiss. The dwarf, like all other men, was ambitious to have a long wife. While the Sultan's five hundred women, who knew the terms according to which the dwarf was permitted to choose, were laughing at the manikin, he went up to one of the tallest and handsomest of them, and struck her a sudden blow upon the stomach. She collapsed with the pain, and before she could recover, he caught her by the neck and gave her the dreaded kiss. The Sultan kept his word, and the tall beauty is now the mother of the dwarf's children.

A RETURN, just published at Rome, shows that the Order of Jesuits at present consists of 5,510 members; 1,516 of whom are in Italy, 1,697 in France, 463 in Belgium, 364 in Spain, 177 in Germany, and 1,294 in England, America and other countries. In 1799, when the Order was at the height of its glory, it possessed not fewer than 19,816 members.
