The Nothing sm, in this end of the world, setems its opposition to Catholiciam to be its principal capital; while in Alabama, Louisians and South Carolina it lays claim to public confl. the source on the score of its friendship for the Cath-oics. The New Orleans Bulletin, for instance, one of the ablest Know Nothing grans of the Sonth, in bewailing the defeat (f its brethern in Alabama, at the late election, contands that the result was inevitable from the suspition of in-the Grder in that State.
