BREUBLICAN STATE MASS CONVENTION

KOSSUTH AND PRESIDENT PURCE. The New York These of the 24th contains a memorial adsed by Governor Kossuth a year ago to Presidrawed by Governor Kossuth a year ago to Presi-dent Pierce, upon topics of general concern and of, spoind laterest to him, as to every one who has any just appreciation of the duties of a free Republic to any people making an effort to be free. In this letter, says the Three, Gov. Kossuit states some very interesting and important fasts concerning his intercourse while in this country with Mr. Webster, showing the profound laborest with which that great American states-man regarded the struggle for liberty among ons of Europe, and his readiness to provide, even in advance, for every contingenc which might offer us a fair opportunity to speak a word or perform some act of encouragement assured Governor Kossuth that prompt attention would be given by our government to any reprementation he might make upon this subject, and specially to any intimation of the subject, and Acting upon this assurance, Gov. Kossuth, in Acting upon this assu which encouraged him to write, gives a clear statement of the condition of affairs in Europe, ruggests the protability that the people of Hur gary would ere long renew their struggle for independence, and desires to know what course but Government would adont in nestel mt would adopt in certain specified spoice. The letter was eminently proper etful, and from its bearing on pu matters of the utmost importance, merited the prompt attention of the Government.

Yet to this day, neither the President nor the not even an acknowledgement of its receipt! Mr. Marcy's American ferror and seal for liberty had evaporated with his Koesta letter, and o have extended beyond the appointm Postmasters and speculation in votes. So far as istration is a cipher—except where, as in Mexirial is too long for our columns. In the first part of it the ex-Governor of Hungary and win the United States Government, and after reviewing the past difficulties of Hungary asserts that under the circumstances, Hungary was fully entitled to expect a speedy recogni-nition of its independence from the United States

THE WELSH.—A very useful and upright class f citizens are the sons of St. David among us, and men of Weish blood have played an important part in our history. Says Dr. Alexand

"Seventeen of the signers of the Declaration "Seventeen of the signers of the Declaration of Independence were of Welsh origin, among whom Thomas Jefferson was one. Other eminent Americans of Welsh descent were John and Samuel Adams, Jonathan Edwards Yale, the founder of Yale College, General Harrison, Richard Henry Lee, and John Marihall. No less than six of our Presidents have had Welsh blood in their veius—Jefferson, Monroe, Madison, Harrison and the two Adamses. Fourteen of the Revolutionary generals were of Welsh origin, of whon General Wayne was one. Martha Washington was the grand-daughter of a Welsh olergoman."

Hogs IN KERTUCKY .- The Louisville Journa contains a table of the number of hogs over six months old in the several counties of Kentucky, as returned to the assessors. As compared with the years 1858 and 1854 the table stands ecially to any intimation that, in the war number of hogs this year is less than last. rhich even then he foresaw was close at hand, This is ascribable to the schortness of the corn ognition of the independence of any grop last year. Many hogs, for want of food mation that should fairly achieve it, could be of were starved, and many killed were not more than half fattened. The crop of the coming

NEW YORK CITY.-Full returns of the Censu of New York city have been made, and the total is 628,248. In 1850 it was 515,545: increasing in gwe years 107,698, or 21 per cent., which is a little over four per cent. per annum. The pathat the total population is much larger, the ratio of increase being much less than it was du ring the preceding five years, when the ratio was eight per cent. The increase in the interior counties of the state is very light, being only about 80,000 in one-third of the whole number

SHATOR ERODERAD ON a New HORET.—Hon. Richard Brothead made a speech at Easton on Monday, having gone there to prevent an explosion against the administration in favor of Gov. Reeder. He spoke of everything but the great question of the day, and was careful to assert the most uitra pro-elavery doctrines; and, indeed, want a little further than any other doughface yet has in his servility. One part of his speech deserves particular notice, and is thus reported in the Tribuse:

after reviewing the past difficulties of Hungary, asserts that under the circumstances, Hungary was fully entitled to expect a speedy recognized in the Tribures:

He admits that an agent was appointed to effect this, but that the delay of America in sending 'prevented our nation from receiving the contemplated support of a formal recognition of lits independence," and that it proved to be a death-blow to Hungary.
