THE STATE CONVENTION TO-DAY.

Among the gentlemen arrived in the city in attendance upon the convention to-day are Hon. Wm. Jessup and C. P. Read, of Susquehanna county; John S. Mann and Joseph Mann, of Potter; W. W. McDougal, of Tioga; Hon. John W. Howe, of Crawford; Theo. Fenn, Esq., of Lancaster; Gen. Joseph Markle, of Westmoreland; Gen. E. C. Wilson, of Venango; John Williamson, Esq., of Huntingdon; Hon. J. R. Giddings, Hon. Lewis D. Campbell, and Hon. B. F. Leiter, of Ohio.

Slips, containing the proceedings of the Republican County Convention, have been printed for gratuitous distribution, and can be had at this office.

The Convention To-Day.

We hope that all of our readers who can will improve the opportunity to attend the State Republican Convention to-day, which assembles at Corr Hall at 11 o'clock, A. M.

The organization of a Republican party in Pennsylvania this fall was felt to be a necessity. Similar organizations were springing up all over the North, and it was absolutely indispensable that Pennsylvania should follow, if success in the Presidential Campaign of 1856 was to be regarded as possible. On all hands it is conceded that Pennsylvania is to be the battle-ground in the struggle of next year. If she decides against the Republican candidate his election is an impossibility; if for him, there is scarcely another state in the North which may not likewise be carried. To pave the way, therefore, for the great contest of 1856, it was necessary to begin the work of organization in 1855; and to this end the Convention of to-day has been called.

It has been called as a Mass Convention because of the great difficulty of procuring the election of delegates in counties where no organization has yet been effected, experience having shown that unorganized parties move much more effectively in masses than in detail.

For a reason somewhat similar, the Convention was called to meet at Pittsburgh; for although this city is by no means central, it is easily accessible from those parts of the State most likely to furnish the bulk of the attendance. If it had been called at Harrisburg, the representation from the interior counties might have been a little more general than here; but the western and north-western counties are the sources to which we must look, for the present, for a large turn-out. Those counties have led off in behalf of the Republican movement, and they are looked to, now, to give it the impetus which it needs.

We learn, however, that there will be a very fair representation from all parts of the State. The northern counties are alive to the interests of this cause. Susquehanna and Tioga are well represented; Bradford will send some one to speak for her, and Potter has delegates already on the ground. In the east, too, measures have been taken to secure the attendance of delegates. Philadelphia, Montgomery, Chester and other counties have taken action, and we are assured that Lebanon, Lancaster and the middle counties will have representatives on hand. Altogether we anticipate a good gathering, and the prevalence of an excellent spirit. The speakers who are certain to be here are such as will rouse up enthusiasm, and the purpose of the Convention is so noble and inspiring that a good time is inevitable.

The business to be brought forward is not very voluminous. A candidate for Canal Commissioner is to be nominated, an efficient State Committee to be appointed and a platform to be announced. All these, as well as the minor details of organization, will require care and prudence, and the exercise of cool judgment; but the great purpose, reaching high above all these, and to which they must all be subordinate, is to infuse into the hearts of all present a spirit of enthusiastic energy, zeal and devotion to the glorious cause of Freedom, and to present to the people of the State such a manifestation as will command their respect, their confidence and their support.

We invoke upon the deliberations of the Convention that supreme guidance without which all human efforts are in vain; and trusting to the good sense, discretion and forbearance of those who will participate in it, will look to the result of their labors with the full assurance of confidence. The first step is the most difficult, says the French proverb; and in beginning such a movement as this it is not only the most difficult but the most important. To begin right is to have the work half done; to begin wrong is only to impose the necessity of beginning again. A full sense of these considerations is all that is needed to insure a proper start to an all-important work.

PUBLIC MEETINGS.—Our readers in the districts outside of the two cities will see, with pleasure, an announcement from the County Committee that it is ready to furnish speakers wherever and whenever it is deemed proper to call meetings.

The County Committee has not thought it advisable to take on itself the calling of these meetings. That is better left to the people of the localities themselves, for they are the best judges not only of the necessity for such meetings, but of the time that will best suit their convenience.

If, therefore, a meeting to further the Republican cause be deemed important in any particular locality, the friends in that neighborhood have but to appoint the time and place, and apprise the officers of the County Committee, and they will be supplied with speakers.

We may add that one or two such meetings have been already held, and with the best apparent effect.

Organization—township and borough organization, is now the one thing needful with the Republican party in this county. In every district there ought to be steps taken immediately for the effectual rally of the Republican strength and the dissemination of our principles. Wherever public meetings will further this end there they should be held.

REPUBLICAN MEETING IN SEWICKLY.—On last Saturday evening a Republican meeting was held in the School House in the Borough of Sewickly. Rev. Joseph S. Travelli was called to the chair and James Porter appointed Secretary. Addresses were delivered by Thomas L. Shields and J. W. F. White. The large School room was well filled with intelligent, thinking and conscientious voters, who, by their close attention and frequent manifestations of approbation during the speaking showed how deeply their feelings are enlisted in the great anti-slavery movement.

Last fall the Know Nothings in the Borough had almost a unanimous vote for their ticket the opposition numbering only from 5 to 10 voters. This fall, the Republicans confidently count on receiving one third of the votes and perhaps more. Quite a number of K. N's have abandoned the order, and many more will doubtless do so before the election.

The Express was delayed by the city press on Monday evening some by the Union Line, through the courtesy of Mr. Woodward.

OUR PAPER.—We have no special appeal to make to our friends in our own behalf; but we beg them to act upon the conviction that, wherever the Gazette has been freely circulated, there REPUBLICAN principles have taken the firmest hold. The press is the most potent instrumentality of a good cause; and the more readers we can reach between this and the election the better will be our chances of success.

Our weekly paper is furnished at the rate of One Dollar a year to small clubs, and a little effort in every election district would secure a large accession to our list. In the upper wards of this city, in Allegheny and in the boroughs surrounding us, clubs could thus be raised without much labor, and much good seed would thus be sown. In every district of the county there are many who sympathise with the Republican movement, yet do not take the Gazette; and now that the pressure of hard times is removed there are but few of them who would not be glad to renew their acquaintance with us.

An unexampled, desperate and unprincipled effort has been made in all parts of the county to break this paper down. Our subscribers have been hunted and haunted with all manner of fabrications, and it would seem as if the very father of lies had leagued with our persecutors to injure us. No falsehood has been too mean, no device too contemptible, no trick too dishonest for the political charlatans in whose way we stand, and if reckless human ingenuity could compass the ruin of a man fighting for the right, we had long since gone to the wall. We have been made the object not only of individual but organised opposition. An organization boasting that it possesses the political power of the county has undertaken to crush us. Within its secret councils it fulminates orders against us, directing its adherents not to patronize us on pain of being deemed unfaithful to their obligations, and from thence issues also slanders the most vile, calculated with malicious exactness to suit the prejudices of those otherwise unassailable. Time would fail us to recount the cowardly but malevolent attacks that have been for a year steadily directed against us; it is sufficient to know and to say that we have endured a course of opposition more unrelenting and more unprincipled than was probably ever experienced by any one man before.

So far, we have no reason to complain of the manner in which our friends have stood by us. The warfare urged upon us is a compliment to our independence and to the influence of our paper; and if weak friends have been driven off, others have not been slow to take their place. Still, we are not insensible to a kind appreciation of our efforts; and while our list stands at as good a point as it did last year, an increase of it would be not only a means of giving wider circulation to the truth, but a defence to us against cowardly assailants. We do not ask it, however, on this score, however acceptable we might properly deem it to be; but for the sake of the great cause in which we have enlisted, and to secure its triumph, if possible, we lay before its friends the importance of giving it a wider circulation. Heretofore it has had other presses to co-operate with it in political campaigns; now it is alone, its former coadjutors having gone off after strange gods. Hence the necessity of enlarging the circle of readers of the only press which has maintained its position undaunted and unchanged.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION AT INDIANA.—The Hon. George Darsie of Allegheny has accepted the invitation to adress the Republican meeting in Indiana, Pa. on the 10th inst. It is confidently expected that the attendance of Judge Wilmot, some other distinguished speaker who may be at the Pittsburgh Convention will be secured.

PARRICIDE AND FRATRICIDE.—THE NORTH STERLING TRAGEDY.—Under the telegraph head on Saturday morning we published an account of a most horrible murder at Sterling, near Oswego, N. Y. A man, his wife and son were killed by another son. The testimony before the coroner was full and direct and fixed his guilt beyond question. When charged with it by a neighbor he admitted the crime.

He had been imprisoned some time since for horse stealing. His father, by giving to a neighbor a chattel mortgage on his farm, borrowed a hundred dollars, and freed his son. Subsequently that neighbor's son died, and the present murder, instead of manifesting what his father thought would be a proper respect, ridiculed the ceremonies, he and his parents being Deists. On this the father and son quarrelled, and in the night when the three were sleeping, he killed them with an axe. Dr. Proudfit thus testified before the coroner's jury:

I was called on this morning by Patrick Fitzgeralds, a son of the murdered man, who said his folks were all poisoned on Sunday. I said to him what was the matter; said John was carrying on like the devil, and said there were negroes in the house; asked Patrick if there was any poison in the house; said his mother had told him John had put poison in the sugar last Sunday.

When I came to the house saw James, the murdered son, lying on the floor, covered with blood; had a large gash in the face or jaw, and one large gash three-quarters of an inch above in the temple; thought it done by an axe; sewed up wounds. Have examined the bodies of Mark, (the father,) Mary (the mother) and James Fitzgeralds; find Mark Fitzgerald's neck literally severed from the body, excepting him in a oblique direction; the wound in my opinion was made with an axe, while deceased was in bed, causing instant death.

Mary Fitzgerald has four wounds, one superficial wound in the neck; the large blood-vessels are not cut; one wound on the left cheek, has penetrated into the muscles that capped the shoulder; one toward the right shoulder, partly severing the spinal column, and one about half an inch above this, penetrating slantingly; have no doubt of the blows inflicted causing her death. James had one wound on the neck, and one on the temple, made with an axe; I am satisfied they were the cause of his death.

I saw an axe in the door yard that had blood on the helve in several places; think from rust on it, that it had been washed; the handle was scoured and scraped. During the whole time of examination John was in great excitement, saying "Oh, my father; Oh, my mother; Oh, my brother, what made me do this," or "why did I do this?"

The following is the statement of Messrs. Adle and Plum, to whom the prisoner made a confession:—

"John Fitzgerald confesses that he did kill his father, mother and brother with an axe about three o'clock on the morning of Tuesday, August 30. That since the funeral of his brother, on the 27th of May—which he did not attend—his parents have been displeased with him, and he angry with them for their course, which anger has grown upon him till about a week ago he tried to poison them by putting some strychnine into a tumbler of sugar.

It was from the same bottle which was found in his trunk. Says no one knew anything of his intention to kill them."

After the examination of witnesses, Justice Tilford requested the presence of the prisoner. On appearing he said to him, "John, you are charged with the murder of your father, mother and brother. I wish to ask you a few questions; but will say to you that you need not answer unless you choose. Do you know how your father, mother and brother received their wounds?"

Prisoner—"I do. With an axe."

Justice—"In whose hands."

Prisoner—"In my own!" I tried to poison father and mother, about a week ago."

Justice—"What was the poison in?"

Prisoner—"In a phial in my trunk. I got it in Oswego; don't know who of. I did not get poison with intent to kill father and mother."

Justice—"Had you conversation with any one in relation to the matter before you committed the deed?"

Prisoner—"I had a conversation with some one about killing father and mother, but object telling with whom."

We were admitted to the room containing the bodies, which had been washed and laid out. While we stood gazing at the lifeless forms, a slight opening was made by those surrounding the bed, and the murderer stood before us, looking at his victims! Barely a breath broke the stillness, as he gazed at their pallid, upturned faces, until a sob broke from him, when his whole frame shook with emotion. It was but transitory, however, he regained his composure, and was led out of the room in a moment.

The tragedy has occasioned the most intense excitement for miles around, and the roads leading to the house were thronged with teams and pedestrians, and a large crowd was also on the premises.

CROPS IN FRANCE.—The crops are nearly housed in the south of France, and as usual when all the hands are occupied in cutting, and none are left to carry grain to the mill, prices have risen throughout France. The harvest, it is said, is a "good ordinary," but not sufficient nevertheless, to save the country the expense of importation.

NOTICE.—If the agent of J. L. Lloyd & Co., of Cincinnati, is in this city, he will please call at the counting-room of this office and see the clerk.

DIED—On Monday evening, Sept. 3d, JOHN MCSWIGEN, of Wylie street, in the 41st year of his age. His friends will have his late residence, Arch street, end of 10 o'clock.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Have you a Diseased Liver?—The question, though startling, is sufficiently suggestive, when the fact is taken into consideration that diseases of the Liver have become most alarmingly frequent in the United States. Indeed, there are few formidable diseases that are not in some way traceable to a deranged state of that important organ. Many of the complaints usually classed under the head of Consumption, have their origin in the Liver. "Any remedy that would insure regularity and healthful action in the Liver, would be a blessing to mankind" has been the exclamation of thousands. That remedy has been found: it is safe and sure. Where a fair trial has been afforded it, it has never been known to fail.

Reader, have you any disease of the Liver, or disease which you believe proceeds from hepatic derangement?—Lose not a moment, but purchase a box of Dr. M'Lane's Pills, and they will restore you to health. It is the only remedy yet discovered, in which implicit confidence may be placed.

P. S. Dr. M'Lane's celebrated Vermifuge and Liver Pills can both be obtained at any of the respectable Drug Stores in this city.

☞ Purchasers will please be careful to ask for and take none but Dr. M'LANE'S Vermifuge and Liver Pills. There are other Worthless and Pills now before the public, but all comparatively worthless

Headachs and Debility—Mr. Silas J. Hancock, of Birmingham, says "I have found in Boerhaave's Holland Bitters a remedy for Headache and Debility. My wife has also used it with the greatest benefit."

Mr. A. S. Nicholson, of Pittsburgh, also remarks that he has experienced much relief from its use for Headache, and says he can recommend it to those who are troubled as he was.

Take a half tea-spoonful three times a day, an hour before meals. Eat moderately, and then of wholesome food, and you will find this is really a remedy for Sick and Nervous Headache, Weakness of any kind, Costiveness and Piles. Being perfectly simple in composition, it may be taken without fear by the invalid. Possessing a fine aromatic flavor, it is very grateful to the debilitated stomach.

Liver Disease.—Carter's Spanish Mixture as a remedy for liver disease, and the number of formidable evils connected with a disorganised state of that organ, is unrivalled.

Hundreds of certificates, from the highest sources of personalising in the city of Richmond, Va., might be given of cures effected by Carter's Spanish Mixture. We have only room to give the following: Cure of Samuel M'Kenney, Esq., of the firm of Dricker & Merrit, Bookseliers, Richmond, Va., who was cured by two bottles of Carter's Spanish Mixture, after three years suffering from disease. ed1w1 ☞ Its merits are unquestionable. It is a wonderful, and more than all the medicines he had ever taken, and cheerfully recommends it to all. See advertisement.

Reputation in New England.

BRISTOL, N. H., June 9th, 1853.

To B. A. Fahnestock & Co.:

GENTLEMEN.—For five years past, I have used B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge for an anthelmintic in my practice; my attention was first called to it in a case where I had failed to dislodge worms with calomel, pink and cowhage. I was induced to use it, and was much pleased with it, and since then I have prescribed it for hundreds of patients, and in a large majority of cases with complete success. In one case a single bottle of the medicine brought away from one patient 'Forty Pink Worms.' I have never known it to do harm, and I am induced to make this statement from an honest conviction that it is the most valuable Vermifuge yet known. Such is my confidence in its worm-killing power, that I intend to publish a certificate in this section, and furnish them with the same. M. C. SAVAGE, M. D.

Joy for the Invalid.—We cut the following from the "Philadelphia Saturday Gazette," and recommend our readers to peruse it carefully, and those suffering should not delay purchasing:

DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.—This celebrated medicine is composed of Roots, Herbs and Barks, the imposing German Medicine Store, No. 120 Arch str.-et, is exciting unprecedented attention, and the proprietor, who is a scientific physician, is selling immense quantities of it. The virtues of the many roots and herbs which enter into its composition, we see by an advertising column, that there is hardly any rom left for us to speak of, but we will say that we have used it, and feel its value which humanity is heir, there is none more distressing than the derangement of the digestive apparatus, which never fails to accompany a disordered state of the liver. Dizziness of the head, languor, restlessness, a morbid breath, loss of appetite—in short, an indescribable wretchedness of entire case, are the insufferable and ills wasting attendants. These diseases, which have baffled the skill of the ablest Doctors, have been radically cured by Hoofland's German Bitters.

The Greatest Medical Discovery OF THE AGE.

Mr. Kennedy, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures every kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula to a common Pimple.

He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples of the face.

Two to three bottles will clear this system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing in the pastures, and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system; yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There are no ifs nor ands, buts nor be's about it suiting some cases and not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know its effects in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year old, to old people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, worthy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to a sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. I have given it with entire satisfaction to catarrh and dizziness. Some who have been costive for years, have taken and been regulated by it. Where the body is sound, it work quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very powerful workings, but you must not be alarmed—they always disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it. On the contrary, when that feeling is gone you will feel yourself like a new person.

I leave the above statement of the most extravagant encomiums of it that man ever listened to. No change of diet is ever necessary—eat the best you can get. I have likewise an herb, which, when simmered in sweet oil, dissolves scrofulous swellings of the neck and canker the sore. Price 50 cents. Price of the Medical Discovery $1 per bottle.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.—Adult, one table-spoonful pr. day. Children over eight years, dessert spoonful; children from five to eight years, tea-spoonful. As no direction can be made applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

DR. KENNEDY gives personal attendance in bad cases of scrofula.

Sold, wholesale and retail, at Dr. KENNEDY'S, 140 Wood street, corner of Virgin alley.

To Mothers, Wives and Daughters.—The noblest discovery in the science of medicine, and the one which has, and will continue to prove, the greatest blessing to the human family, is the medical preparation known as Marshall's Uterine Catholicon.

It is designed to cure the various diseases incident to females, such as prolapsus, pain in the back, weakness, extreme prostration from nursing and a hundred other evils in their train, have almost made life a burden current of existence into a daily and hourly curse. The enlightened professors of the medical colleges in the old world, as well as in this country, have held the subject in anxious consideration, and they have finally determined that the old method of treating these diseases in a desperate disease was all wrong, and that a constitutional treatment was what was required. It is an old adage, that great bodies move slowly; and while the faculty were attempting to harmonize the new with the old, disease a system for general practice, Dr. Pomeroy, a physician with forty years experience in the diseases of women and children reduced the theory to simple facts, and discovered a remedy which has cured and will cure children of every and every twenty cases now existing. In some cases where the organs have been ruptured, or where they have been severely injured by bad medical treatment, nothing can be done to alleviate the symptoms. No one of a hundred of said Dr. Graham, the great leader of the English medical school, and, therefore, let no one despair until this remedy has been faithfully tried. Throw aside prejudices and take the advice of an interested physician—reason for yourselves—see what the remedy has done for others, and then go on with a strong faith in the assurance that Marshall's Uterine Catholicon is "Queen of Remedies," a scientific combination of medical virtues, which will preserve the constitution from destruction, will arrest the insidious approach of disease, and restore health to the already impaired and weak system. For sale by agents throughout the country. For sale and retail at DR. GEO. H. KENNEDY'S Drug Store, No. 140 Wood street. jy2-d&w

We will reward any person giving information of infringements on the same. This is the only Machine ever invented that will grind a saw perfectly even in thickness.

They will require less set—will not heat while running—will run smooth—save lumber—and keep an edge longer than any other saws made—and are not liable to become untrue.

All our Saws are made from an Extra Quality of Cast Steel, imported expressly for our own use, at much higher cost than generally used for Saws.

We respectfully inform all manufacturers of Lumber, that no Saw will be sent from the Establishment but what is of superior temper and workmanship; the Saws will be found more even and uniform than any Saw in use.

Lyon's Kathairon.—There is no surer test of the unrivalled merits of an article, than the springing up of countless imitations and counterfeits. The fact conclusively proves Lyon's KATHAIRON, for preserving, restoring and beautifying the Hair, to be the finest toilet article ever prepared. Combining as it does the fragrance of the most delicate extracts with the most valuable remedial qualities, it stands entirely without a rival.—The ladies have decided that no toilet table is complete without it, and their fine discrimination rules the world. To guard against valueless imitations and counterfeits always ask for LYON'S KATHAIRON.
