

PITTSBURGH GAZETTE

The Eastern Doctor and his Team Poxes—Johnny Comstock the Eastern hermit; paid a visit to our city last week, and attracted considerable attention, arising essentially from the fact that he had not seen him before supposed he might have been the King of the Shetland Islands, instead of a lone hermit. He was never known to have been in a city before, and was consequently hor-ribly frightened. He has never obtained any money solicited, nor has he ever obtained any sum from the charitably disposed. He never rode in the cars or took up any of public entertainments, and when in the most frequented roads.

Provided with a small tin cup, in which he stepped into coffee houses and theaters, he occasionally issued forth to ascertain what progress was being made in the world, and when fatigued by his long walk, would sit down and rest. It was a fine sight to see him in a little group of men, make a fire and prepare his frugal repast.
He never disclosed his retreat; but his only companions are two tame foxes, which he has tamed and trained, and seem to be as much attached to him as his master is to his dog. They have been made fast to a chain, and when fatigued by his long walk, will sit down and rest.

Money is no object to him; he can always drive a hard bargain in rods, herbs, seeds, game, etc., said says he, and when fatigued by his long walk, will sit down and rest.

There is no object to him; he can always drive a hard bargain in rods, herbs, seeds, game,
long walk, will sit down and rest.
