THE UNDERGROUND RAILROAD.—Something of a Mistake.—We find in the Cleveland Plain Dealer, of Friday, the particulars of an incident in the history of the Underground Railroad, which we condense:

A gentleman and his family arrived in Cleveland, from the District of Columbia, on Wednesday, bringing a free colored girl, Kitty, as a nurse. During the delay occasioned by a change of cars at Pittsburgh, the colored by standers at the depot espied the nurse, and suspecting her to be a slave, instituted some inquiries. The vague answers, joocosely given, led to a confirmation of their suspicions. They did not have time, however, to attempt to rescue the captive, and she was borne away from their sympathy by the fleeting railroad train.

She is a very light mulatto, and of animated and agreeable features. The telegraph from Pittsburgh announced to the officers of the Underground Railroad here, her advent, and she had hardly been domiciled on Wilson avenue twenty-four hours before Lawyer Biddle was consulted as to the best plan for making Kitty one of the free, and Mr. Parker, an abolitionist, sent to her to induce her to make good her escape.

Mr. Parker found her at the dinner hour in the front yard tending to the baby. Parker asked Kitty if she wished to be free? She mistaking his demeanor and question to be an offer to engage her as a servant, promptly replied "No, Sir!" The gentleman of the house J. K. Curtiss, was called to the door, and the subject of the unceremonious visit communicated to him. Parker stated to him that he was informed that he had a southern gentleman with him who owned the girl in the yard, and if so he had come to release her from bondage. Upon being informed that the southern gentleman in question was none other than our friend E. S. Stevens, and that Mr. S. had been instrumental in purchasing the girl, in a legimate way, some three years ago, and giving her her freedom, Parker came to the conclusion that there had been a slight mistake, appologised for the intrusion and left.

The incident proves one thing, viz. that the U. G. R. R. have a lynx-eyed set of conductors who are determined that no slave shall breathe the free air of Pennsylvania and not know his or her freedom, and if now and then they make such a mistake as this it is more a credit to their vigilance than anything else.

DECLINATION.—At the meeting of the Democratic County Committee of Corresponedence, on Saturday, the following letter of declination was read by the chairman, Col. Black:

"To the Chairman and the members of the Committee of Correspondence of Allegheny county:

GENTLEMEN—I would, through you, return my grateful thanks to the Democratic party, for the renewed evidence which they have given of their confidence in me, by the nomination as a candidate for Assembly which they have conferred upon me. At the same time, I am constrained by considerations arising from frequent attacks of ill health, to respectfully decline the place so kindly extended to me.

Be assured, gentlemen, that I am still, as I ever have been in heart and deed, a consistent Democrat, and no Know-Nothing—and that my firm and abiding intention is ever to remain true to the political principles which have always heretofore been the guide of my life.

Respectfully yours, R. A. BAUSMAN."

The declination was accepted, and the following nominations were then made to fill the vacancy:—Thomas S. Hart, of Indiana; J. H. Salisbury, of Birmingham; and John H. Richardson, of Elizabeth, were named, and Mr. Salisbury was duly nominated on the first ballot.

The Committee meets again next Saturday, when any candidates who shall not have signed the Test will be stricken off the ticket, and others substituted in their places.

Col. Black reported that all the candidates to whom the Test had been presented, had signed it, viz:—For Senate, William Wilkins; Assembly, James B. Fulton, James Salisbury, Samuel Smith, L. B. Patterson and Christopher Magee; Sheriff, Rody Patterson; Treasurer, Thomas Phillips; Coroner, William Alexander.

THE RAIL ROAD IRON ROBBERIES.—We gave yesterday a full account of the discovery of these depredations and tha arrest of suspected persons. We are informed by the officers that our report was entirely correct, if we except one or two unimportant particulars. The deepit on the deposit of iron in Allegheny was not in the basement of the Church on the S. E. corner of the Diamond, but in a blacksmith's shop.—We erred also in saying that twenty-six persons were arrested. But two were arrested, and they gave bail, though warrants were issued for the arrest of twenty-six.

We are informed that it is the determination of the Canal Commissioners to push prosecutions to the utmost against all who are charged with complisity in these robberies. No persons connected with the State Line are implicated.

Yesterday, Officer Stitt, of Allegheny, discovered fifty-four barrels of scrap iron, composed partly of Railroad "chairs" which had been sold by the Nichols' to Anderson & Son, Water street.

HOUSE BREAKING.—THE RASCALS STOP AT.—Early on Sunday morning last, the residence of Mansfield Brown, Esq., on the second bank, Allegheny, was entered by burglars. The family were all absent in the country—the house being closed for the summer. As the robbers were retiring from the house, they were observed by a person residing in the neighborhood, who fired a pistol shot at them, without effect, however. They retreated through the yard to the stable and thence to Water Alley. Mr. Wm. Wilson, residing on the alley had heard the report of the pistol, got up from bed, and was prepared to give them a passing salute. As they emerged from the stable, he fired upon them twice with a revolver, but so far as he could discover without hitting them. They took to their heels and were soon out of sight. As they were retreating one of the rascals cried out to Mr. Wilson—"look out, old fellow, your turn will come next." Mr. W. states that they had their arms full of goods which they had taken from Mr. Brown's house.

THE OPENING OF THE PITTSBURGH AND CONNELLSVILLE RAILROAD.—The long expected opening of this important work through to Connellsville takes place to-morrow. The occasion will be very appropriately celebrated.

A large number of invited guests will go up from this city.

The steamer Edwin will leave this city this afternoon at four o'clock with the excursionists, reaching West Newton at about ten o'clock, where they will remain over night and go by cars to Connellsville the next morning. The celebration will take place during the day. Speeches will be delivered. A public dinner will be given, and a military parade is expected.

The excursionists will return in time to reach Pittsburgh by nine o'clock on Wednesday evening.

MELANCHOLY OCCURRENCE.—A BOY KILLED.—On Friday evening a little boy aged about eight years, was killed on the Allegheny and Butler Plank Road, about a mile from Allegheny. He was playing on the road, when he was run over by a horse, knocked down and injured so severely as to cause instant death. We learn from a gentleman who passed along a short time after the occurrence, that the poor little fellow's breast was lacerated in a horrible manner. His name saw Metzger.

CALL ACCEPTED.—We understand that Rev. Charles Porterfield Krauth, of Winchester, Va., has accepted a call to the First English Lutheran church of this city, in place of Rev. W. A. Passavant, resigned. Mr. Krauth is one of the most promising young men in the Lutheran church. He is a gentleman of fine education, of considerable learning, and of growing reputation. We think the congregation could not have made a more fortunate selection.—Times.

DEATH BY CHOLERA.—A man named Ferguson, residing near the mouth of Saw Mill Run, died of cholera on Thursday evening last.

A German in South Pittsburgh was attacked on the same day, but was saved by his physician

THE I. O. of O. F. will hold a celebration in Brownsville, on Wednesday, the 26th September, instant, on which occasion an address will be delivered by Rev. James D. McCabe.

WESTERN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.—The Presbyterian Seminary, in Allegheny, begins its sessions of 1855-6 this week in the new edifice on the West Commons.

BURGLARY.—On Friday night some persons, entered the cellar attached to the Rumsey Hotel, Allegheny, and stole a barrel of ale.

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF TRADE.—The Board met last night at the Exchange.

The Treasurer's report was read.

On motion, Messrs. W. H. Smith, G. W. Cass and Robert Dalzell were appointed a Committee to draft Resolutions relative to the death of the late Henry Graff, Esq. The Committee reported Resolutions bearing testimony to the exalted character of the deceased and expressing sympathy with the bereaved relatives. They were unanimously adopted.

The following Resolution was offered:

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed to express our sympathy with the Norfolk sufferers. Carried. The following gentlemen were appointed said committee:—Sam'l. P. Shanon, Francis Sellers, Wm. C. Roe, H. L. Ringwalt, and Wm. S. Lavely.

The Association then adjourned to partake of a collation which had been provided, and was already tabled for immediate discussion. After the inner man had been provided for, speeches relative to the past career and future prospects of the Association. The meeting was quite an enthusiastic one.

MONEY FOUND.—A few days since, a lad named Krehler, son of a shoemaker on Hand street, picked up a pocket-book, on Liberty street, opposite Cummings' fruit stand, and found it to contain $65. He asked Cummings if he had lost the money, and Cummings replied that he had not—but he reached for the pocket-book, remarking that he would keep it for the owner. The boy gave up possession, and Cummings advertised the money, but no owner came. The father of the boy then brought an action of trover before Alderman Donaldson, for the recovery of the money. Cummings refused to give it up, but expressed a willingness to let the owner have it. The Alderman decided that Cummings should place the amount in bank, payable to the order of young Krehler's father, and that, should the owner claim it, the boy should receive any reward which might be offered. This Cummings refused to do. He took an appeal, and the matter will be tried at the next term of Quarter Sessions.

THE TENTH.—Yesterday was appropriately celebrated.

The Duquesne Greys paraded in the afternoon, turning out fifty-six muskets, and attracting the attention and praise of everybody by their excellent marching and the precision of their evolutions.

The Washington Infantry appeared upon the streets at eight o'clock with eighty-two muskets. Their appearance was highly creditable. The ten o'clock train went off before the Infantry got over to Allegheny. They went down, however, on the three o'clock train, participated in the celebration at Sewickley and returned last night.

The Protestant Association turned out several hundred strong.

NORFOLK, SUFFERERS.—At a meeting of the Board of Trade the undersigned were appointed a committee to solicit aid for the sick and needy at Norfolk and Portsmouth.

As it is important that immediate action should be taken, we beg leave to ask those who have it in their power to give their mite will do so at an early hour to either of the committee.

Allegheny, September 10 1855.

SWORD PRESENTATION.—Yesterday, before the Duquesne Greys left their Armory, Lieut. R. Biddle Roberts, on behalf of the Company, presented a beautiful and costly sword to Captain Campbell. Lieut. Roberts delivered the Sword in a very neat and eloquent manner.

Capt. Campbell, in accepting the gift, responded with much feeling.

The Greys closed the ceremony by giving three hearty cheers for their officers.

THE BLUES.—A splendid flag will be presented to the Jackson Independent Blues this morning between six and seven o'clock, from the balcony of the St. Clair Hotel. Capt. Denny will present the flag on the part of the donors; and it will be received on the part of the company by Edmund Snowden, Esq., when it departs for the New Castle Encampment.

The company meet at their Armory this morning at 5 o'clock.

A LAD named John Weiser was caught, on Sunday last, in the act of stealing fruit from the premises of Mr. James Hosg, Alleghesy. Mr. Hosg took him to the Mayor's office, when the matter was settled by the boy paying a fine and damages.

DIVIDEND.—The Managers of the Monongahela Bridge Company have declared a dividend of six per cent. on the capital stock, for six months, to be paid on or after the 17th inst., at the toll house.

TELEGRAPHIC.

BALTIMORE, September 10.—The Norfolk boat bring stidtngs that there is no abatement of the fever and that the small pox has also broken out in Norfolk of which there were ten cases on Saturday. Two nurses from this city are dead. Dr. Bryant of Philadelphia is dying. The fever is spreading to the adjoining counties. At Norfolk on Friday there were 40 deaths from yellow fever, and on Saturday up to noon there there had been 25 deaths. At Portsmouth on Friday 22 deaths and 50 new cases, on Saturday up to noon there had been 15 deaths. Dr. Morris of this city, was sick, Dr. Marshall was dying. Seventy-six tents were taken down from here on Friday to Norfolk under the direction of the Mayor and Councils of this city which were pitched on the site of the old point, a beautiful and healthy site. The American flag was raised and it was expected a steamboat load of refugees would land there this morning.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 10.—We have no late intelligence from Norfolk this morning. The steamship Franklin which brought the yellow fever to Portsmouth, and which circumstance is believed to have been the origin of the pestilence at Portsmouth and Norfolk, has arrived below in the Chesapeake. It is supposed that she will not be permitted to come up to the city. Quite an excitement has been occasioned by the report of her being below, and threats have been made to destroy her if she approaches the city.

NEW YORK, September 10.—The steamship Empire City, from Aspinwall arrived about noon with the California mails of August 18th. She brings 860 passengers and $979,000 in treasure principally consigned to the following:—Wells Fargo & Co. $194,000; Wm. Hoge & Co. $118,000, Drexel & Co. $100,000; Duncan Sherman & Co. $70,000; Ross Falconer & Co. $60,000; Thomas Watson & Co. $22,000.

WASHINGTON CITY, September 9.—The state of the negotiations at the Court of St. James is such that the public interest will require the continuance of Mr. Buchanan longer in London than he or his friends in this country anticipated. His connection with that mission will not therefore terminate at the time heretofore announced, viz: the first of October. It is presumed his detention has reference to the Central American question.

St. LOUIS, Sept. 10.—Gov. Shannon arrived at Westport on the 31st. He was serenaded in the evening and made a speech; he regretted to see a disposition in certain parts of the territory to nullify the laws of the Legislature; he regarded that Assembly as legal and its laws binding and should exert his authority to enforce them. He said he was for slavery in Kansas.

CHICAGO, September 10.—It is reported here that the Chicago, Alton and St. Louis railroad has been leased to Hamilton Spencer, the late Vice-President of the Company at the rent of $600,000 per annum.

FLOUR AND MEAL.—The receipts for four continue large, and prices are unsettled, and favoring the sellers we are closing at about $7 ⅌ bbl lower. The demand, however, is quite limited, both for export and home consumption, and sales for shipment only reach about 6000 bbls at $7,25@$7,50 for low grades and straight brands and 7,62½@$8 for extra and fancy family brands. Retail sales reach about 500 bbls at $8,12½@$8,25 for the two days at $7,25@$7,37½ for standard superfine and $7,50@$7,62½ per bbl for extra. The market closes rather firmer under the influence of the late advices, and those holders refuse lowest figures for shipping brands. The transactions for home use are to a fair extent, though within the above range of prices, including a few small lots of fancy family flour at higher rates. Rye flour is also considerably better, and several small sales have been made at $5,25@$5,50; we quote to-day at the former rate.—Phila N. American.

We understand that one of the Western Railroad Companies which was in financial difficulties last year declaring the money market easier, has resumed the dividend again, has been within a week past again obliged to go to protest drafts to the amount of $300,000 which will sometime locked very promising. Its business, however, is in a healthful and increasing condition, and arrangement will be soon made for its relief.—N Y Tribune.
