PITTSBURGH GAZETTE

NOT SO BAD AS THE ALABAMIANS.—A Turkish enthusiast at Constantinople, lately cut off two yards of the telegraph wire, which he brought to his house in the hope of being first to hear the news. When taken up for the offence he admitted the fact, and said all he wanted to learn was the fall of Sebastopol. Another Turk cut the wire into to see if the wire was hollow. The people in a section of Alabama recently cut down the telegraph poles because they were believed to keep off the rain.

LOVE AND TEMPERATURE.—In one of his letters, Sidney Smith says: "Very high and very low temperatures extinguish all human sympathy and relations. It is impossible to feel affection beyond 78 deg. or below 20 deg. Fahrenheit; human nature is too solid or too liquid beyond these limits."

SYDNEY SMITH ON RAILROADS.—Sydney Smith said of railroads:—Before this invention man, richly endowed with gifts of mind and body, was deemed as locomotive power. He could only walk four miles an hour, while a wild goose could fly eighty in the same time.

ANOTHER Pittsburgher testifying to the wonderfully curative powers of Seeburne's Holland Bitters.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 9th, 1854.
Messrs. Seeburne, Page, Jr., & Co.—Gentlemen: For a year past I have been afflicted very seriously with dyspepsia, so much so that my health refused to retain anything. I have tried almost every remedy, and the regimen of several physicians, but without relief. Seeing your Holland Bitters advertised, I was induced to try them, and have now found relief almost amounting to a cure. I found it efficacious in removing the extreme debility occasioned by the disease, and generally as a tonic it has few equals and no superior. I would advise all who are afflicted with dyspepsia to purchasing as the genuine Seeburne's Holland Bitters.
Sold at 61 per bottle, or 6 bottles for $5, by proprietors.
