"I remember once," says Lamartine, in allusion to his poetical "O have seen the branch of a willow shake and bend over by the tempest-wind fold the parent's trunk, floating in the morning light upon the misty surface of the river flowing beneath. On its branches a nightingale still crowned her nest, and it drifted down the roaring stream; and the male on the wing followed the wreck which was bearing away the object of his love."

TAX ENGLISH.—"No use of my trying to collect that bill, sir," said a collector to his employer, handing the dishonored document to the latter. "Why?" "The man is non-est." "Then take it and collect it, sir." "A non-est man will not fail to meet his obligations."

UNPARALLELED INCREASE OF POPULATION.—A Paris paper estimates the increase of the population of that city, for one week, to be 600,000. That was the week of the Queen of England's visit.
