CHEER UP!!

We continue to receive the most cheering accounts from all parts of the county, respecting our ticket. The meetings lately held at Sewickley, South Fayette, Pine Run, Beaua Vista, McKeesport, and other points, have all been well attended, and the indications are all favorable to the success of our nominees. Notwithstanding the many disadvantages under which we have been laboring, there is as much enthusiasm apparent for our ticket as for either of the others before the people; and we repeat what we have before urged, that it requires but a determined effort on the part of its friends in each district to secure the entire success of the Republican ticket.

The democratic party is by no means united, nor is there any enthusiasm among its members. It cannot arouse the old spirit, nor drum up the faithful as it was wont. The rank and file are dispirited, careless of the result, and in no mood to follow their old leaders. It will be impossible for that party to poll anything like its former vote, and this fact is felt intensely by the managers. They see and realize, every moment, that things are all at sixes and sevens with them.

The "American" party is in no better plight. It is, in fact, much more distracted than the democratic party. Disaffection and revolt meet it at every step. There are whole sections of the county in which the party is in utter rebellion. The managers have ceased to feel the confidence which they once manifested so strongly, and doubt and confusion have taken its place. We have never, in all our experience in political matters, known so much disaffection in any party as now prevails in the Know Nothing ranks; and however loudly the most noisy may boast, there is no real confidence felt in the result.

The Republican party is the only united party in the county. It has an excellent ticket, and it is bound to rally to its support all the disaffected members of the other parties. It started upon even ground with its competitors, with an equal chance of success; and now that distraction has fallen upon the counsels of the opposition, it cannot fail to profit by what they lose. Every day is adding to our strength in the Republican ticket; and every developement which arises but serves to convince us that its chances of success are not only good but cheering in the extreme. We pray our friends, therefore, to take courage; go to work earnestly; rouse up their neighbors; bring out the full Republican vote; improve the valuable opportunities daily offering; and our word for it, there will be no reason to regret what follows. In every aspect of political affairs, as they stand at present, the friends of the Republican cause have abundant reason for hope and cheer.

Peter Martin Withdrawn—K. N. Obligations.

According to the K.N. Constitution and the regulations of the Order, there is but one method of making nominations, and that is by a direct vote of the members in their district Councils. And this has been one boast of the Order, that their method is the fairest and least liable to be controlled by wire-working politicians. How many denunciations we have heard against the old delegate system! How its iniquities have been portrayed! How the old political leaders that have controlled these delegate meetings have been denounced! And what eulogies we have heard on this beautiful plan of the K. N. Order, by which all nominations were made by the people in their primary capacity. No chance for fraud there—no cunning, scheming political tricksters could control their nominations!—And if any frauds should by any possibility be committed, how soon they were exposed and corrected! Just as they were in reference to the nomination of Prothonotary in this county!

Peter Martin was their candidate for Canal Commissioner—regularly elected by a vote of the members in all the Councils of the State.—The fact was announced in the papers of the Order and Mr. Martin's name placed at the head of all the K. N. papers of the State. When lo! on Saturday morning a telegraphic dispatch stated that Mr. Martin had withdrawn and that the State Committee had substituted Thomas Nicholson of Beaver county! Mr. Nicholson's name was never before the Order in connection with that office, neither had he received the vote of a single K. N. Council in the State. How was this done and who did it? Who had the right to persuade Mr. Martin to withdraw and put up another man in his place? The Order was never consulted on the subject. Not fifty men in the State knew any thing of it till it was done.

But the State Committee did it. The State Committee! Why the Order has no State Committee, that possesses any such power. The Committee were self-constituted. A few gentlemen of Philadelphia and of Harrisburgh, at the head of whom is Simon Cameron, undertake to draw off Peter Martin and nominate a new man, one that the Order never thought of; and they do this too, at so late a day that the Order must either vote this new man or else be without a candidate.—Did ever political knavery exceed this? We venture the assertion that in the history of all the political parties of this country nothing can be found equal to this in political chicanery and downright rascality. The self-constituted Committee had not even the show of authority.—They were not appointed by the State Council or by any other responsible power. They were acting solely on their own responsibilities, and in defiance not only of the express vote of the Order, but of every principle of the Organization.

Will the Order in the State submit to this dictation on the part of reckless political gamesters? Will they quietly yield their regular candidate at the bidding of Simon Cameron and a few other kindred spirits, and vote for a man thrust upon them by such means?

This is even a more shameless piece of rascality than was practised last fall upon the same party. Mr. Mott was not a member of the Order. The officers of the State Council certified that he was a member, and the unsuspecting members of the Order voted for him. In that case they had the show of selecting their candidate. But now, their regular candidate is kicked out of the way, and this little clique of old political hunkers foist a new man upon them.

And what has become of the solemn obligation these men took, to conform to the will of the majority? In utter disregard of their oaths, these men repudiate the expressed will of the majority, and attempt to force a tool of their own upon the party.

Oh! never again let us hear about the purity of the K. N. Order, or the solemnity of its obligations!

Passmore Williamson.

The Republican Committee of Allegheny county have determined to adhere to the nomination of Passmore Williamson, and to treat that of Nicholson as if it had not been made. The tickets have been printed with Williamson's name at the head, and we have assurances from leading men in other parties that he will receive at least two thousand votes outside of the Republican ranks. The heart of the masses is with him, and they are not to be tricked out of an opportunity of manifesting sympathy for him.

Had time permitted a thorough canvass of the State, or was there now sufficient time to circulate tickets through the several counties, the vote that would be polled for that suffering martyr would astonish the mole-eyed politicians who burrow so diligently at Harrisburg.

The Nomination of Nicholson.—We learn that the "Americans" here do not receive the nomination of Nicholson kindly. They say that the committee which acted in the name of the Order at Harrisburg was self-constituted and totally without authority; that Peter Martin having been legally nominated there was no power to force him off; and that the self-constituted committee had no right to substitute any other candidate in his place. The "Bulletin," of Allegheny city, edited by a candidate on the "American" ticket, repudiates Nicholson, and runs up the name of Kimber Cleaver. A great many members of the Order say, now, that they have no candidate for Canal Commissioner, and they will therefore vote for Passmore Williamson.

Will Stick to Him.—We learn that the Republicans of Beaver, Crawford, Bradford, and other Northern counties, intend to stick to Passmore Williamson, and vote for him in spite of all arrangements to the contrary. This is right. The committee which undertook to force his withdrawal was a bogus one, and its acts unworthy a moment's regard. Passmore Williamson was nominated by the people; none but the people can withdraw him.

McKeesport.—There was quite an enthusiastic gathering of the Republicans at McKeesport on Saturday night. A correspondent gives a full account of it in another column.

Letter from Mr. White.—The following letter to the assistant editor was received yesterday from Mr. White:

Sewickley, Oct. 1, 1855.

In looking over the Gazette this morning I see you again notice that puerile and ridiculous slander, circulated by the Know Nothings, that Bishop O'Connor has some interest in or control over the Gazette. If the enemies of the Republican party and of the Gazette, choose to gratify their spleen and their prurient tastes, by originating or circulating such improbable stories, be assured they will recoil sooner or later on their own heads. They certainly can do me or the Gazette no harm among those who have known both for so long a time. With Bishop O'Connor I never passed a word in my life; there is nothing in common between us, either in religion or politics; as a Protestant I deny his Priestly and Episcopal authority and claims, of much as I deprecate and contemn the impudent pretensions over the mind of man which grow out of them, and as much as I despise the mummery which attempts to hide a hideous religious corruption under a round of ceremonies and a garb of sanctity.

I rejoice that you have unmasked the schemes of the Know Nothings in their attempt to force Passmore Williamson off the track. Such a piece of political villainy must forever sink the authors of it to the lowest deeps of political infamy. I am astonished at Judge Jessup; not so much at his conduct in the appointment of the Committee, as in his acting as a Republican, and presiding at a Republican State Convention, while secretly holding fellowship with another party. Such double-dealing may pass muster now, when the public mind seems to have lost its moorings on the subject of political rascality, but these sins will be remembered with interest when an appeal to Islamism is again obtained. From my sick room I view all public conduct with loathing and abhorrence. Let every Republican vote for Passmore Williamson, and listen to no suggestion to the contrary.

I am recovering but slowly. It will be some time, probably weeks, before I can expect again to hold daily communion with the readers of the Gazette, materials the direliest feelings of sympathy and regard. Yours truly,

D. N. WHITE.

To the Republicans of Pennsylvania.

At the mass Convention held in the city of Pittsburgh at which Passmore Williamson was enthusiastically nominated for Canal Commissioner, the President was authorized to appoint a State Committee consisting of one from each congressional district. No consultation was held with the friends of the Republican movement by that gentleman in choosing that committee; but it seems to have been hurriedly done at Harrisburgh on Tuesday last, from whence it was sent for announcement by telegraph to the Philadelphia papers. The committee announced in this unusual way was summoned in that dispatch to meet at Harrisburgh on the following Thursday. It was scarcely possible, under such a method of publicity to communicate to a majority of the members a notice of their appointment, and utterly impossible that they could get it in season to attend the meeting.

Judge of my surprise, moreover, on seeing the list of names of which the committee was composed, to find on it the names, as of but six or seven friends of the Republican movement, the remaining eighteen or nineteen being composed of men belonging to other and totally distinct political organizations, and many of them hostile to the Republican party. It was the first time in political history, I imagine, in which a cause was wrested from the hands of its friends and left at mercy of its enemies.

On Thursday night, Sept. 27th, only eleven out of the twenty-five members appeared at the meeting. Of these only four or five were identified with the Republican movement. They were immediately waited upon by Lemuel Todd, Simon Cameron and David Wilmot, who represented themselves as a sub-committee appointed by the American committee to request a conference. A similar communication was made to the Whig State committee also in session at the same time. Sub-committees were appointed by the general committees of the three parties, which conferred until near midnight without coming to any conclusions, the avowed object being to force the withdrawal of all the nominees for Canal Commissioner and unite upon a new one. A resolution was then adopted by the conference committee inviting all the committees to meet in joint assembly, for the purpose of accomplishing such an union.

A determined protest was put in at every step by the undersigned against the course of those assuming to act in the name of the Republican party. The right of less than a quorum of the committee to act in the premises, at all, was denied, as well as the participancy, in such a committee, of men who acknowledged themselves as not belonging to the Republican party; and their power, even if they were members in good faith of that party, to take any steps predicated upon the withdrawal of the name of Passmore Williamson without his consent was stoutly contested by several of the committee.

The result of the deliberations of the joint committees, after their balloting among themselves, was the choice of Thomas Nicholson as a candidate for Canal Commissioner; and efforts were at once set on foot to induce an outward compliance by the candidates previously before the people, with the forced withdrawal of their names.

The undersigned was as anxious as any one to promote harmony of action between the several parties in this State opposed to the Nebraska fraud, but denied the right of the Republican Committee appointed on Tuesday last, composed as it was of men not belonging to the party, and unauthorized, as it was, to act without a quorum being present, to take any steps binding upon the party. The apparent concurrence of that committee in the nomination of Mr. Nicholson, was not the real utterance of men qualified to speak for the party, and we therefore declined to be bound by, or participate in such a concurrence.

I have deemed it my duty to lay these facts before my Republican friends throughout the State, and to convey to them the expression of my conviction that they are not bound, in any manner, by the acts of men assuming to act in their name, but neither of them nor with them, politically. I have nothing to say against Mr. Nicholson; but regarding him as being brought forward in an unanteorized manner, and the time being too short for counteraction against the course adopted, it is for the Republican party to take such action in their respective localities, as will seem to them most proper.

In justice to Judge Jessup, it is proper to say that he stated that the appointment of the committee was delayed by his absence from the State, and that it was finally made at Harrisburg, on the day after his return, without an opportunity of consultation except with a few gentlemen at the seat of government, and that he had not a knowledge of the political position of all the gentlemen appointed. GEO. DARSIE.

Member of the Republican State Committee.

Pine Run Meeting.—A Republican meeting was held in the School House at Pine Run in Mifflin Township on Saturday afternoon. Quite a number of "Americans" and Democrats attended besides Republicans. The meeting was addressed by J. W. F. White. The strict attention and deep interest manifested by the persons present, indicated a willing disposition to understand the true position of the different parties on the great issue of the day, and the facts and arguments presented appeared to leave a most favorable impression in behalf of the Republican Party. The meeting was quite large and the best spirit prevailed throughout.

South Fayette Meeting.—The meeting in South Fayette township on Saturday afternoon was quite largely attended, and was addressed by Hon. Geo. Darsie, who was heard with the most respectful attention. There is a fine feeling prevalent in this township, and it will give a good account of itself at the election.

The regular quarterly meeting of the "American" State Council will be held at Carlisle today. The eastern members will do their best to force the nomination of Nicholson; but we learn that many of the western members go on to urge the nomination of Passmore Williamson. They prefer him to Nicholson, all the time.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Facts, without Comment—The Public SHOULD KNOW THEM—New York, Oct. 10, 1852.—Mrs. Hardey, No. 119 Suffolk street, writes us that she has been troubled with worms for some three years, and that she used one vial of Dr. McLane's Celebrated Vermifuge, which brought away over fifty large worms. Her usual good health immediately returned.

Mrs. Quigby, No. 182 East st., New York, under date of Nov. 25, 1853, writes us that she had a child which had been unwell for better than two months. She procured a bottle of McLane's Vermifuge and administered it. The child passed a large quantity of worms, and in a few days was as healthy as ever it had been. Parents, with such testimony before them, should not hesitate a moment in any reason to suspect worms, and close no time in procuring and administering Dr. McLane's Vermifuge. It never fails, and is perfectly safe.

☞Purchasers will be careful to ask for DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE, and take none else. All other Vermifuges, in comparison, are worthless. Dr. M'Lane's Vermifuge, and his celebrated liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in the United States, and from the sole proprietors.

From the Home Journal, New York.—"No article ever acquired so rapid celebrity and universal popularity as Lyon's Kathairon. To those who have used it (and who has not?), the reason is obvious; as it not only beautifies the Hair, but preserves and restores it at an unimpaired age of life. Its perfume and agreeable enlivening effect, should stamp it an indispensable article of the toilet." The above is but one of thousands of similar commendations—it stands unrivaled in the world. Be sure and ask for Lyon's Kathairon, as its unparalleled popularity has caused several unprincipled persons to put up worthless imitations, which they call by somewhat similar names. Sold everywhere, in large bottles for only 25 cents.

The Greatest Medical Discovery OF THE AGE.

Mr. Kennedy, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cure several of Humor, from the worst Scrofula to a common Pimple.

He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the most inveterate sore mouth in the human system.

Two to three bottles will cure the worst kind of blotches on the face.

Two to three bottles will cure the worst case of erysipelas.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonders of the day, as that a common weed growing in the pastures, and by all roadside stone walls, should cure every humor in the system; yet it is a fact, nevertheless. If you have a humor it has to start from within, and we have to draw it out by cutting cause and not symptom. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know its effects in every case. The most startling and the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year old; to old people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, wormy and sickly children, whom flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by a few bottle.

To those who are subject to a sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief to catarrh and the worst cases have been cured. I have been in the profession for years, have investigated the Botanic Gentlemen of this country, and know what I say, when I say it is sound, it work quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular results, but you need not be alarmed—they always sleep near 24 hours four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it. On the contrary, when that feeling is over, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that man ever listened to. No change of diet is necessary—eat the best you can get. I have likewise an herb which, when steamed in sweet oil, dissolves scrofulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price 50 cents. Price of the Medical Discovery $1 per bottle.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.—Adult, one table-spoonful pe day. Children over eight years, a dessert spoonful; children from five to eight years, a teaspoonful. As no directions can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels freely.

If Dr. KENNEDY gives personal attendance in bad cases he will charge.

To B. A. Fahnestock & Co.:—

Gentlemen—For five years past, I have used B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge for an anthelmintic in my practice; my attention was first called to it in a case where I had failed to dislodge worms with calomel, pink and cowhage. A bottle was obtained and used with desirable effect; since then I have prescribed it in the majority of patients, and in a large majority of cases with complete success. In one case a single bottle of the medicine brought away from one patient Ninety-Eight Worms. I have never known it to do harm, and I am inclined, to make this statement from an honest conviction that it is the most valuable Vermifuge yet known. Such is my confidence in its "worm-killing" powers, that I recommend it to other physicians in this section, and furnish them with the article. M. C. SAVAGE, M. D.

Joy for the Invalid.—We cut the following from the "Philadelphia Saturday Gazette," and re to commend our readers to pursue it carefully, and those suffering should not delay purchasing:

Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters.—This celebrated medicine is prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, at the imposing German Medicine Store, No. 418 Arch street, and is meeting unprecedented public attention, and the proprietor, who is a scientific physician, is selling immense quantities of it. The virtues of this remedy are so fully set forth in the various testimonials which have been in our advertising columns, that there is hardly any room left for us to speak of it. This much we may add—Of the long train of physical ills to which humanity is heir, there is none more distressing than the general derangement of the digestive functions in general, which never fails to accompany a diseased state of the liver. Headache, piles, languor, fretfulness, a bilious tongue, a morbid breath, loss of appetite—in short, an indescribable wretchedness of existence, are the unwelcome and unfailing attendants. These diseases, which have baffled the skill of the ablest Doctors, have been radically cured by Hoofland's German Bitters.

I have seen poor, puny, wormy and sickly children, whom flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by a few bottle.

To those who are subject to a sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief to catarrh and the worst cases have been cured. I have been in the profession for years, have investigated the Botanic Gentlemen of this country, and know what I say, when I say it is sound, it work quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular results, but you need not be alarmed—they always sleep near 24 hours four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it. On the contrary, when that feeling is over, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that man ever listened to. No change of diet is necessary—eat the best you can get. I have likewise an herb which, when steamed in sweet oil, dissolves scrofulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price 50 cents. Price of the Medical Discovery $1 per bottle.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.—Adult, one table-spoonful pe day. Children over eight years, a dessert spoonful; children from five to eight years, a teaspoonful. As no directions can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels freely.

If Dr. KENNEDY gives personal attendance in bad cases he will charge.

Sold, wholesale and retail, at Dr. KEYSER'S, 140 Wood street, corner of Virgin alley. sept28-d&w7

To B. A. Fahnestock & Co.:—

Gentlemen—For five years past, I have used B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge for an anthelmintic in my practice; my attention was first called to it in a case where I had failed to dislodge worms with calomel, pink and cowhage. A bottle was obtained and used with desirable effect; since then I have prescribed it in the majority of patients, and in a large majority of cases with complete success. In one case a single bottle of the medicine brought away from one patient Ninety-Eight Worms. I have never known it to do harm, and I am inclined, to make this statement from an honest conviction that it is the most valuable Vermifuge yet known. Such is my confidence in its "worm-killing" powers, that I recommend it to other physicians in this section, and furnish them with the article. M. C. SAVAGE, M. D.

Liver Disease.—Carter's Spanish Mixture as a remedy for liver disease, and the number of formidable evils connected with a disorganized state of that organ, is unrivalled.

Hundreds of certificates, from the highest sources of per sons living in the city of Richmond, Va., might be given of cures effected by Carter's Spanish Mixture. We have only room to refer to the extraordinary cure of Samuel M. Drinker, Esq., of the firm of Drinker & Merril, Booksellers, Richmond, Va., who was cured by two bottles of this Spanish Mixture, after three years suffering from disease of liver. He says its action on the blood is wonderful, more than all the medicine he had ever taken, and cheerfully recommends it to all. See advertisement.

SALE OF LOTS
IN THE CITY OF MORGANZA, VA.,
Mouth of Big Sandy River.

THE first sale of lots in the new City of Morganza, on the Virginia Point, will be held on TUESDAY, the 1st of November next.

To persons acquainted with the valley of the Ohio, little need be said in regard to the eligibility of this point as a place for a Manufacturing town. Its location is such as to give proprietors of lots the facilities of all business men, in addition to the healthy character of the location.

Morganza is situated at the junction of the Ohio and Big Sandy Rivers, (which for some miles in each year is the head of navigation on the Ohio), and the navigable waters of Sandy, Levisa and Big Sandy, and Lexington and Big
