COURTS OF ALLEGHENY COUNTY.

COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS.—Before Judges McClure, Adams and Boggs.

Tuesday, October 2, 1855.

The Court proceeded to take up the Criminal Calendar of the term.

The first case taken up was Commonwealth vs. Watcham Huskins. Surety of the peace, on oath of Mary Smith. Defendant discharged, the prosecutor being dead.

Commonwealth vs. Henry Coups, surety of the peace—on oath of Herman Rosenbaum. Bail of defendant forfeited for non-appearance and he ordered to pay the costs.

Commonwealth vs. John Kunsler. Indictment assault and battery with intent to kill, on oath of Constable William Hare of the borough of Birmingham. This is the case an account of which was given in Tuesday's Gazette. The evidence offered was pretty much as detailed in that issue of our paper.

The Jury rendered a verdict of "guilty" and the prisoner was remanded to jail.

Commonwealth vs. Thomas Graham. Indictment, assault and battery with intent to kill, on oath of Moses McKinney. These parties were engaged in an affray at the Perry Hotel, about three weeks since, an account of which appeared in the Gazette. The defendant plead guilty of simple assault and battery. He was sentenced to three months imprisonment in the County Jail.

Commonwealth vs. Adam Naylor. Indictment, assault and battery, on oath of Mary Naylor, his wife. Found guilty and sentenced to one month's imprisonment in the County Jail.

Commonwealth vs. John Wells. Two Indictments for assault and battery on oath of Mr. and Mrs. G. Cattermole. The affair occurred in Alderman Heiseley's office. Mr. Wells stated that the prosecutors had interfered with him in the discharge of his duty as a constable while executing a landlord's warrant on a third party.

Defendant plead guilty, and sentenced to pay a fine of 62½ cents and the costs. The Court remarked that if people would interfere with officers in the discharge of their duties they must take what they got.

Commonwealth vs. Mary Meredith. Charge, surety of the peace, on oath of Mary Ann Shaw. This was a trifling neighbors' quarrel. Each party sentenced to pay their own costs.

Commonwealth vs. Mary Grouse. Indictment, assault and battery, on oath of Joanna McCartney. The assault was committed on the second of July last. The prosecutor is a pretty little girl, ten years of age. Her mother testified that the defendant pinched her child very severely on the arm and struck her with a brick on the breast.

The Jury rendered a verdict of not guilty.

AFTERNOON SESSION.—Court convened at two o'clock.

Commonwealth vs. David Hutchinson. Two indictments, for assault and battery and A. & B. with intent to kill, on oath of Mitchell A. Remley.

Commonwealth vs. Mitchell A. Remley. Indictment, assault and battery, on oath of David Hutchinson.

These parties reside in the 8th Ward. On the 6th of September, after ten o'clock at night, as Mr. Remley testified, he was aroused from bed by a great noise from dogs; went down on to his porch; saw the dogs; picked up a piece of coal and threw it at them; was just going in when he heard Hutchinson's voice crying "old blind eye, don't throw at my dogs." Hutchinson continued abusing him, and shot off a gun or pistol—the second time it snapped. Remley thought he heard a ball strike. The next night he met Hutchinson, who pushed him off the side walk. After making information against H., he found a bullet on his porch, and a slight indentation on a brick of the wall.

Mr. Hutchinson testified that when he came out on the night in question, he found Mr. Remley was in his, Mr. H.'s, garden. He remarked to his wife that they were at his peaches again. Remley was throwing at the dogs and when Hutchinson came out, Remley commenced abusing him and threw coal at him. He said he would kill the dogs. H. then went up stairs and told his wife he would shoot his pistol off and try to scare him away. Fired it off once and pointed it towards the river; the second time it snapped. Hutchinson had to get into his house to avoid being hit while Remley was throwing at him.

Mr. Bruce addressed the Court for Mr. Hutchinson and Mr. Flanegin for the Commonwealth. The Court charged the Jury and ordered them to bring in a sealed verdict.

Commonwealth vs. Patrick Kelly. Charge, surety of the peace, on oath of James Duffy.—Prosecutor ordered to pay the costs.

Commonwealth vs. John Finny. Charge, surety of the peace, on oath of James Duffy. Prosecutor ordered to pay the costs.

Commonwealth vs. James Duffy, charge, surity of the peace, on oath of John Finny. Prosecutor ordered to pay the costs.

Commonwealth vs. James Duffy. Charge, suits of the place, on oath of Patrick Kelly. On hearing, Court ordered Patrick Kelley to pay the costs.

Commonwealth vs. William McKee. Charge, surety of the peace, on oath of William Gibson. Recognizance of prosecutor forfeited and he ordered to pay the costs.

Court adjourned.

DISTRICT COURT.—Before Judge Williams. John A. and Wm. J. Mills. Action of covenant for ground rents. Trial proceeds.

BODY RAISED AND MONEY RECOVERED.—Our readers will recollect the drowning off the steamer Gipsey, some two or three weeks since of a Washman named William Edmonds, who was supposed to have had a sum of money upon his person. The body was recovered sometime after, a Coroner's inquest was held, and the body buried at a point above Wheeling. On Saturday last, a man named John Owens, and William Rowlands, a brother-in-law of the deceased, went to the grave, and on consultation with a magistrate, concluded to raise and search the body. They did so, and found a pocket in the drawers of the deceased, which contained $163. The money was left in the hands of the magistrate, to be restored to the lawful owners. It will be recollected that at the time of Edmond's death, there were some surpisions that foul play had been used to obtain the money. The above facts place the matter in its correct light.

FINES FOR SELLING LIQUOR ON SUNDAY.—The Secretary of the Board of Directors of the Poor acknowledge the receipt of the following moneys from magistrates, collected for breaches of the Sunday Liquor Law:

Ald. Donaldson, of the Fourth Ward, April 11, 1855	$25 00
Mayor Vols, May 8, 1855; from John Fleck, two fines	50 00
Mayor Vols, July 9, 1855, from Wm. George	25 00

Mr. Fortune has received nothing from any Alderman, as fines for drunkenness, and nothing for any fines whatever from any other Alderman.—Dispatch.

ADDITIONAL APPLICATIONS FOR LICENSES.—In addition to the applications for liquor license made in the Court of Quarter Sessions, as published in the Gazette of Tuesday, the following were made yesterday:

Lewis Cockshoot, rectifier and wholesale dealer on Diamond Alley. By Mr. Snowden.

H. Voskamp, Third Ward, grocer and liquor dealer. By C. Shaler & Co.

R. & A. C. Duncan, rectifiers and wholesale dealers, Liberty street. By Wilson McCandless.

PROSECUTIONS have been commenced by the County Treasurer against Messrs. Cowling Swauger and Maul of Allegheny, for the State Licenses, for keeping ten pin alleys. These gentlemen have paid their lice ses to the Allegheny City Treasurer on his demand, and they are now sued by the County Treasurer for the licenses. The prosecution is not to recover double fines, but to decide by the proper court whether the City or County Treasurer have the right to collect State Licenses.

Strangers visiting the Fair, and wanting to purchase any kind of Dry Goods before returning home are referred to the notice of Murphy & Burchfield, who have just received a large supply of new goods, including handsome styles of Dress goods. Cloaks, and almost everything else in the Dry Goods line. Their store is at the northeast corner of Fourth and Market streets.

Mr. JNO MILLER, the Carrier for Allegheny, will please call at the Counting Room of this office.

THERE are but two or three licensed beer houses in Allegheny and they are the only drinking places in that city now open. In Birmingham, the shops are all closed. Throughout the county, also, as we learn, the liquor dealers have unanimously obeyed the law.

DAVID JONES and John Hively, whom we mentioned as having acted so disorderly on Smithfield street, on Saturday, were committed to jail by Mayor Vols, on Monday, for thirty days each, in default of a fine of $25 and costs.

THE nine individuals who were arrested on Saturday for malicious mischief on Troy Hill, had a hearing before Mayor Adams on Tuesday and were discharged for want of evidence.

THE Ladies' Relief Society, of Allegheny, holds its Annual Meeting in Excelsior Hall, Allegheny, on Thursday evening. Appropriate exercises will take place.

MORGANZA!

City at the Junction of Three Rail Roads.

SALE OF LOTS
IN THE CITY OF MORGANZA, VA.,
Mouth of Big Sandy River.

THE first sale of lots in the new City of Morganza, on the Virginia Point, will be held on THURSDAY, the 1st of November next.

To persons acquainted with the City of the Ohio, little need be said in regard to the eligibility of this point as a site for a Manufacturing City. The decision of the proprietor does but fulfil the predictions of all business men familiar with the subject for the last twenty years.

Morganza is situated at the junction of the Ohio and Big Sandy River, (which for some miles in each year is the head of navigation on the Ohio,) and the Kanawha and Ohio, Maysville and Big Sandy, and Lexington and Big Sandy Railroads, now in progress of construction, at a location at the junction of two navigable rivers and three important Railroads as yet building, which combined, presents a combination of advantages equaled by very few places in the nation. The distance by water from the mouth of the Ohio River, 150 miles above Cincinnati, 220 below Wheeling, 310 below Pittsburgh, 390 miles from Richmond, and 810 from Washington, will furnish facilities for transportation and travel possessed by no place in the heart of the West. From much of the manufacturing and travel of the Ohio must seek shorter routes to the Atlantic cities, while the producers of an extensive region of country adjoining will seek shipment for Southern and Western Markets at this point, by the Covington and Ohio Railroad in connection with the Virginia Central Railroad, as well as the James River and Kanawha Canal. We, in common with the whole Ohio Valley trade, will soon be placed in direct communication with all the large cities of the Atlantic Seaboard, by a route much shorter and cheaper than any yet projected. The other two roads terminating here will place us in connection with the neighboring States of Kentucky and Ohio, and with the Western portion of the Union.

From examination of the above facts, we refer to the statements and figures set forth in the recent publication of Lieutenant Mansfield, late Inspector General of the corps of Civil Engineers for the last five years. In the ability to build up and support manufactures, and to establish an extensive trade with the surrounding country, Morganza may safely challenge competition with any other Western location. The mouth of Big Sandy River will soon be capable it already to command the large and increasing trade of that river, as well as that of the Kanawha, in Western Virginia and the adjoining States; the Agricultural and Mineral resources of which are unrivalled by any proper section adjacent, are as yet not half developed. Lying in the midst of the great Coal and Iron region of Virginia, Kentucky and Ohio, Morganza must be thirty miles from it. Morganza is wanting in no essential element of prosperity.

The site is admirably located for building purposes. The Ohio River bottom is 4-5 of a mile wide and ascends at the rate of 6 feet per mile as it recedes from the Ohio River. The location is a healthy one; the latitude and climate corresponding with those of Louisville, Ky. The title is indisputable. The 1000 acres in which the lots are for sale, all of which (except 40 acres) is the property of the Morgan family for 80 years.

The terms of sale will be liberal. One-fifth to be cash, the remainder in from one to seven years, (at the option of the purchaser,) bearing interest, payable annually. Any purchaser obligating himself to erect substantial buildings upon the same within three years from the date of purchase.

A Lithograph of the City, as laid out, may be seen on the premises, and at the office of the undersigned.

MORGANZA, Sept. 27th, 1855.—oct2-2d&4tw7 R. MORGAN.

COMMITTEE OF ARBITRATION, FOR OCTOBER.—GEO. W. CASS, V. P.—ISAIAH DICKEY, T. B. UPDIKE, SAMUEL DILWORTH, J. B. CANFIELD.

REVIEW OF THE PITTSBURGH MARKET.

For the Week ending October 2, 1855.

There is no new feature to notice in business. The fall trade has set in with a steady flow, but without much extra pressure, and our merchants are enjoying a very fine season.

The rivers remain in good order for medium sized boats, and breadstuffs and produce are coming forward quite liberally, the consignments for the east being large. The receipts of flour and grain up to Monday night, since September 1st, were as follows: Flour, 69,849 bbls; Wheat, 197,437 bus; Rye, 29,121 bus. The exports eastward were, Flour, 69,926 bbls; Wheat, 28,787 sks; Rye, 9,707 sks. Of the flour and wheat now arriving there are large consignments from St. Louis, this being found to be the speediest and cheapest route to the east. Up to this period, last year, the receipts of flour were, 5104 bbls; wheat, 18,270 bus; and Rye, 5,553 bus; the exports were, flour, 2309 bbls; wheat, none.

The outward freighting business is not so large as usual at this season, owing to the large amounts sent forward during the summer when navigation was good.

The demand for manufactures continues steady, and all branches of manufacturing trade are now busily employed. The iron and glass factories are especially active.

The brisk demand for breadstuffs to ship to Europe, which is now prevailing in all the eastern cities, is likely to create a very active forwarding season. Large as the surplus of the late crop may be, there will be sufficient demand for its description; and although the poor will not find bread much cheaper this year than last, the country will gain immensely in the abundant return for its products. We shall be able to wipe out a large amount of our indebtedness to Europe, and turn the balance of trade in our favor. We have already referred to the large shipments eastward through this city. The Cincinnati Commercial says:

The amount of Grain going forward to the seaboard is already immensely large, and is rapidly increasing. In the fore part of this week there were over three-quarters of a million bushels of wheat afloat on the lakes, bound to Buffalo and Oswego. In addition to this, the supplies from the South continue very large, and from Georgia and Tennessee heavy shipments continue to be made to Augusta, Atlanta, Chattanooga, &c., as the railways possess the facilities for transportation, the amount brought into this city will be still larger, as the supplies are immense, and all that is needed is means of transportation to bring them forward. From Kentucky wheat is coming forward rapidly, and the means of transportation will permit a much larger amount than is now offering for shipment from this market, that railway freights have advanced twenty-five per cent within a few days.

The Cincinnati Commercial of Monday, says:

There is an active demand for wheat at $1,82@$1,87 for prime Red and White, and the supply is not equal to the demand. We heard of a sale of 10ogs to-day for early delivery at $2 90 per cwt. net, indicating a further advance. The banking houses continue to draw on the East at ½ premium, but the demand is limited. The money market is quiet, with a very moderate demand. Sight exchanges on New Orleans may be quoted at ½ premium for bankers funds.

With respect to the Hog trade, the Cincinnati Price Current says.

A strong desire still exists to purchase hogs for early delivery, but few have been made within the week at $3,90 @ 4 per cwt. for November delivery, and now holders ask $4. For December delivery, we hear of no transactions—holders ask $5, and purchases could not be made below this rate. The stock of old pork and bacon in this market is very small, and before the new comes in will be entirely exhausted. This will be the case, it is supposed, in all the leading pork markets of the West. In connection with the advices from England by the last steamer, leads to the conclusion that high rates will be obtained for all the meat brought into market early. Contracts are being made in Indiana at $3,50 @ 3,75 net, for delivery in the latter part of December and the 1st of January, and in Illinois at $3.

The receipts of packers are paying $5,50 @ 5,75 net for good beeves, but the sew mostly held at $5,75, but at this rate are freely offered for early delivery.

The same high figures are offered in Madison and Louisville, and the Madison Courier says that 25,000 hogs have been engaged there at Cincinnati rates.

The value of Specie entered at New York during the week, shows a slight increase in dry goods and a falling off in general merchandize, as compared with the corresponding week last year. Annexed are the comparative figures as given by the Journal of Commerce:

For the week—	1854	1855

General Merchandize,	2,051,062	1,542,941
Total	$3,448,195	$3,164,432
Total thirty-seven weeks,	142,222,650	104,853,794

The value of merchandize exported during the week amounted to $1,357,470, against $809,479 in the corresponding week last year. Increase about 50 ¶ cent.

The contraction of the currency in Illinois still continues, in consequence of the c ntest going on between the owner of some Georgia banks and the Chicago banks. The Chicago Tribune states that with the exception of the Marine bank, there is not one of them that dares let a dollar see the light.

The Merchants' and Mechanics' bank, bank of America, Chatham bank, Commercial bank, and Exchange bank, have withdrawn their notes and the Phœnix, Farmers' and Union, and city banks were forced to succumb and go into liquidation. The Marine bank, with a capital of $300,000 has a circulation of only $74,000—the remainder is driven in as fast by the same paper which they issue afloat. The same is true of most of the other institutions in the State. The bank of Galena, with a large capital, gave up the fight long ago—its paper being sent home in as fast as it was put out. On the other hand, these Illinois bankers are steadily forcing home the notes of the Atlanta and Interior bank, which form the staple of Illinois currency, and reports are quite prevalent that the Atlanta has suspended payment.

Of the money market in New York the Tribune of Monday says:

The money market was comparatively small to day in the street, although the demand was still active at high rates, but not the extreme rates of the early portion of the week. Some parties have left town, and the impression is general in the street that the Bank Statement of Monday will show a considerable contraction in Loans, Deposits and Specie. The actual decrease in loans is estimated by some parties as high as two millions of dollars, although the average may not show as much. The specie line is generally placed at ten and a half millions, a large proportion of which is expected to be exported to the Southern interior. We have been receiving gold within a few days from Boston, Philadelphia and Baltimore, but not to any important extent. The Nicaragua boat brings over a million of dollars on the usual days, and the Panama boat will probably have as much more. The shipments of the week coming to New York, including the Nicaragua boat to-day, and the Fremont boat on Saturday is not a favorite boat with shippers.
