PITTSBURGH GAZETTE

PUBLISHED BY D. E. WHITE.

PITTSBURGH:

THURSDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 4, 1855.

A Room in the Gazette Buildings for Rent. A WELL LIGHTED ROOM, on the second floor, and over 40 feet square, in the Gazette Buildings, on Fifth Street, is for rent for one, or a term of years. It is suitable for a Bookbinder, Engraver, or Lithographer's Press, or a Newspaper Office. sep15-tf

To Advertisers.—Neither the Editorial Room or Printing Establishment of the Daily Gazette, are opened on Sunday. Advertisers who desire their notices to appear in the paper on Monday morning, will please hand them in before 9 o'clock, on Saturday.

Pittsburgh Weekly Gazette.—The extensive circulation of our Weekly Gazette offers to our business men a most desirable medium of making their business known. Our circulation is between four and five thousand, reaching almost every merchant, manufacturer and shop-keeper in Western Pennsylvania, and Eastern Ohio.

Advance Payments.—Hereafter no subscription will be taken for the Daily or Weekly Gazette, unless payment is made in advance. Wherever the time is up to which the subscription is paid, the paper will be invariably stopped, unless the subscription is renewed by advance payment. All transient advertisements, of every description, will be required to be paid in at once. The only exceptions will be where special monthly or yearly contracts are made. sep1-tdaw

These meetings will be addressed by some one or more of the following gentlemen: Messrs. John P. Penney, Geo. Darsie, Wm. M. Stokes, R. C. Wilson, H. D. Gazzam, Thos. L. Kloh, A. W. E. Waltz.

Republican Meeting To-Night.

A Mass Republican Meeting will be held to-night, at 7 o'clock, at the yard of the American Hotel, Penn street.

The meeting will be addressed by Messrs. Darsie, Gazzam, Penney, and other gentlemen.

We hope every friend of the cause will try to be on hand. Let us have a demonstration worthy of the occasion. And let all who wish to be enlightened on the principles and policy of the Republican party, attend, and give our advocates a hearing. The speeches will well repay the listener.

PARTY NAMES.

The Republican is called a new party, yet the name is as old as our constitution. There was a Republican Party at the very origin of our Government; in fact, all men called themselves Republicans then. Mr. Jefferson started a new party under the name of Democratic, in opposition to John Adams, who was elected by the same party that elected Washington and who held precisely the same principles.

The Democrats claim Thomas Jefferson as the father of their party and profess to advocate the same principles he did. But in everything except the name, they are directly opposite.—Jefferson was in favor of guarding and protecting the rights of the States against encroachments of the General Government. He feared that the General Government and its officers would assume far much power and thus weaken the sovereignty of the States and oppress the individual citizens of the States. He thought the President of the United States had too much power and patronage, and there was great danger of his becoming a kind of Dictator and our Government degenerating into a one man power.

Jefferson was in favor of a Protective Tariff, of internal improvements, of a strict construction of all the powers granted to Congress by the Constitution. He was also opposed to the spread of Slavery and drafted the memorable Ordinance of 1787 by which Slavery was forever prohibited in all the Territory of the Confederacy. In all these respects the Democratic party of this day stands directly opposed to Mr. Jefferson.

The Republican Party is much more in accordance with the principles of Thomas Jefferson.—If he were now living and could read the papers and speeches of the day, he would pronounce the Federal Democracy the rankest kind of Federalism. He would denounce in his measured terms the usurpations of the President, of the Federal Judiciary and of Congress. He would find realized his worst fears. He would see our whole nation controlled by one man, and every power of Congress and of the United States Courts perverted in order to extend and perpetuate slavery. The individual States powerless, and even the State Courts impotent to rescue one of its own citizens from the arbitrary and tyrannical edict of a Federal Judge.—With the Democracy that advocates and sustains such a state of things, he would have no sympathy. He would utterly repudiate it. The Republican party, organized to carry out the immortal truth that he proclaimed in the Declaration of Independence, that "all men are created equal," and to enact the great Ordinance of Freedom that he drew up in 1787, would meet his cordial approbation, and doubtless would receive his vote.

No More Slave States.—The great principle which lies at the bottom and forms the basis of the Republican movement is NO NEW thing. It is the same principle which Jefferson proclaimed in 1787, before our present Constitution was formed. Then all men regarded slavery as an evil and thought it would not be extended beyond the limits where it then existed. The celebrated ordinance of 1787 secured all the territory of the confederacy forever to freedom. The Constitution was framed and adopted with this fact distinctly in view. No one then supposed that there ever would be another slave State unless it might be by the division of the slave States then in the confederacy.

The first slave State formed out of free territory was Missouri, which was a part of the Louisiana purchase. When she applied for admission into the Union, with a slave constitution, she met with a strong opposition, and at first was refused. Eventually a Compromise was effected by which Missouri was admitted as a slave State, with a tacit understanding that one more slave State, Arkansas, should be admitted afterwards, but that was to be the last. All after that were to be free States. Here was a slight departure from the original policy of the government. It was forced upon the country under peculiar circumstances and acquiesced in because it was considered to be a final settlement of the Slave Question.

All the leading statesmen of the land, with a few exceptions among the southern States, always, until within a few years past, contended for freedom in all our territories. Among the last sentiments ever uttered by Henry Clay in the Senate of the United States, was an earnest protest against the spread of slavery into free territory. He used the following emphatic and eloquent language:

"I repeat it, sir, I never can and never will, and no earthly power can make me vote, directly or indirectly, to spread slavery over the territory where it does not exist. Never while reason holds her seat in my brain—never while my heart sends the vital fluid through my veins—never!"

The Republican Party therefore occupy no new ground; they are not advocating a mere abolition sentiment. They take the ground occupied by the fathers of the Republic. They wish to bring back our government to its original policy. They stand where Henry Clay stood, and where all the wisest and best men of the nation have ever stood.

The Union, the other morning, copied our articles upon the political rascality lately practiced at Harrisburg, and thereupon the Journal counts out a coalition between us. If this be so, the Union is in fault; for it is but a few days since a like coalition was observable between it and the Journal in the copying into the latter paper of its scathing articles upon the democrats on the Know Nothing ticket.

Sale of the Russian Fleet Destroyed at Sebastopol.—According to the Courier des Etats Unis, the Russian flag counted at Sebastopol, in the month of September, 1854, seventeen ships, 5 of 120 guns, the remainder of 84 ships, 5 of 100 guns, five corvettes, nine briggs of sixty guns, five corvettes of sixty guns, and eighty-two, or brigs, sloops and steamers, of inferior rank. In all 106 ships, carrying 2,200 guns. This colossal armament was destroyed by the Russians themselves, to prevent it from falling into the hands of their enemies.

Gen. Moorehead claims, we understand, to be an anti-Nebraska man, and that he left the democratic party because of its position on the Nebraska question.

We do not know how this strikes other people; but to us it sounds odd and inexplicable.

It is now only a year since Gen. Moorhead was a candidate for Assembly upon the regular democratic ticket. This was after the Nebraska bill had passed, and after his party had taken a decided position in favor of that bill. He ran as a Nebraska man, and was voted for as such.—He stood upon the democratic platform, and tacitly, if not openly, endorsed that platform, thus acknowledging his approval of the repeal of the Missouri Compromise and the passage of the Kansas-Nebraska bill. He supported Gov. Bigler with ardor, knowing that that gentleman was an adherent of the National Administration and the friend of its distinguishing measures, including the Nebraska bill; and he contributed all his aid to secure a triumph to his party which would have been accepted every where as an endorsement of President Pierce and the course of his administration in the Kansas business.

All this Gen. Moorhead did with his eyes open. The infamous breach of faith involved in the repeal of the Missouri Compromise was then fresh in public remembrance. The indignant outcry of the people against it was ringing through the land, and every voice that could be uplifted in condemnation of it was invoked on every hand. The Democratic party threw itself into the breach to defend the administration, and Gen. Moorhead became its candidate upon that distinct issue. Gov. Bigler shouldered the dangerous load imposed upon him by the President, and Gen. Moorhead sustained him.—If ever mortal man committed himself unequivocally to the support of any measure, Gen. Moorhead did to the Nebraska bill.

But this is not all. A year has since elapsed, in all which time that measure has been a prominent theme of discussion; and during that time, its legitimate fruits, mobs, border warfare, piratical irruptions into Kansas, and the destruction of all the rights of the settlers, have been duly reaped. The experiment it involved upon popular credulity and northern forbearance, has resulted in the overthrow, so far as Kansas is concerned, of all that is held dear by American citizens. And yet, in all that time, the public has not heard one word of condemnation from Gen. Moorhead. So far as outward manifestations go, he has been an unconcerned spectator of outrages that would have disgraced the veriest despotism on earth.

But Gen. Moorhead becomes the candidate of a party making anti-slavery professions; and now, he tells us that the repeal of the Missouri Compromise was all wrong; that the Nebraska bill was a villainy; that Gen. Pierce, Douglass and the Democratic party are responsible for it; and that, therefore, he has left the Democratic party.

We are glad to find that Gen. Moorhead, even at this late day, has arrived at the conviction that the extension of Slavery, under a Republican government, is all wrong; but we would like to know why he could not see all this before!—Why should a man of his intelligence and means of information be able to discover these things only now? How did it happen that, with all the lights before him that he has now, he took an entirely different view of the matter last year? and why should he have been so silent or unobservant during the twelve months intervening? Is a Know Nothing nomination such a wondrous eye salve that it can make even the blind to see?

We repeat, it is a matter of gratulation that men, even at an advanced period of a controversy, arrive at something like correct conclusions; but the anti-Nebraska men of the country would do wisely, we think, to put all such upon their probation. At the crisis of a struggle, the van is not the place for new recruits.—Tried soldiers are needed to lead in the work of freedom; and the campaign, we doubt not, will be long enough and arduous enough to test to its full extent the ardor exhibited by the new enlistments. Let all such bide their time.—Confidence is a plant of slow growth; and a single speech from the hustings, on the eve of an election, is scarcely sufficient to obliterate the past, much less secure the future.

The English Harvest.—The London correspondent of the Philadelphia American, writing on the 14th ult., says:

"The harvest has been excellent, and no matter what is said, considerably beyond the average; it has been got in by the aid of splendid weather, in the finest possible condition. The intelligence that the harvest in the United States has been unprecedently great has not been thrown away, and thereby large arrivals of foreign wheat may be expected, and the price will go down with a hop, skip and jump. Millers and bakers are alive to this, and the supporters of prices do not gain much by their move, for purchasers are of a very limited kind."

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Facts, without Comment—The Public SHOULD KNOW THEM.—New York, Oct. 10, 1853.—Mrs. Hardey, No. 119 Suffolk street, writes us that she had been troubled with worms for many years, and that she was cured by the use of Dr. McLane's Celebrated Worm Syrup, which brought away over fifty large worms. Her usual good health immediately returned.

Mrs. Quigley, No. 182 Bleecker st., New York, under date of New York, 1855, writes us that she had a child which had been unwell for better than two months. She procured a bottle of McLane's Vermifuge and administered it. The child passed a large quantity of worms, and in a few days was as well and healthy as ever it had been. These, with many testimony before them, should not hesitate when there is any reason to suspect worms, and those we time in procuring and administering Dr. McLane's Vermifuge. It never fails, and is perfectly safe.

Purchasers will be careful to ask for DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE, and take none else. All other Vermifuges, in comparison, are worthless. Dr. M'Lane's Vermifuge also his celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in the United States, and from the sole proprietors.

Also for sale by the sole proprietors, FLEMING BROTHERS, Druggists, and by R. KIDD & CO., No. 69 Wood st. sep22-dawly

A Remedy for Dyspepsia.—Boerhave's Holland Bitters, is now the most simple, delightful and effectual remedy for dyspepsia before the public. Many of our most worthy citizens testify to its efficacy. To persons subject to nervous and debilitated feelings, it is a valuable medicine. See advertisement relating to directions; it cannot fail to give relief.—Pittsburgh Journal.

Second-hand Packing Boxes.—I have on hand a large quantity of Second-hand Packing Boxes which I will sell at less than the cost of material.

GEO. H. KEYSER, 140 Wood street.

The Greatest Medical Discovery OF THE AGE.

Mr. Kennedy, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures every kind of disease, from the worst Scrofula to a common Pimple.

He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and has failed to accomplish in two cases (both thinker haters.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Scrofula in the system.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of scrofula.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all kinds of the evils.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

Two bottles will cure worst case of chicken pox.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most severe cases of rheumatism.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

Nothing looks so improvable to those who have in vain tried all the 'wonderful' medicines of the day, as that a common weed, growing in the pastures, and about our dooryards, should prove every human in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There are no ifs nor ands, buts or ha's about it; nothing stands in the way; it speaks for itself—I know its effects in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year old, to old people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, weary looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to a sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief to catarrh and dizziness. Some who have been costive for years, have by it been regulated by it. Where the body is bound, it work's gently way, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very slight or no pain, but you must not be alarmed—they always sleep easy in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it. On the contrary, when that feeling is gone you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that man ever listened to. No change of diet is ever necessary—eat the best you can get. I have likewise an herb, which, when combined in some oil, destroys scrofulous swellings of the neck and under the ears. Price 50 cents. Price of the Medical Discovery $1 per bottle.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.—Adult, one tea-spoonful per day. Children over eight years, one dessert spoonful; children from two to eight years, one spoonful. Any direction can be varied to suit the peculiar circumstances. Take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

"No article ever acquired so rapid celebrity and universal popularity as Lyon's Kathairon. To those who have used it (and who have'nt) the reason is obvious. As it not only beautifies the Hair, but preserves and restores it in an advanced age of life. Its perfume and agreeable cultivating effects, at once stamp it an indispensable article of the toilet." The above is but one of thousands of similar commendations—it stands unrivaled as a toilet article. Beware and ask for Lyon's Kathairon; as its unparalleled popularity has caused several unprincipled persons to put up valueless imitations, which they call by names that sim. ilar names. To R. L. Fahnestock & Co.

GENTLEMEN—For five years past, I have used D. A Fahnestock's Vermifuge for an anthelmintic in my practice, and am free to say that I have found it to be what it has failed to dislodge worms with calomel, pink and cordials. A bottle was obtained and used with desirable effect; since then I have prescribed it for hundreds of patients, and in a large majority of cases with complete success. In one case a single bottle of the medicine brought away from one patient Ninety-Eight Worms. I have never known it to be known, but I intend to make the statement from an honest conviction that it is the most valuable Vermifuge yet known. Such is my confidence in its "worm-killing" power, that I recommend it to each of my physicians in this section, and they concur with me entirely.

Joy for the Invalid.—We cut the following from the "Philadelphia Saturday Gazette," and recommend our readers to peruse it carefully, and those suffering should not rest satisfied with anything short of purchasing it and trying it:

DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.—This celebrated medicine, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, at the Imposing German Medicine Store, No. 120 Arch street, is, without any unprecedented public attention, and the proprietor, who is a scientific physician, is selling it among the people at a very reasonable price. We have had the most gratifying results as to persons who are really desirous of availing of the indulgence in intoxicating beverages, this alone will be a great help. Sold at 21 per bottle at the Drug Store of Dr. GEO. H. KEYSER. No. 140 Wood street, corner of Virgin alley, sign of the Golden Mortar. se15-1dw7

Liver Disease.—Carter's Spanish Mixture as a remedy for liver disease, and the number of favorable certificates presented with a disregarded state of that organ, is unrivalled.

Hundreds of certificates, from the highest sources of per sons living in the city of Richmond, Va., might be given to the public, if desired by Carter's Spanish Mixture. We have only room to refer to the extraordinary cure of Samuel M. Drinker, Esq., of the firm of Drinker & Merrit, Booksellers, Richmond, Va., who was cured by two bottles of Carter's Spanish Mixture, after three years suffering from disease of liver. He says he-sates on the blood is wonderful, better than all the medicine he ever took, and cheerfully recommends it to all. See advertisements.
