WASHINGTON, 3d Oct. 1855.

Sir—My attention was called this afternoon, to an editorial in Monday's Gazette headed "Political Tricks at Harrisburgh."

This article contains so much that is calculated—I do not say intended—to mislead public opinion at this critical moment, that I feel constrained to notice it.

How Mr. White became acquainted with "the sayings and doings" of the various committees it is not for me to inquire. With his strictures upon the composition of the Republican Committee and "the intrigues and manœuvres," preparatory to the assembling of the committee, I have nothing to do. But with the suppression of the true and the suggestion of the untrue, I never deal honestly.

In the first place, the fact is suppressed that at the very opening of the negotiation, the first proposition of the American Committee was, a union upon a new man, upon the single issue of opposition to the Nebraska iniquity.

Again, the truth is suppressed that the nomination of Mr. Nicholson was made by the Whig Committee to the other Committees; and the untruth is asserted that "an onslaught was made on the Whig Committee in behalf of Thomas Nicholson."

The simple truth is (and I know every gentleman of the Whig Committee will confirm what I say) that when we were worried out with our individual efforts at consorted action, and after casting five or six ballots for Mr. Cochran, and a great deal of "cross firing," when we were casting about over the State for an unexceptionable man, I suggested Mr. Nicholson. I knew him to be capable and honest." I believed him to be, from his associations in Beaver county, an anti-Know Nothing, and quite sure was I that in "the olden time," he was a straight forward reliable, Whig. I proposed his name in entire good faith, without conference with a human being.

By what authority the Gazette asserts that "the intrigueurs" were resolved to force either Judge Jessup or Mr. Nicholson upon the conference, I know not. But I do know that Judge Jessup's name was often up, Mr. Nicholson was not mentioned in connection with the nomination during the six mortal hours of discussion and debate, until he was proposed by myself.

Again, the truth is suppressed that Mr. Nicholson denied all connection with the American Order, and the untruth is suggested in that "he refused to stand up before the committee and say it."

The truth is, Mr. Nicholson did in the most solemn manner disavow to me, in presence of another member of the committee (Mr. Fox,) all connection, past and present, with the order, and of this disavowal I made known to the whole committee. The suppressions I had respecting Mr. Nicholson at Harrisburgh have been confirmed since I returned home.

Mr. McDaniel, the Whig, Anti Know Nothing candidate for the Legislature, has received letters from Mr. Nicholson, within the last three months, expressing entire sympathy with his (McD's) views upon the subject.

Gentlemen here, outside of the order, who have known Mr. Nicholson from his boyhood, assure me that he is incapable of falsehood. Mr. Henderson, who knew him well, has implicit faith in his declarations, and will use his best efforts to secure his election.

Let me say in conclusion that, should Mr. Nicholson be defeated, and the administration claim a triumph in Pennsylvania, whatever of blame may attach to the Gazette for its defection, my skirts shall be clear. R. R. REED.

The uncourteous tone of this communication toward the Gazette would be a sufficient reason for excluding it from our columns and refusing all notice of it; but we give it that we may show Dr. Reed that he has been both unjust and unfair while charging those sins upon us.

And in the first place he knows well enough how this paper "became acquainted with the sayings and doings of the various committees;" for he is well aware that our article was written by an eye-witness and ear-witness of the whole transaction.

In the next place it is not true that in the article "the fact is suppressed that at the very opening of the negotiations the first proposition of the American Committee was a union upon a new man upon the single issue of opposition to the Nebraska iniquity." If Dr. Reed will recur to our paper of the 1st, he will find that fact thus carefully set forth, in a report of Mr. Todd's remarks in behalf of the American Committee:

"The Whig party had peculiar measures to which it was pledged, and so had the Republicans; but he hoped that they would forego their distinctive measures, and unite with the "Americans," upon the single issue of resistance to the Nebraska fraud."

In the third place it is not true that in our article "the truth is suppressed that the nomination of Mr. Nicholson was made by the Whig Committee to the other committees;" for the fact was distinctly stated by us that Mr. Nicholson's nomination was first made by the Whig Committee.

In the fourth place our assertion that "an onslaught was made upon the Whig Committee in behalf of Thomas Nicholson" was not an untruth, but a fact. The writer of this article witnessed this onslaught, while in the same room with Dr. Reed, and he noticed with pleasure that that gentleman resisted it throughout.

In the fifth place it is not true that in our article "the truth is suppressed that Mr. Nicholson denied all connection with the American Order;" on the contrary, we stated distinctly, as Dr. Reed will see by recurring to that article, that "His friends in that committee avowed that he was not a Know Nothing," and that "two or three of his personal acquaintances undertook to vouch for him."

In the sixth place, our statement that "he refused to stand up before them and say so himself," is not an untruth. Mr. Campbell, a member of the Whig Committee from this county, stated to the committee frankly that if Mr. Nicholson would come in there and say he was not a member of the Order, or say so to him, he would withdraw all objections to his nomination, and this Mr. Nicholson refused to do. For the truth of this we appeal to Dr. Boland, Mr. Doyle, and other members of the committee.

It may be that Mr. Nicholson is not a Know Nothing, and that he is an honorable man; but to our mind no man can be honorable who smuggles himself on to the committee of a party to which he does not belong; and this Thomas Nicholson did do, on the very night of his nomination.

It may be, also, that Dr. Reed knows nothing of the previous intrigues to bring Mr. Nicholson forward; but the fact was notorious to many of those who were in Harrisburg that Nicholson's name was mentioned on the afternoon before the meeting as a compromise candidate.

And now, there are some things we have to charge upon Dr. Reed. We have disproved all his allegations against us; let us see if he be invulnerable himself. And first, Mr. Nicholson was put upon the list of candidates before the balloting commenced, and not afterwards, as suggested by the Doctor. We do not know who put his name on the list; we only know it was there from the start. In the next place, Dr. Reed suppresses the fact that he voted against him throughout, on every ballot, even up to the very last. This is a very important qualifying fact, in the present aspect of the case. In the last place, Dr. Reed conceals the fact that he is now a candidate on a distinctive Whig ticket in Washington county in opposition to an anti-Nebraska Know Nothing ticket, the cardinal feature of which is an utter refusal on the part of the whigs of that county to have any co-operation with the Know Nothings. Now, if it is wrong for the Whigs to co-operate with the Know Nothings in Washington county, how can it be right to co-operate with them in the State? And if he assumes the responsibility, by running as a candidate against them, of the defeat of the Order in his own county, why is he so fearful of a similar responsibility in the matter of Canal Commissioner? Is the Order in the State any better than in Washington county, that such a distinction should be made?

We have the authority of Mr. Darsie, a member of the Republican committee, and Mr. Campbell, a member of the Whig committee, to sustain the personal evidence of the writer of our article of October 1st; and although we have not the express consent of other members of those committees to refer to them for the truth of our statements, we feel an abiding confidence that several whom we could name would confirm the truth of them. If, however, Dr. Reed chooses to make it a question of veracity, we are content to base our justification upon the evidence of the gentlemen we have named.

As to standing in the way of Mr. Nicholson's success, the responsibility is his, not ours. He was a party to a fraudulent arrangement which resulted in his nomination, and seeks to palm himself off as a candidate through the action of those who had not the first particle of authority to nominate him. We cannot be beguiled into a participation in that fraud through any tempting prospects of success. It is at least as essential to be right as to succeed; and we are not ashamed to confess that we think the anti-Nebraska cause has nothing to gain by entering upon a career of trickery and fraud. If Mr. Nicholson thinks that the path to success, let him and those who act with him take the responsibility.

[The communication of Dr. Reed, above given, was sent to the Journal, instead of to us, as courtesy required. It will appear in that unprincipled sheet this morning, accompanied with all the choice slang of its billingsgate conductor, and there will doubtless be an immense chuckle over it, as fixing upon us the ridiculous charge of falsehood. We give Dr. Reed a hearing, to which he has no claim; but many of those to whose ears he abuses us will never see our defence. We are content, however, to abide by the public judgment upon the facts we have laid before it; and in the meantime we leave him to the pleasant reflections that must be awakened in his cooler moments by his volunteer discourtesy and injustice toward us.]

TRICKS OF POLITICIANS.—The Philadelphia papers are now full of political advertisements, some of which are quite amusing. Here is one, purporting to be an "American" rally, but evidently from the pen of a sneering enemy:

☞ GRAND RAMMOTH DEMONSTRATION.—AMERICANS TO THE RESCUE!—The Sons of '76 and Forever scene are to pear midst, and threaten your liberties.—In the name of Washington, Jefferson, Hancock, and all the patriotic Forefathers that our fathers did not die in vain to include foreigners that have no claim to deserve Liberty. Come with your lanterns and muskets—come with your bayonets—come with bats against these foreign paupers—come as Americans should come, and drive back the foreign hordes.

On FRIDAY EVENING, at 7½ o'clock, INDEPENDENCE SQUARE will be the scene of the ultimatum of Americans. In that sacred grove let us cut the last link that binds us with the Old Country, and almahouse would be ultimate. Come to your standard, ye Sons of '76.

The meeting will be addressed by Wm. Morgan, M. Day (author of "Sketches of N. Y. by Gaslight,") Wm. H. Keyes, Wm. F. (author of New York by Gaslight,) Wm. H. Keyes, Wm. F. Russell, Wm. Russell, Wm. Wilson, (all of Philadelphia and Maryland) and Thos. Nicholson (the future candidate for Congress, Philadelphia, and lately naturalized.) It will be a glorious outpouring.

Here is another, which is probably from a Know Nothing, and intended to bring the opposition into bad repute:

☞ PARTICULAR NOTICE.—Naturalized Citizens are hereby notified to prepare to vote on Tuesday next, on obtaining FIVE DOLLARS for their services. Apply at No. —, Spruce street, bearing a note directed to R. R., through Moore's Democratic Hotel, corner of Race and Second streets.

The following is from an unqualified "American," or some one shamming it for him:

☞ AMERICANS, HOW IS IT?—Are we sold to the Abolitionists or Whigs, or to both? Or have we bought them? Will the Whig Members of the Legislature and did he agree that he (Dazzle) should pass him upon the Democratic ticket? Is Democratic Colour to be put upon such trickery. We have been caught as we were with Hunter's Bill. All we ask is, Americans, Citizens, will vote the AMERICAN TICKET with NICHOLSON and SMALL off. It is the only hope of success.

TEST OF VERACITY.—The Journal, a few days since uttered the following announcement:

"Passmore Williamson, the candidate of the Republicans, has declined."

In another part of the same article it says—"He (Passmore Williamson) has publicly declined."

Now we pronounce both these statements false. Mr. Williamson has not declined; and as for the public declination, there was none at the time this was uttered by the Journal, nor has there been since, so far as we can learn. We challenge the production of this public declination; and until it is produced let the Journal stand convicted of deliberate falsehood.

As a test of the Journal's veracity, we extract from the same article the following boast:

The prospect is that Mr. Nicholson will be elected by thirty thousand majority over Plummer. Had the union upon Nicholson been completed ten days sooner he would have carried the State by fifty to sixty thousand. As it is his election is secured.

We put this upon record, in the exact language of the Journal, in order that its veracity may be tested by the result. Should Mr. Nicholson be defeated, or fall of the thirty thousand majority pledged for him, we shall feel justified by the course of that sheet in posting it as a public deceiver, devoid of veracity, and unworthy of the smallest share of public confidence.

THE N. Y. Courier and Enquirer was at first disposed to kick against the fusion of the Whigs with the Republicans in that state, but has since yielded its objections. It says:

In this state of the case, there can, we think, be no doubt among honest and right-minded men, as to their duty. No man and no set of men, can always have things as they desire. We think our policy was best; but having in view the restoration of the Missouri Compromise as the one great and only panacea for the quieting of this vexed question of Slavery, now and forever, we cannot be mistaken in believing, that the only way to accomplish that object, is for every man who wishes to restore harmony to the country, to vote for the fusion ticket nominated at Syracuse;—not because they prefer those candidates to all others, but because by thus casting their votes they will demonstrate to the South and to the whole country, their unalterable determination to redress the grievous wrong perpetrated in the repeal of the great Compromise of 1820. That act, thirty-five years ago, quieted the most dangerous agitation which our country ever witnessed; it saved our Institutions when on the very verge of dismemberment; it caused the half drawn sword to be returned to its scabbard; it resulted and bound together the ties of kindred and of race which were about to be rudely severed; it gave us peace and prosperity at home and made us envied and respected abroad. In one word, it made us what we are,—a great, prosperous, happy and powerful nation—a nation of Freemen, destined under providence, to exercise an important influence upon the future welfare of the world. And that act has been ruthlessly, unjustly, and most dishonorably set aside. The consequences are daily becoming apparent. The dangers and the difficulties of 1820, are upon us; and the restoration of the Missouri Compromise now, will have the same beneficial influence upon our future that its enactment has exercised upon our past.

A CERTIFICATE, signed by John A. Fisher, Lemuel Todd, and David Wilmot, as chairmen of the Whig, K. N. and Republican Committees has been published, setting forth that Messrs. Williamson and Henderson have declined as candidates for Canal Commissioner. This certificate was written at Coverly's Hotel, after three o'clock, on Friday morning, September 28th, without any authority for such a statement from those candidates, and Judge Jessup was dispatched with it in haste to Towanda to get Judge Wilmot's signature to it. It was a part of the trickery which we have before exposed; and we challenge those gentlemen to produce their authority for such a use of Mr. Williamson's name.

THE Editor being able to revisit his sanctum, after his late severe illness, embraces the first opportunity of expressing his lively sense of the wide-spread sympathy manifested for him by the community during his affliction. It has made a profound impression upon his heart, it consoled him in sickness, and will never be forgotten while memory lasts. It is one of the bright lights in the shadows of his checkered existence which time and circumstances can never dim.

One Day More.

This is the last day our friends have in which to work for the good cause. Let them improve the opportunity it offers, by finishing up the work, preparatory to the great struggle to-morrow.

WILSON SHANNON, the democratic Governor of Kansas, lately appointed by President Pierce, voted the pro-slavery ticket in Kansas at the election on Monday last. In doing so he doubtless fulfils the purposes of the Administration.

THE Journal of Saturday speaks of Dr. Reed as a member of the Republican State Committee. If we were to imitate the low and intensely vulgar style of that sheet, we should seize upon this as an instance of "brazen falsehood," inasmuch as the Doctor is not a member of the Republican Committee; but cui bono? The character of that paper is now so well understood that to fix a falsehood upon it is only needlessly to multiply illustrations of its recklessness.

"ISOBEL'S CHILD." New York: J. C. Derby: 1856.

This is the title of a novel just issued, with no name upon the title-page, and nothing to indicate its authorship; but, being copyrighted, we presume it to be from an American pen.—The scene of the work is laid in England, and it has all the characteristics of the modern school of domestic novels. The book is well got up, and will repay perusal. For sale by Gildenfenny & Co., Fifth street.

SEWICKLEYVILLE, Oct. 5, 1855.

Mr. Editor:—At the last Democratic meeting held in our borough, it was announced from the stand that there would be a debate between a Mr. Glass, of Allegheny, and a J. W. McClelland, of Beaver county, on Friday evening, the 5th, on the relative merits of Know Nothing principles and Democracy. On Thursday and Friday there were posted on all the prominent places in the neighborhood flaming hand-bills, calling a mass meeting for the Know Nothings, the meeting to be addressed by Dr. G. L. McCook, and other distinguished speakers. The long looked for night arrived, and with all the efforts to draw up recruits to their dying cause, they succeeded in getting out twenty-six persons, including boys and men. The young Doctor was there, ready with his speech, and with the exception of its not being well committed, I heard one say, he "done right down good." He convinced all present, no doubt, that he was Dr. McCook, from Pittsburgh, by his self-confidence and with all his ability to convince the Senseless that their country was in danger from the foreigners that were planting themselves on our soil. As an example, he called our attention to the Italians thronging our highways with "doughtroughs" on their heads, vending images and fruits. "Yes, gentlemen, that is all," (at this stage of the speech the bristles of the dignified and unterrified were all on end; it would not have been safe for a poor Italian to have made his appearance—his crockery-ware would have been no where.) "Yes, gentlemen, that is not all: our Christianity is in danger. The quality of the immigration from Europe is not good as it was a few years ago, when from ship [when my brother-in-law came here.] Who does not know that every German, yea, and every Red Republican from France is strongly tainted with Infidelity?" Well, this was a serious place in the speech, and they seemed very grave. It did not affect me so, for I had heard and read of such expounders of the Christian religion before.

I thought perhaps it would not be unprofitable to scan over the ticket a little that these Infidel haters have put before the people for their suffrage. In my estimation it will not stand the test. They had better beware of Infidelity in their own camp. Not the Doctor stopped to give way for other speakers. They called for Mr. McClelland, but that gentleman got up and asked to be excused, as he had prepared himself for a debate with another person. Well, poor fellow, he did not look able, physically or mentally, for the Doctor. They called for several other speakers, but no one responded. At last they called for the Doctor again, but they forgot that a deaf man had his say—had delivered his written speech, and was done. The President said he "would like right well to hear the Doctor a little while longer," but it was no go. There was no more powder in the horn. The President asked some one to move to adjourn. To his great relief some one did, and thus ended the wonderful demonstration in our quiet and peaceable borough.

BARNUM'S BABY SHOW.

MR. EDITOR:—It is surprising to witness the means to which some resort, for the purpose of making money. They will permit no barrier that may seem to obstruct their path, to prevent the accomplishment of their object. In the most important enterprise, or most absurd project, they are always ready to engage, in order to secure the gratification of their ruling passion. The immoderate love of money, which is truly represented as the root of all evil, makes them willing to bow at any shrine or to worship any idol. Upon animate and inanimate creation they impose a tax to fill their coffers. All that is wonderful in the animal world—whether rational or irrational—they turn to account in the accumulation of wealth. A herd of buffaloes, an accomplished dwarf, or a brilliant star in the musical world, are all placed under contribution to gratify the insatiable desire for riches.—There are some persons of this description, however, who are not totally destitute of every good quality, but on the contrary possess some estimable traits of character. We should therefore condemn only what is evil, and be ever ready to commend what is positively good.

To the preceding train of thought the mind of the writer was involuntarily directed, while reading the "Baby Show" advertisement of Barnum and Col. Woods. Surely the wealth already acquired by the prince of humbugs, Barnum, should satisfy the cupidity, even of the most avaricious. He has realised, it is said, enough to make a score of "Tom Thumb" and "Jenny Lind" an independent fortune. But this it seems is not enough. His sordid love of gold constrains him to make an appeal to the vanity or poverty —as the case may be—of silly parents to present their tender offspring for exhibition, Parents who act thus should not be pitied, were they, in the order of Providence to become childless.—And the man who can descend to such means to increase his already enormous wealth, merits the universal contempt of the community. It would really appear as if Barnum no longer feels any sense of shame, and sets public opinion at open defiance.

It is but a little while since the authorities at Providence give him a most signal rebuke, by refusing him permission to make a ridiculous display in that city. Such a rebuff, any one might think, would have "cooled his courage," but it seems as if his besetting sin is beyond the reach of remedy; and he has the hardihood now to ask the municipal authorities of Pittsburgh to grant him a favor, such as has been very properly denied him by the authorities at Providence. That the gentlemen here to whom power has been delegated, for the protection of the city's honor and interests, will use it aright, in the case under consideration, it would be improper to doubt. It is conscientiously believed, that if the opinion of our citizens, generally, could be satisfactorily ascertained, it would previously appear that an overwhelming majority of them, would raise their voices, long and loud, against all infantile exhibitions. J. M.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 6th, 1855.

For the Gazette.

MR. EDITOR:—Aware of the general practice of political conductors of the press to indulge in the habit of exaggeration for the purpose of encouraging the timid, or fixing the purpose of those ever ready to vote the strongest party, or to cast their vote to defeat an objectionable opponent, I was led to fear that if the Editorial articles for a few days past were not convinced with these views they were the result of an overweening confidence, destined to a greater or less degree of disappointment, although my determination had been unalterably fixed from the first moment the Republican Ticket was announced to vote in mass, on the grounds of Principle, and its own intrinsic excellence.

I have now entirely changed my views of the matter and come to regard the triumphant election of that Ticket assured, if such be the desire of the Party, and feel certain such will be the result if but a slight effort be put forth by each member or friend of the party.

I have been led to this change, from a conversation with a friend whom I did not suppose to be connected with or capable of descending so low as to be connected with the order of K. N. He, however, reluctantly admitted his connection with them, but expressed his willingness to make any sacrifice, save honor? to be able to vote for Gen. R. Riddle and the greater portion of the Republican ticket, believing it to be the best in the field, but candidly admitted his inability so to do under his obligations. He assured me however, that he publicly and boldly, in the Lodge in this city, of which he is an active member, had declared his determination not only not to vote for the K. N. ticket, but to deter all whom he could influence to do likewise; he further declared that in pursuance of this purpose he had found many, less scrupulous of their ogligations, who were boldly electioneering for the Republican Ticket, and numbers of such he had got to consent, so to vote, and he believed such was the dissatisfaction, especially in the Rural Districts, that hundreds would boldly vote that ticket.

But sir I was farther induced to this change by the last appeal of the "Commercial Journal" in behalf of EPHRAIM JOHNS for Sheriff setting forth the calamity which will befall the county in the event of his failure, by having the patronage of the Sheriff's office bestowed on the organ of a Proslavery Party, instead; it is supposed of the organ of that immaculate party of which the Commercial Journal is a filthy advocate. As it would puzzle the shrewdest of the proverbial hairsplitting lawyers of the emporium of our State, which is doubly disgraced by being always on bended knees to Southern dictators, and for having been the first point of importance where this modern party without character or principles first warmed into life, to fall what are the principles of the Commercial Journal, unless they are set forth in the implied hint, we will support and labor to get our friends to aid in the election of EPHRAIM JOHNS because he cannot consistently give the patronage of his office office to any other paper.

Another consideration argues the want of confidence on the part of the "Know Nothings," the constant appeals and flattery they have been lately making to and bestowing on the Patriotism and Intelligence of Foreigners. "Oh Shame where is thy Blush!" to forego all the minor considerations of manhood and independence and vote for those whose avowed purpose is to reduce them to serfdom and vassalage! Forego for the present, say these admirers of the high minded, the intelligent Patriotic naturalised foreigners, all demand for equality; let "Americans rule America;" waive any pretensions or claims you may have to place of profit or Trust, yea, even presume not to approach the Ballot Box until Americans have voted unless you are Patriotic enough to vote our ticket, on these conditions you will be guaranteed a peacable home on the soil; what more can you claim? you had no others in the land of your Nativity.

The absolute impudence that could urge such appeals, that could foster such a hope, can only be explained and justified as showing the extremity of despair on the part of those who make them. Do they expect intelligent foreigners to be capable of falling into such a transparent trap? Will such appeals to their patriotism and vanity avail them? The writer feels assured they will not. It is freely admitted that there is and ever has been too indecent and excessive pursuit after petty office by a certain class of recently naturalized persons, the evils of which have been seen and felt by those who for a time may have been tempted to accept them, tempted as they were in the majority of cases by these very "American Rulers" who now are so maniacally whining over the dangers of their country.—Foreigners, as a general thing, admit these truths and have been latterly acting accordingly. But sirs are they to be utterly shut out from all civil rights and even to be circumscribed in their religions, to be dictated to as to what they must and must not do, as a matter of right. Are they to be disfranchized on the accidental circumstance of birth alone for this, shall they be ineligible to positions to which they may be desirous of attaining, and for which they may be otherwise well qualified? No, no, sir, the country has become and must be recognised as FREEMEN; when they surrender must be voluntary, no compulsion must be attempted, no simply abstract right must be claimed. Has not these purposes been sufficiently and distinctly set forth in the rebuke administered to the truckling CONRAD for his insult to Foreigners and Foreign Phraseology, by his clear and unequivocal breach of faith on the occasion of his election to the Mayoralty of Philadelphia? Has it not been re-echoed wherever the question has been fairly tested? Are the K. N's. so utterly senseless as not to see their own contemptible inconsistency and weakness in making such appeals? If so, no second Ignis fatuus will be required to lead them astray. If Foreigners are to be degraded and wronged they will teach these degenerate sons, many of them of venerable and worthy foreign sires, that they will not be made cats paws of to effect the work. Such at least is the purpose of Joy for the Invalid.—We cut the following from the "Philadelphia Saturday Gazette," and recommend our readers to peruse it carefully, and those suffering should not delay purchasing:

DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.—This highly celebrated medicine, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, at the immense Medical Depot, No. 418 Arch street, Philadelphia, has long represented public attention, and the proprietor, who is a physician of long standing in extensive practice, spares no expense in using immense quantities of it. The virtues of this remedy are fully set forth in the extended notice of it to be seen in our advertising columns, and we would recommend a trial of it to those who are suffering from debility or any kindred disease. This remedy is said to be composed entirely of vegetable matter, and from the well known character of the proprietor for skill and integrity, we feel satisfied that the statement is correct. Those who are afflicted with Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Nervous Debility, Chronic or Intermittent Fever, Diseases of the Kidneys, or any disease arising from a disordered stomach or torpid liver, would find in this remedy a sure antidote. Those who have used the Bitters speak highly of their effects, and we have no doubt that a fair trial will prove the value of the medicine. From the Home Journal, New York.—"No article ever acquired so rapid celebrity and universal popularity as Lyon's Kathairon. To those who have used it (and who has not?) its wonders is obvious. It not only beautifies the Hair, but prevents its restoration if it is naturally scanty or falls off. Its perfumed and agreeable cultivating effects, should stamp it an indispensible article of the toilet." The above is but one of thousands of similar recommendations—it stands unrivaled as a toilet article. Be sure and ask for Lyon's Kathairon, as its unparalleled popularity has caused several unprincipled persons to put up a spurious imitation, which they attempt to palm upon the unwary. Sold everywhere, in large bottles for only 25 cents.

BRIDGE, N. H., June 9th, 1855.
To B. A. Fahnestock & Co.—
GENTLEMEN—For five years past, I have used B. A Fahnestock's Vermifuge for an anthelmintic in my practice; my attention was first called to it in a case where I had failed to dislodge worms with calomel, pink and cowhage. A bottle was obtained and used with decisive effect; since then I have prescribed it for hundreds of patients, and in a large majority of cases with complete success. In one case a single bottle of the medicine brought away from one patient Ninety-Eight Worms. I have never known it to do harm, and I am induced to make this statement from an honest conviction that it is the most valuable Vermifuge yet known. Such is my confidence in its "worm-killing" power, that I recommend it to city physicians in this section, and furnish them with the article. M. C. SAVAGE, M. D.

Dr. Urban's Anti-Bacchanalian Elixir, a safe and sure remedy for the cure of INTEMPERANCE. A concentrated vegetable extract, and as a tonic is unrivalled. In the following complaints it is a most valuable medicine: Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, Piles, Fevers of all kinds, Delirium Tremens, General Debility. This medicine is intended to produce a change in the system, and a distaste for alcoholic drinks. Several instances where we have sold it, we have had the most gratifying results; so, to persons who are really desirous of breaking off the indulgence in intoxicating beverages, this elixir will be a great help. Sold at $1 per bottle at the Drug Store of Dr. GEO. H. KEYSER, No. 140 Wood street, corner of Virgin alley, sign of the Golden Mortar. se18-d&w7

Liver Disease.—Carter's Spanish Mixture as a remedy for liver disease, and the number of forbidden certificates from the highest sources of per sons living in the city of Richmond, Va., might be given to prove that it has effected in that city more cures than any room to refer to the extraordinary cure of Samuel M M'Clelland, but that gentleman got up and asked to be excused, as he had prepared himself for a debate with another person. Well, poor fellow, he did not look able, physically or mentally, for the Doctor. They called for several other speakers, but no one responded. At last they called for the Doctor again, but they forgot that a deaf man had his say—had delivered his written speech, and was done. The President said he "would like right well to hear the Doctor a little while longer," but it was no go. There was no more powder in the horn. The President asked some one to move to adjourn. To his great relief some one did, and thus ended the wonderful demonstration in our quiet and peaceable borough.

BARNUM'S BABY SHOW.

MR. EDITOR:—It is surprising to witness the means to which some resort, for the purpose of making money. They will permit no barrier that may seem to obstruct their path, to prevent the accomplishment of their object. In the most important enterprise, or most absurd project, they are always ready to engage, in order to secure the gratification of their ruling passion. The immoderate love of money, which is
