Agriculural Fairs.—The late State Fair at rrisburg was notoriously a failure. Not-thranding the enormous puffs bestowed upon It by the Philadelphia press, it was an abortion, both in the meagreness of its display and the lightness of the attendance upon it. Even the might heralded visit of President Pierce failed to draw" a crowd; and mortification sat upon the question. Thanks to his energy, the treacher-faces of all who were interested in the matter,—ous plot to defeat him and so break up the Republican movement, has failed.

The Howard Hospital, at Norfolk, had 276 patients during the yellow fever epidemic, of whom 107 died. Of these 276 patients 191 were white and 84 colored; and of the deaths, 100 were white and 85 colored. The proportion of deaths among the whites was therefore 51 per cent, while among the blacks it was only 8 per cent.
