Defining Position.—Since the Ohio election, s the leading Democrats and Democratic presses are preparing to change front. During the late canvass Gov. Medill and the speakers who accompanied him declined to sustain the Nebraska bill and the pro-slavery policy of the administration, but rather put on an appearance of anti-slavery, the better to reconcile the prevailing sentiment. The result being adverse to them, they are now throwing off their reserve, and seem to think that if they must be defeated it were better for them to meet the opposition they must encounter on a platform congenial to their real views.

"The Democracy," says the Cincinnati Enquirer, "have not grappled with and met the great national question of slavery like their brethren in Indiana and Pennsylvania. They have pursued a temporising, pusillanimous, time-serving policy on that point." "Too many of our politicians," continues the Enquirer, "have sought either to dodge the question or to run a race with the opposition in Abolitionism. A large number of the Democratic members of Congress from Ohio, not only united with the opposition in Congress, but loaded down the mails with their franked speeches against that great Democratic measure." And hereafter if we are to believe this organ, the "Democracy is to make no further concealment of its Slavery-extension principles." Time serving, pusillanimity, dough-faciam, and temporizing is to be at an end. Under the pretence of defending the Constitution and saving the Union—standing by the compromise and knowing no North, no South, no East, and no West, permission is to be given to make Slavery co-equal in territorial extent with the national domain.

But this is not all. The party is not only to take open pro-Slavery ground, but it is to abandon all that is offensive in the past associations of the party for the sake of conciliating the "National" Boohoo Whigs. Hear the Dayton Empire:

"It is too true that we have been beaten in Ohio, by the shirking timidity and time-serving spirit of our own friends. If the speakers and writers who were engaged in the past contest had all come manfully up to the mark, as in the main and a few other counties, and accepted the issue offered by the enemies of the doctrine of popular sovereignty, and had battled for the true Democratic principle as defiantly, as they anxiously sought to evade its discussion, or pusillanimously denied it, when pushed to the wall, we should not now have to defend to deplore, and the great State of Ohio would not stand disgraced before the Union by the triumph of Chase and his crew of Abolitionists and disunionists.

"Warned by the errors of the past, the Ohio Democracy must feel the necessity of placing itself, firm and undivided, upon a truly national platform, there to stand or fall in the great struggle of 1856. As a day when such a position may be taken in convention assembled with dignity and effect, not only by the National Democracy, but the National Whigs, with whom we are all allied for the defence of the Union, we suggest the anniversary of the going into operation of the Constitution of the United States —Tuesday, the fourth day of March next."

On this new development the Ohio State Journal well remarks:

"The Eighth of January, so long hallowed in the memory of all Democrats, is to be abandoned, because it might be obnoxious to the new allies, the 'National Whigs,'" and the State Convention of the new fusion party, composed of the genuine, unadulterated Nebraska pro-slavery material, is to assemble on "Tuesday, the 4th day of March next." The Union is then to be saved for the nine hundred and ninety-ninth time, and this new fusion-Nebraska-pro slavery party is to be branded upon the political sea, and will spead its sails for popular favor!"

This is the shape things are taking in Ohio; and doubtless it will be so throughout the North. Fusion for slavery's sake is the order of the day; and why not for freedom, also?

Railroads.—The Connellsville Enterprise states that quite a new order of things exists at that place, since the Railroad has been completed to that point. Two large buildings, one the Eagle house 75 feet in length and 35 in breadth, and the other, the wood house, 108 by 27, have gone up within three weeks. The foundations of the passenger and freight depot are being laid, and it will be pushed rapidly. It is 91 by 26, with platforms 7½ feet wide all around the building.

The Wheeling Intelligencer says the work at the Depot of the Hempfield Railroad in that city was commenced on Friday of last week, and adds;

"All the track between Wheeling and West Alexander is ballasted, ready for the rails, which will be laid between these two points, it is anticipated by the first of January next. A large portion of the crossties and rails are in readiness, and distributed along the track. We are truly glad to observe these and other evidences of the early completion of this important work."

The people of Philadelphia take a deep interest in the completion of the line of Railroad through Steubenville. The Board of Trade of that city, on motion of Mr. Samuel V. Merrick, lately adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the Board of Trade view with lively satisfaction the progress made in the construction of the Steubenville and Indiana Railroad, which they esteem of great consequence to the commercial prosperity of this city, and earnestly recommend to the merchants and citizens of Philadelphia a liberal subscription to enable the Company to put on a rolling stock adequate to the trade."

It is stated in the North American that in order to ballast their road, and increase their rolling stock, the company head two hundred and fifty thousand dollars. They desire to obtain this amount and apply it in the manner indicated, by the time the Pittsburgh and Steubenville road, extending from Pittsburgh to Steubenville, a distance of forty-one miles, is completed. This has given rise to this appeal to Philadelphia liberality and enterprise. As the Pennsylvania Railroad has already invested a large sum in that road, no doubt the citizens of that city will aid in placing the work in a condition to accomplish the objects contemplated in its construction.

The public good demands the union of all men as patriots rather than as partizans. It should be a union for the freedom of manhood rather than for the triumph of faction, or that of serving out an office to this or that man. Men pass away, but governments should not. They should grow purer, and in this rests the secret of all their legitimate power of endurance. We repeat, we want a union of solid patriots who will cherish Republican freedom in its highest instincts and offices, and not a union of factions and factionists, who merely put their heads together for the purpose of clutching some office to-day, holding themselves in readiness for a new combination by means of which to clutch another office to-morrow.—Brie Gazette.

All this is true and well put, yet in the very paper from which we cut it the editor expresses a longing for the reorganization of the present whig party! A union of all who cherish Republican freedom in its highest instincts and offices, is not to be promoted by adhering to defunct or factional organizations.

A Step.—The last K. N. National Council decided that the Council for nominating candidates for President and Vice President should meet on the 22d of February next. The K. N. State Council of Tennessee which met at Nashville last week, passed a resolution urging the postponement of the National Council until June next.

California.—The victory of the American party in California appears to be one of considerable importance. At the last session of the State Legislature, the attempt to elect a United States Senator resulted in a failure. Meantime, certain amendments to the State Constitution have been put to a popular vote and accepted, by which the Legislature chosen at the present election will have to choose two United States Senators, instead of one. Dr. Gwin's term expired with the last Congress, and it was a successor to him that the last Legislature tried to choose. Mr. Waller's term expires in the year 1857, and the constitutional amendments before spoken of require the election of his successor at the next session of the Legislature now chosen. The American party are said to have a large majority of this body, their victory at this recent election having been a very decided one. Thus they will have the opportunity of chosing two members of the United States Senate. We trust they will be more successful in doing so than the last Legislature of Pennsylvania was in a like effort.—Phila. North American.

It is hardly worth while to hope against hope. The leading man in the "American" movement in California were southern politicians, such as Foote, of Mississippi, and Baille Peyton, and the two men elected by them to the Supreme Court of the State were ultra southern men.—One of them was so ultra, in fact, that he was discarded by the democratic party, to which he belonged, and was at once adopted by the "Americans." From such a party the cause of freedom has nothing to hope in the choice of U. S. Senators; and if, as seems probable, Henry S. Foote should be one of the Senators returned, the Senate will again become the scene of those mad freaks with which it was disgraced during his former membership in it.

A Presidential Programme.—Washington letters state that the Presidential programme is already arranged, so far as the Democracy is concerned. It is as follows. It is necessary for the South, in order to succeed, to carry Pennsylvania. This, it is believed, can be done with a Pennsylvania candidate, and Messrs. Buchanan and Dallas are fixed upon as the men, and the Democrats of Pennsylvania are to choose between them. In this contest Mr. Buchanan is expected to be the winner, and it is asserted that he is already sure of more than half the delegates.—Either of these gentlemen are expected to be entirely subservient to southern interests. All the other northern States are to be given up. Pennsylvania is to stultify and degrade herself for the sake of the offices and patronage. There is a hitch in this arrangement, however. The people may refuse to ratify the bargain. There is a steady advance of light on the subject of the encroachments and designs of slavery, and Pennsylvania may finally emancipate herself by the next election. If the opposition forces can be cordially united this will most certainly be the case. All the energies of honest men, who have the real good of the country at heart, should be bent to effect this purpose.

Kansas.—The telegraph gives us nothing of the Kansas Election of the 9th. We have a copy of the Kansas Free State, however, issued on the 9th, from which we take the following:

"We have delayed our paper this week until 12 M., of the 9th, as some difficulty was anticipated at the election. But we are pleased to say that up to this writing there has been no demonstration. We have seen no evidence of foreign voters yet. All Free State men here have determined to defend their polls, or die over them. The largest legal vote ever cast in the Territory, will be cast this day for Reeder.

A large and enthusiastic meeting was held at the Free State Hotel last night at which Gov. Reeder and others made very able addresses. There being no provisions made for any of the Editors to save one, we were unable owing to the distance and want of seats, to hear and make a correct minute of what was said.

We hardly supposed that the Republican politicians of Allegheny county, who have professed such deathless devotion to the great principles of Freedom, would cast their votes for a candidate who is self-nursing and whose election is utterly abandoned, when they could only thereby strengthen the chances of the success of the pro-Slavery candidate.—Chambersburg Whig.

And we hardly supposed that the whig politicians of Franklin county, who have professed such deathless devotion to whig principles, would cast their votes for candidates who had no earthly chance, when they could only thereby strengthen the chances of the success of the locofoco candidates; much less did we suppose that they could, as they did, vote openly for some of the Locofoco candidates.

The Double Murder at Cumberland.—The Cumberland Telegraph gives essentially the same account of the recent horrible murders in that vicinity as that which has already appeared in our paper. The Telegraph says:—

During Tuesday great excitement prevailed, and the policy of an application of the code of Judge Lynch was freely discussed. Wiser counsels prevailed, however, and the accused was suffered to remain quietly in jail, to await the result of an investigation before the proper tribunal, which is now in session. The Grand Jury commenced the examination of witnesses yesterday, and it is supposed that the accused will be tried this court.

Miller is a small man, and appears very dark, vein—has black hair and large black whiskers, covering almost his entire face. He is a German, and has been but a short time in this country, and speaks but little English. The murdered men were also natives of Germany.

"The Successor of Henry Clay."—Such is the title which some Democratic journals give to Senator Dixon, of Kentucky, who has just announced his having joined the Democratic ranks. Of course partisan journals are to be pardoned for endeavoring to magnify the importance of this persons deserting from a sinking hulk, but in this instance the title bestowed upon Senator Dixon is singularly inappropriate. Mr. Dixon is a Senator from Kentucky, and so was Henry Clay, but there the similitude ceases. Mr. Clay was the author of the Missouri Compromise. Mr. Dixon was the author of its repeal. When Senator Douglas first introduced the Nebraska bill, it did not provide for the repeal of the Missouri Compromise. Mr. Dixon offered an amendment expressly repealing that great measure of pacification, and this was at length accepted by Mr. Douglas. Mr. Dixon originated the repeal.—Whatever praise or blame attaches to it belongs to him; but it is difficult to see how he has filled the successor of Henry Clay, whose early political act of note is the undoing of that which constituted the greatest triumph of the genius and eloquence of Clay. The illustrious Kentuckian has handed down his name as peculiarly indentified with that compromise. His career was that of a pacificator, and in this line Mr. Dixon makes no pretence whatever to follow him. His policy in the Senate has been thoroughly inimical to that of Henry Clay. He may sit on the same piece of wood in the capitol which once held Clay, but as for a successor to Henry Clay—pho!—North Amer.

The Submarine Cable.—The attempt to lay the submarine telegraph from Cape Breton to New Foundland is by no means abandoned.—The gentleman engaged in the enterprise are sanguine of success, and only await the return of another warm season to repair their endeavors, as the months of June and July are the only ones when the wire can be laid with safety. In the mean time a settlement will be made with the London insurance companies respecting the lost wire, which will either be restored or its loss compensated for. As to the ultimate recovery of the wire there is said to be no question, as one end remains fast to the New foundland shore, and with the aid of suitable mechanical apparatus it may be drawn in. Its entire length is forty miles, and its weight 160 tons. The land portion of the line, extending from Cape Ray to St. Johns, a distance of 400 miles, is very near completion, so that the next steamer from that direction is expected to bring intelligence that it is done.

Cleveland and Mahoning Rail Road.—This important work progresses steadily—The track is now laid from this town to Mantua, a distance of about twenty miles. When the track is laid to section No.——in Mantua, it is the intention of Messrs Sally & Co.,—who have the contract for this part of the work—to draw off their force from this end of the line, and commence laying the track on Cleveland.—This will be done on account of the grading being unfinished on two sections of heavy work.

The road will probably be finished from Cleveland to this place about the first of January, and to Youngstown early in the next season, and to the Pennsylvania line, before its close A part of the iron from the iron bridge, over the Mahoning at this town has arrived, and the bridge will be erected in a short time.—Warren Chronicle.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Dr. M'Lane's Vermifuge.—During a practice of more than twenty years, Dr. M'Lane had attended innumerable patients afflicted with every form of worm disease, and was induced to apply all the energies of his mind to the discovery of a vermifuge, or worm destroyer, certain in its effects; the result of his labors is the American Worm Specific, now before the public, which is perfectly safe, and may be given alike to children of the most tender age, or to the aged adult; it purges mildly and subdues fever, and destroys with invariable success. It is easy of administration, and as it does not contain mercury in any form whatever, no restrictions are necessary with regard to drinking cold water, nor is it capable of doing the least injury to the tenderest infant. An incredible number of worms have been expelled by this great vermifuge.

☞Purchasers will be careful to ask for DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE, and take none else. All other Vermifuges, in comparison, are worthless. Dr. M'Lane's Vermifuge, also his celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in the United States, and Canada.

Gentlemen: For two years past, I have used R. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge as an anthelmintic in my practice; my attention was first called to it in a case where I had failed to dislodge worms with calomel, pink and cordials. A few doses were given, and I was astonished with the quantity of worms these I have prescribed it for hundreds of patients, and in a large majority of cases with complete success. In one case a single bottle of the medicine brought from the system a patient fifteen years old. I have not, as known it to do harm, and I am induced to make this statement from an honest conviction that it is the most valuable Vermifuge yet known. Such is my confidence in its worth, that I never hesitate to recommend it to my brother physicians in this section, and furnish them with the article. M. C. SAVAGE, M. D.

From the Home Journal, New York.—"No article ever acquired so rapid celebrity and universal popularity as Lyon's Kathairon. To those who have used it (and what lady has not?) the reason is obvious; as it not only beautifies the Hair, but preserves and restores it at an advanced age of life. Its perfume and agreeable enlivening effects, should stamp it an indispensable article of the toilet." From the Home Journal, New York.—"No article ever acquired so rapid celebrity and universal popularity as Lyon's Kathairon. To those who have used it (and what lady has not?) the reason is obvious; as it not only beautifies the Hair, but preserves and restores it at an advanced age of life. Its perfume and agreeable enlivening effects, should stamp it an indispensable article of the toilet." This above is but one of thousands of similar commendations—it stands unrivaled as a toilet article. Be sure and ask for Lyon's Kathairon, as its unparalleled popularity has caused several unprincipled persons to put up valueless imitations, which can be purchased at the last names. Sold everywhere, in large bottles for only 25 cents.

Important to Farmers—New Discovery.—VEGETABLE CATTLE POWDER.—These Powders are put up in one pound packs, and are really a good one for all diseases incident to horses, cows, sheep, swine, and other animals, but they are likewise an excellent article to improve the condition of the animal.

For Milch Cows, they not only improve the condition of the animals every, but they increase the quantity as well as improve the quality of milk and butter. The proprietors say that it increases the quantity of butter from half a pound to a pound a week to each cow, while those persons who have tried it say a pound and a half to two pounds per week, with the same kind of feeding as before. Of one thing we are certain, all who use it once will use it all the time, and save money by the operation as well as improve the appearance of their stock. Price 25 cts. a paper; 5 papers for $1.

Mr. R. A. Johnston & Co.—
Gentlemen: For two years past, I have used R. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge as an anthelmintic in my practice; my attention was first called to it in a case where I had failed to dislodge worms with calomel, pink and cordials. A few doses were given, and I was astonished with the quantity of worms these I have prescribed it for hundreds of patients, and in a large majority of cases with complete success. In one case a single bottle of the medicine brought from the system a patient fifteen years old. I have not, as known it to do harm, and I am induced to make this statement from an honest conviction that it is the most valuable Vermifuge yet known. Such is my confidence in its worth, that I never hesitate to recommend it to my brother physicians in this section, and furnish them with the article. M. C. SAVAGE, M. D.
Prepared and sold by R. A. FAHNESTOCK & CO., corner of Wood and First sts.

A Gentleman living on Squirrel Hill says:—"My wife has been sorely afflicted with Dyspepsia for the last years. During this time, she had used so many medicines which seemed to aggravate rather than remove the disease, that we almost despaired of her recovery." Living in the country, she enjoyed all the advantages of pure air and exercise, yet each day she seemed to be more enfeebled. With some difficulty I persuaded her to take your Health Bitters, which I am happy to state has entirely cured her."
