GAZETTE—CITY DEPARTMENT.

PITTSBURGH:

MONDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 22, 1855.

COURTS OF ALLEGHENY COUNTY.

SUPREME COURT.—Before Chief Justice Lewis, and Judges Black, Lowrie and Knox.

On Friday afternoon, the following case were disposed of:

Brown vs. Brooks for use; error to the Court, of Common Pleas of Jefferson county; argued by the Hon. David Barclay for plaintiff in error and by Mr. Jenks for defendant in error.

Dunlap vs. McKee; error to the Court of Common Pleas of Jefferson county; argued by Barclay for plaintiff in error.

Smitten, et al. vs. Pelliber's adm'r; error to the Court of Common Pleas of Jefferson county; argued by Barclay for plaintiff in error, and by McCahen for defendant in error.

Clarmer and Holton; error to the Court of Common Pleas of Crawford county, argued by Mr. Finney for Pl'ff in error, and by Mr. Pettus for defendant in error, and closed by Mr. Farrally for Pl'ff in error.

Graham and Smith; error to the Court of Common Pleas Elk county, argued by Mr. Lucas for Pl'ff in error. The Court declined hearing counsel for defendant in error.

Barry Firket and Matherby's Representatives, appeal from the Orphan's Court of Warren county; submitted after a brief argument by Thompson for appellant and by church for appellee.

The balance of the cases being but three or four out of a list of fifty were continued and the Court adjourned until Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT.—Before Hon. Thomas Irwin.

SATURDAY, Oct. 20, 1855.

The Jury in the case of Henry Cummings came into Court at ten o'clock and reported that they were unable to agree upon a verdict. They had been up all night, and, as we understood, stood six for acquittal and six for conviction.

The Court said they felt it their duty to send the Jury back, and the Court was adjourned till three o'clock.

At three o'clock, the Jury returned and rendered a verdict of "Guilty."

Col. Black made a motion in arrest of judgment and for a new trial.

The prisoner was remanded to jail, where he has been incarcerated for more than a year.—Much sympathy was expressed, on Saturday, for this unfortunate man.

DISTRICT COURT.—Before Judges Hampton and Williams.

Wilson vs. M'Cann. Trial proceeds.

Bates vs. Reed. It appearing to the Court that the writ of attachment in this cause issued after the death of defendant, and that the debt has been paid by the administrator of the defendant, the Court now set aside the attachment and this judgment thereon at the costs of plaintiff.

Sabits at uxon vs. Ludwig. Ball reduced to $700. This is a slander case.

The Criminal Court meets this morning at ten o'clock. The new jury begins its labors today.

The Grand Jury and its Presentment.

THE Grand Jury made their presentment on Saturday and were discharged. We endeavored to get a copy for publication, but found that it had first to pass examination by the Judges and then by the Commissioners. Usually, the Press gets the first chance at this document. Why this rule is departed from in the present instance. We cannot imagine. If it be obtainable, we will publish it to-morrow.

Amongst other things, as we are informed, the presentment suggests that the number of tipstaves to the Court of Quarter Sessions is altogether larger than is necessary, and recommends that the number, which is eleven, may be reduced. The Grand Jury also deprecates Baby shows and suggests prosecution if Barnum comes along again.

The practice of giving exhibitions of female horsemanship at the County Fair, also excites the ire of the Grand Jury, and they hope the authorities will forbid such things in future, and thus deprive our annual fair of one of its chief attractions. Alas! Alas!

Again, the Grand Jury recommends a work house in connection with the jail, which is certainly a very proper and important suggestion.

The House of Refuge is also favorable noticed.

But we hope to have the pleasure of presenting this interesting document in full, which, by the way, is signed by only a part of the body from whence it emanated.

THE UNIQUE AND UNRIVALLED SHELLER.—The awards of the highest prizes at all the State and County Fairs where this sheller has been exhibited, is the strongest evidence that it is unequalled. What everybody says must be true, and we yet have to hear of one valid objection. An agent at the Illinois State Fair was surrounded by crowds all day witnessing with incressible delight its perfect operation in removing corn from the cob. To satisfy the inquiries he was obliged to circulate thousands of circulars among them in regard to prices of territory and where they could be obtained, &c. &c. Merchants, Traders, Farmers and even Mechanics' wished to purchase rights of counties &c.

This agent will be at the Masonic Hall for a few days, and will state these facts in detail to all sojourners. The machine has the stamp of approbation upon it from the highest agricultural authority, and only needs to be seen to elicit the approbation of every man's common sense. To receive such testimonials at all the fairs in such quick succession, is more than any other invention has ever before done. It bears of the palm, because there can be no skeptism in its presence. Unsold States and Counties can still be had by those who wish to make quick sales and large profits.

A PERSEVERTORY DEED.—At the June term of the Court of Quarter Sessions, a woman named Maria Sirtian was convicted of receiving stolen goods, viz. an old, almost worthless silver watch. She was sent to the Penitentiary for one year, leaving behind her a little son, a fair-haired, pretty boy, about six years of age. This little fellow thus left without the protection of his mother, fell into the hands of a woman who was herself soon after committed to jail and Henry went with her. The jail was no place for a child, and Mr. George Weyman of Smithfield street, hearing the circumstances of the case, went to the prison and took the little fellow under his charge. He found him ragged and filthy, but it required only an hour or two to transform him into a cleanly, well-dressed intelligent looking lad. His great misfortune however, which even benevolence cannot remedy, is a defect of vision—one of his eyes being entirely blind.

Mr. Weyman was appointed by Judge M'Clure, on Saturday, the boy's guardian, and we hope Henry may live to see the day when he can fully appreciate the benevolence and kindliness of heart which has rescued him from the pestilent atmosphere of a prison.

THE NEXT ECLIPSE.—On the morning of Thursday, the 25th of October inst., the moon will be totally eclipsed for a period of more than three hours. Venus will be rising as the eclipse ends, Mars will be visible an hour earlier, Jupiter will set as the eclipse begins, Saturn will be near the meridian. Thus the usually visible planets will be seen. If the weather is clear, undimmed by the superior light of the moon.

We give below the beginning and end of the Eclipse at Pittsburgh, according to mean time.

Eclipse begins at twenty-four minutes past twelve o'clock; Eclipse ends at three o'clock fifty four minutes and eighteen seconds.

A VISITOR.—The schooner Ærial, of about 106 tons burthen touched at this port on Saturday evening last, for the purpose of taking in a fresh supply of water, provisions, &c.—She had cleared from Plattsburg, at the mouth of the Saranack river on Lake Champlain, almost 500 miles north of Albany, N. Y., and was bound to the Gulf of Mexico. This craft was brought through the New York canals, rigged up the lake to Erie, from thence via the Erie Extension to the Ohio, when she will sail down that river and the Mississippi to the Gulf. She was well rigged and manned for her inland voyage.—New Castle Journal.

SOMEBODY on the Grand Jury is wonderfully put out because we took occasion a day or two since to speak somewhat harshly of the extravagant waste of time by that body in visiting the House of Refuge. Whether that visit was by invitation or not makes little difference except that it makes the matter worse for them. Our remarks were based upon a statement made in open court by an officer of the County, and we are disposed to believe he told the truth, and that is "the shadow of truth" upon which we founded our animadversions.

DISCHARGED.—In the Court of Quarter Sessions, on Saturday, the following persons were discharged from Jail, the Grand Jury having ignored the bills against them, viz:

Becka Wade, charged with larceny; Edward Garrett, Mary Curry, Rosanna Garrett, James Murphy, keeping a bawdy house; Peter Gray, Joseph Wickline, Francis Hanson, larceny; Joseph Halstead alias Thomas Jones, bigamy.

MISSIONARY CONVENTION.—The twenty-eighth anniversary of the "Pennsylvania Baptist Convention for Missionary Purposes" will be held with the Union Baptist Church of this city, on Wednesday, the 24th instant, at 3 o'clock. It is expected that there will be a mass meeting, for foreign missions, held during the anniversary exercises.

NEW COUNTY COMMISSIONER.—Jacob Turner, the County Commissioner elect, was sworn into office on Saturday, by Mr. Horner, clerk of the Court. Mr. Algeo retires from office.

NORTH WESTERN RAILROAD.—The section of this road recently advertised for letting were last week allotted as follows;

Sec. 40.—Hawthorn & M'Cain.
" 44.—James Fenlon & Co.
" 45.—H. D. Foster & Co.
" 51.—John Morehead.
" 54.—M. & E. O. Sullivan.
" 56.—Undecided.
" 86.—M'Combs & Co.

Section 86 is at New Castle. The other sections are between Freeport and Butler.

THE Circus of Mr. Rice has been drawing immense crowds. On Friday night, the audience was so large that the ring was half full and it required a good deal of trouble to get room for the performances.

THOMAS W. WRIGHT, Esq., for several years past Foreman of the Dispatch Composing room, has recently changed his quarters and become Foreman of the Methodist Advocate office, Gazette Buildings. Glad to have Mr. Wright for a neighbor.

POCKET PICKED.—John Piper, tax collector of Conemaugh township, Indiana county, had his pocket picked in front of the American Hotel, on Friday morning, of a wallet containing $16 in money and his duplicate.

WE hear quite a number of prominent citizens mentioned in connection with the Mayoralty. "How fast does one woe tread upon another's heels!"—Hamlet.

SYNODICAL MEETING.—The Synod of the Free Presbyterian church, will convene in the Covenanter church, New Castle, on Thursday, October 25th at 11 o'clock, A. M.

WE understand Samuel McDonald, Esq., formerly of the Chronicle, has purchased the Evening Times establishment.

No further charges were made against Tax Collector Philpot on Saturday.

SNOW fell in various counties in this section of the State last week.

BOGUS quarter dollars are very plenty just now. Look out for them.

THE GRAIN TRADE—From the annual circular of Messrs J. and H. Procter, of Liverpool, dated October 2—The wheat crop is pretty generally reported to be various in quantity and quality. The most favorable reports of the yield come from two or three of the midland counties, from whence we understand, a good fair average produce of seasons may be expected. From nearly all the other corn growing districts of the kingdom the reports make the "cast" 8 acre of wheat deficient. In summing up our information and personal observation we take it that close on four quarters 8 acre of marketable wheat will be about the average yield this season; that four and a half to five quarters may be taken as a fair average of years, and that last year would probably have given a result of from six to seven quarters. Further, the average Scotch client weight 9 bushel of this year's crop cannot be stated at less than 2 lbs. 4 oz verge from 1d to 2d to 3d per bush. At the same time we must take into account that we have for the last four or five weeks been highly favored in the weather, and the farmer has had the good fortune of gathering for him his later crops in saving condition, and the quality much better than was anticipated.

Barley is called a full crop, and to have been secured in fair order, but the yield is coarse, and much of it manifests for best brewing purposes. The act of Parliament, however, which came into operation yesterday, permitting malt to be used by distillers under bond, will very likely enhance the price of barley generally.

The crop of Oats was at one time the most promising and bulky of any on the land, but all accounts concur in representing it as turning out sadly deficient in weight and quality.

The winter Beans were a great failure; the spring sown, however, are said to be full podded, though neither article is understood to be grown to the extent of former years.

The first hay crop was small; the second a good one, and satisfactorily secured; and together only about two-thirds of an average of former seasons. Secured in fine going on for shipment, and prices will probably rule high during the year; if this be so, all descriptions of feeding stuffs will doubtless be in demand.

Potatoes are now being spoken of. The tops were seemingly in fair condition by disease, and the growth was not for a few weeks back, but the disease has since set in very severely, and we have the larger proportion, and what is more, the worst raised are good in quality and condition. The produce, however, is said to be all deficient, when compared with that of late years.

The returns of payment show the least promise of the root cultivation, which may be ascribed to the dryness of the season; but a spell of rain would retrieve much. Pastures are in very small request, and the stock of cattle in the country look forward to high prices guiding our grain markets.

As regards our continental advices, they do not encourage the expectation of our obtaining from that quarter, for any considerable time, and if the present bulky supplies must be drawn from the United States and Canada.

The stocks of wheat and flour and other articles held here (except Indian corn,) are very light, and probably not much over one-half what they were at the same period last year. Of Indian corn a considerable quantity is in store.

The mode in which the greater part of the gold sent from this side has been obtained by the Bank of France is a matter of interest to have been by accumulation paper he sent the houses employed in the transactions, but since by by large sums entering the market of all the bills of exchange which could be procured. The whole payments now in progress to the extent of 80,000,000 francs or 3,200,000 sterling, are transmitted to London that could with instructions for the proceeds to be remitted to Paris in gold. On the gold being received in Paris there is the payment for it to M. St. Paul of scrows, each piece of the notes of that institution) and in this way the affair of the Bank of France is completed. It is not to be supposed that the amount of bills naturally obtained in this way would have formed a full equivalent for the gold imports. The effect of the high prices offered attracted bills from other quarters of the continent, and also from other parts of London, and thus composed of all the floating claims on London that could be presented to the Paris market from the trading parts of France and of other countries, and thus enabled the Bank of France to complete the negotiation of the remaining $1,000,000 was managed in the same way, in amounts of 200,000 francs at a time, but the whole 4,000,000 has been so obtained, it may be remarked as the withdrawal of an amount which must, soon or later, come back.

In all instances, the average total of claims on London afloat on the continent is greatly exceeding the actual rates of Exchange are not against us to $10,000,000, and that the Bank of France has a greater right to the command in relation to the continent is presently to that extent than it ever had before, and that the Bank will be encouraged to regain its former position on the continent. Paris and Amsterdam for 1854 $4,000,000, that would otherwise, in the course of trade, have gone elsewhere, and in stopping in this country. Doubtless all of the negotiable bills on London will be sent to Paris for realization, collected together, and sent over for realization in the same manner as those on Paris are now sent to London and presented, we could at any time draw thereon as occasion required, and thus avoid the inconvenience of sudden raising of the rate of discount by the Bank of England when it pronounces in a legitimate, instead of an artificial demand for money, and the Bank of England would be in a position to render any reasonable assistance to the commercial community, to call in from abroad every amount that may be available.—London Times.

The supply of money offering on call is considerably increased in the last two days, and is in excess of the demand. The abundance among the stock brokers is greater than we have noticed since August, when the banks were compelled to loan their funds at extremely low rates. The supply of bankers' balances is also increasing somewhat, but not to any great extent. The street rates remain unchanged.

The activity in the Government loans continues in the street. The private orders, which are mainly for investment, are coming in freely, and the supply in the hands of the speculators is very much reduced. The advance in the rate of discount by the Bank of England is mostly a subject of comment to Frenchmen as far as we have heard, and the general impression is that the rate of the bank is fixed at 5% per cent, money is not scarce in France, and the rate of discount is likely to be abundant on the most favorable terms, and that the opening the discount at 5% per cent and the favorable condition of monetary affairs in London it was believed would not long remain. The amount of bullion has also been raised by the bank of France to 8% cent.

The fact of the large amount of suspension of the Bank of France, but we had not seen it noticed in the London journals. The real wants of real country will probably be supplied, and the bank will be supported, and we hear that gold is already beginning to be sent here for the purchase of breadstuffs. Some has been sent to France, we are told, been already shipped.—N. Y. Tribune.

France and England are not the only countries obliged to have recourse to the London market for money. The government of Prussia will pay breadstuffs, principally wheat, to the amount of 1,000,000 thalers, or $750,000. The purchases are to fill the government magazines. By this means the Prussian government intends to keep down the price of bread, which has risen to such a height as to heavy losses on prices of bread, which otherwise might be sold at 12 to 15 per cent, especially as they are limited by the Maximum Law. In Russia the price is as high as 8 francs. As it is supposed that France must be supplied with wheat to the amount of 40 millions of dollars, adding to it the above sum destined for Prussia and Russia, nearly twenty millions will be sent here for our produce from Hamburg alone.—Ibid.

LIVERPOOL, MEDAL MARKET.—The demand for manufactured iron continues good, but dealers are unwilling sellers by the present rates for merchant bars, and the quarterly meeting, at which it is expected by many that 50s per ton will be declared, is looked for with considerable curiosity, particularly since the serious change in the money market. Pig iron has also experienced the anxiety of speculators to realize, the quotations having declined 1s per ton since our last report. The Tudor is in 57, 6W, $8,00 @10,00, &c., &c. Also, a large assortment of Marks' do., near 41d.
