PITTSBURGH:

SATURDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 27, 1855.

COURT OF QUARTER SESSION.—Before Judges McClure Adams and Boggs.

FRIDAY, Oct. 26.

Court convened at nine o'clock.

Commonwealth vs. Louisa Stimple, John Y. McLaughlin, William Altenberg, George Seitz and Robert Murry. Indictment, forcible entry and detainer, on oath of James Duncan and Barbara Mexne. Verdict not guilty, and prosecutors to pay the costs.

Commonwealth vs. John Nerod. Idictment, assault and battery, on oath of Henry Stockman. Verdict, guilty, and defendant sentenced to pay a fine of 6¼ cts. and costs.

James, John and Patrick Welch, convicted of an assault and battery on oath of Patrick Murphy, were sentenced to pay the costs.

Commonwealth vs. James Crawford and James Dawson, Indictment, misdemeanor in office and contempt; on oath of John W. Crawford. The defendants are supervisors of Ohio township.

The indictment sets forth that by an act of the Legislature approved April 3d, 1851, a public state road from New Brighton to Allegheny City was authorized to be surveyed, located and set for public use travel and convenience; that on the 2d day of December, 1851, the survey was made and drafts thereof filed of record that the part of said road from the farm of Wm. Morrison in Ohio township to Coopersville in Ross ane Ohio townships was validated and legalized by the legislature on the 5th of April, 1852. Farther, that on the 28th of May, 1855, an order of the Court of Quarter Sessions was issued on the supervisors of Ohio township for the immediate opening of the said road through said township (Ohio,) of which James Crawford and James Dawson, the supervisors, had due notice. Farther, that the said supervisors have wholly unlawfully and contemptuously refused and neglected to employ laborers to open and clear the said road, and have wholly neglected to take care that the road should be opened, cleaned, and amended so that the citizens can pass and repass.

The defence was that this suit was substituted soon after the defendants were elected supervisors and before they had time to do their duty with regard to the opening of the road; that there was not sufficient money in the township treasury to do the work, &c.

The case occupied the Court all day.

THE CORN SHELLER.—This wonderful machine is creating a perfect furor in the "rural districts." We copy the following tall puff from the Brownsville Clipper:

"THE 'CORN SHELLER.'—There is scarcely an event which has happened in Pittsburgh for the last twelve months that has produced more excitement among all classes of people, including, indeed, both sexes, than the exhibition at Masonic Hall, of 'Dickinson's Patent Corn Sheller.'"

Being in that city a few days since, we were induced to join the crowd of visitors to this simple, but truly wonderful machine, and where we found a large number of persons witnessing and admiring its perfect and life-like operations.—The machine is operated by turning a crank or small iron-rimmed wheel with one hand, while the other is occupied in plying it with ears of corn, every kernel from which, ends and all, and whatever be the shape of the cob, is removed in a twinkling, without either the least mashing of the grain or crushing of the cob, which is thrown out in one direction, while the corn is deposited in another.—The quantity of corn which may be shelled in a day by single hand is incredible; some say a hundred bushels, and from what we had the opportunity of witnessing, we have no reason to doubt the assertion.

Altogether, this is one of the most perfect, and when its immense value to the farmer is considered—and one could be with it a short time—it is one of the cheapest labor-saving machines we have ever seen. It is said the proprietor sold over thirty thousand dollars worth of State and County Rights within the space of eight days after first exhibiting it to the public inspection at Masonic Hall.

We are rejoiced to learn that the right for this county has been purchased by Messrs. Fraser of Fayette city, who possess both the means and the energy requisite to fill at the earliest practicable moment, not only the numerous orders now awaiting the reception of the machines from the hands of the manufacturer, but any amount of orders which may hereafter be given.

The price of a "Sheller," is, we believe, only about ten dollars, and the Messrs. Frazer are not only procurring from the manufacturer, a large quantity of them, but are fitting out several teams to be sent therewith into the different townships of the county; and in which, it should be recollected, no one can legally use one of those "Shellers" unless purchased of them, or by their permission. We understand, also, that they will sell a few township rights, for a compensation that will render it a profitable speculation to the purchaser."

DICKINSON'S CORN SHELLER, a clever invention like this, which does its work perfectly, cost but a trifle, and is useful to every one, is certain to attract a large share of public attention. Since the proprietor has been engaged in disposing of the rights for Dickinson's Corn-Sheller in this city, it has caused as much excitement as the advent of Jenny Lind did. Indeed we can safely say, that more persons have been at the Masonic Hall to see the corn sheller, than ever went there to see Jenny Lind or any other celebrity. And the reason is obvious, for the excitement of the one was an hour's wonder—a transient gratification, while the other, although but a simple machine, which does not cost more than a Jenny Lind ticket cost, has the great and permanent value of utility. In speaking of it only yesterday, one of our oldest and best machinists, Mr. Luther Ballard, a man who is perfectly at home in all the details of the best mechanical contrivances ever invented, remarked, that for cheapness, simplicity, and perfect and effectual adaptation for the purpose designed, it was the most complete machine he had ever met with, and, said he, it will sell, too, for a life-long experience among machinery, I never saw a useful invention which could be sold cheap, that was not a fortune to its owner. And he was right, for this corn sheller is making fortunes for all who have gone into the speculation—and large numbers have done so. States, parts of states and counties have been purchased by individuals who have given up other business for this certain speculation. The price asked in proportion to the territory is so little, that there is, in fact, no risk. The State of Illinois, for instance, one of the best and largest corn-growing States in the Union, offers a speculation of at least $50,000, even if only one farmer to ten, in the State, buys a machine. It is still in the market, and whoever obtains the right to it, can see by a careful arithmetical calculation, that what we say is correct. Here is a great chance for somebody—no, not a chance—it is a certainty of fortune.—Dispatch.

WHAT STRANGERS THINK OF US.—Mr. Wharton, formerly of the Wheeling Intelligencer, now of the Missillon News, paid our city a visit recently, and thus gives his impressions:

"We spent a day in Pittsburgh last week, and could not fail to observe how quickly a city of manufacturing power will recuperate from a commercial depression, or any other calamity. Ten years ago the whole heart of Pittsburgh was laid in ruins by fire. Few even remember that such an event ever occurred. The wand of the magician passed over and the wound was healed. Last year there was a commercial panic swept over her as the pestilence has sometimes done over other cities; but you can now discover no vestiges of it. Her merchants, bankers, mechanics and manufacturers are as busy now as ever. There is not a hammer idle nor a furnace fireless. The wharf is thronged with boats and busy men; the fires that are not quenched burn red on the neighboring hills, and lick up the darkness, as with serpent's tongues, and smoke rolls up as it were forever and ever towards the heavens. Pittsburgh is not remarkable for beauty, but a busier place was never staked out.

They make everything almost at Pittsburgh, from a steam engine or a rail-bar to a half-inch tack, and find customers for all. Pittsburgh is the natural point for the purchase of manufactures in this vicinity, and we trust the connection between us may become daily more intimate."

DISTRICT COURT.—Before Hon. Moses Hampton.

THURSDAY, Oct 25, 1855.

James, Kent and Santee vs. Wm. Magill. Trial proceds.

Conroy vs. Ochse. Mr. McCandless moves to take off the non-suit.

Bank of Geauga vs. Nicholson & Payne.—Judgment confessed for $668,39.

Elder et al. heirs of Thomas Cromwell vs. the Bank of Pittsburgh. This suit was discontinued on payment of costs.

FRIDAY, October 26.

The Jury charged in the case of James, Kent and Santee—action on an alleged false return—and after the Court had adjourned, a sealed verdict was returned.

O. & P. R. R. MACHINE SHOP.—We are gratified to learn that the O. & P. R. R. Co. have authorized the reception of proposals for building their machine shops on the ground given them by Gen. D. Jarvis and others for that purpose, near their station, in this town. This will involve an expenditure of money in our midst, and the employment of some 30 or 40 more hands, giving support probably, to 200 persons directly, and involving patronage of thousands to our merchants and procure grocers—Massillon News.

We had the pleasure yesterday of a visit from J. D. Cleveland, Esq., one of the editors of the Cleveland Plain Dealer

ASSAULT AND BATTERY WITH INTENT TO KILL.—TWENTY-TWO DEFENDANTS.—About eleven o'clock on the night of Tuesday, the 24th, a row occurred at a ball in the house of Mr. Sharrer in Reserve township in which a man named Frederick Weaver was terribly beaten and abused and the bridge of his nose broken. Mr. and Mrs. Sharrer were also maltreated.

Weaver is confined to his bed and is considered in a very precarious condition. He sent for Mayor Adams on Thursday and made oath charging twenty-two different persons with assault and battery with intent to kill. Ten were arrested, viz: Charles Wickline, Henry Snayman, James Stewart, John Heron, Joseph Wigley, Edward Nuttle, William Bolie, Robert Fairman, Jeremiah Coulloe and John Huff. The first five were admitted and the others committed to jail. They will all have a further hearing on Thursday next, at ten o'clock. Twelve more are yet to be arrested.

THE LECTURE.—Mr. SAXE's lecture was listened to last evening by a very large audience. The course begins auspiciously, and inspires hope that our citizens will nobly sustain the Mercantile Library Association this winter. Of the lecture we can only say, it was one of Saxe's most brilliant efforts. His theme—"The Press"—was well handled, and we can bear the satire for the encomiums that came after it. As a poem, it was worthy of the genius of Mr. Saxe, and was marked by that nice rhythmic beauty and melody which characterizes all his poetry.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.—Rev. Alfred Cookman will preach a sermon before the Young Men's Christian Association, in Christ's Church, on to-morrow evening at seven o'clock.

Young men are particularly invited to be present.

Members of the Association, (active and associate,) will pleas occupy the block of pews on the right-hand side of the pulpit, middle aisle.

By order of the lecture Committee.

Rev. David Yerkes of Holidaysburg, will preach in the Union Baptist Church, Grant street, Sabbath evening at quarter past 7 o'clock.

THE Steam Fire Engine is to be tried this afternoon on Liberty street, corner of Wayne.

THE Evening Times ceased its existence last evening.

TELEGRAPHIC.

ST LOUIS, Oct. 26.—Our dates from Fort Laramie are to the 29th ult. Col. Cooke is ordered to the command at Fort Riley. Harney would leave Laramie on the 29th to an established post at White Earth River, and chastise the Minneargoo Indians. The most insolent hostile tribe in the country are the Alligator and Brute Indians. They had agreed to deliver the murderers of the mail party to Harney, and to confine themselves to the prescribed district in the country. Little Thunder was not killed at Blue Water. The general impression at Laramie is that there will be no more fighting. The winter had set in with great severity.

A court martial ordered for the trial of Col. Howe had been dissolved without transacting business on account of irregularities in the order.

Col. Summers with seven companies of cavalry are en route for Laramie.

The Santa Fe mail arrived at Independence on the 22nd with dates to the 1st inst. Galleo is elected to Congress. There is a strong Anti-American feeling in the country.

The Indian troubles have measurably ceased, a treaty having been made with the Apaches.

The misunderstanding between Kit Carson and the Government relative to his feeling towards the Indians, resulted in the suspension of Carson by the Government.

Col. Brooks and Capt. Evall would leave for the States in a few days.

The mail party saw very few Indians.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—The Washington Correspondent of the Journal of Commerce telegraphs that the Central American question has assumed a new aspect and Mr. Buchanan is charged with its adjustment under new instructions.

No demand has yet been made for the recall of Mr. Crampton.

The steamer St. Louis will take the place of the Union which returned yesterday, and will sail on Sunday.

The Times, Washington Correspondent writes that the seizure of the bark Amelia at Port-au-Prince was made because she sailed under false colors; she formerly belonged to the Quitman Cuban Squadron.

In the matter of the Government Survey of the Attriatic Canal route, the authorities have so far acceded to Mr. Kelly's propositions as to authorize him to select an officer from the Navy and two from the army, to which the Naval and army departments will give such facilities as may be in their power. The government is understood to have given the maps of Mr. Kelly's survey unusual attention and consider the practicability of the measure fully demonstrated.

ALBANY, NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—The American party are holding a large and enthusiastic Ratification meeting at the capitol this evening. Erastus Brooks of the New York Express and S. G. Havees of Buffalo are speaking, one in the capitol and the other outside.

BOSTON, Oct. 26.—Dates from St. Joseph to the 8th have been received by arrival at this port. Santa Anna with his daughter and a numerous suit had arrived there recently and been visited by the Governor, American Consul and all the other dignitaries

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 26.—The Counsel for Passmore Williamson, repeated their application to Judge Kane to-day, for leave to present a petition from him. District Attorney Vandyke opposed the reading of the petition and Judge Kane said he could hear a petition from the applicant other than as a petition for permisson to purge himself from the contempts he had committed. After discussion an argument was commenced upon the question whether the Court could entertain a petition from a person in contempt. Charles Gibbons and Mr. Meredith argued on behalf of the petitioner. The matter was postponed before Mr. Meredith had concluded. It will be resumed to-morrow.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—In the Synod of the Dutch Reformed Church to-day the subject of the admission of the classes of North Carolina was taken up from the table and after being earnestly discussed. COFFEE—There is but little doing to-day in Coffee, but the market continues as for some days past very firm. We have reported sales of 100 bags Rio at 11¼ cts. and 160 bags rejected do. at 10¾ cts. There is some speculative inquiry, but the trade do not seem disposed to operate heavily at the rates demanded by the holders. We note the import to-day, per Danish brig Selma, of a cargo of about 4,000 bags from Rio de Janeiro. The stock of Rio Coffee, including the cargo of the Selma, is about 22,000 bags.—Baltimore Sun.

THE HOG AND CATTLE TRADE.—There has been a fair amount of contracts for Hogs made during the week, and at rather better prices; a few lots for November delivery having been sold at $6,85, and one lot at $7,00. For November delivery holders are asking $7,00, as a general thing, but there are very few willing to pay this rate.

Beef packing has commenced, and one or two houses are now in operation. We have no change to notice in prices of cattle. Ordinary to fair sell at $6,00 to $6,75 per cwt net, and good and choice $7,00@7,50. The supply is good, and the market firm at these rates.—Cin. Price Current.

At Philadelphia, Money rates rule at 7@8 per cent. for prime paper, and for second class names 10@12 per cent.

At Boston, Money is quicker and call loans are 6 to 7 per cent, some of the Banks having felt obliged to contract to a moderate extent. Paper is not offered freely, but rules at 8 per cent. for the best grades. The Banks are still losing specie.

At New Orleans the Money market is easy, and exchange very weak.

We learn from Washington that the Banking movement of the United States, as made up at the Treasury Department, presents the following important aggregates:

OSWEGO WHEAT TRADE—The inactivity noticed towards and at the close of our last review, has continued through the week. The receipts of New York foreign and domestic are larger than for any previous week this season, being over and five hundred bushels. The orders from the Michigan where we obtain our largest supply are about 500,000 bushels, and the imports from Canada are correspondingly large. From Toledo the receipts were very fair, while from Detroit only one cargo was received. The shipments by canal are 171,062 bus being 362,720 bus less than the imports by Lake, which were as follows:

There has been an active movement in coal loans to-day, and it has been difficult to borrowable paper. The banks are calling in to some extent, and the usual sources of supply do not yet yield freely. Yesty borrowers on 6 @ 6½ % cent over night legal interest, for short loans. The supply of paper is not pressing on the market, and rates continue at full 6 cent. Outside of the street there is no scarcity of money, business appears to be perfectly healthy. The merchants are receiving free remittances from the interior, and all the great interests of the country are manifesting activity. Many one to one more about in the neighborhood of the board of brokers would suppose that the end of the world was near at hand, from what one side of that atmosphere the sun shines clearly and the skies are bright. We speak only of the present: what may be the appearance of affairs should commercial disaster overtake England and France, we will not undertake to predict.—N. Y Tribune.

THE YIELD OF COPPER FOR 1855.—The following tables shows the amount of Copper that the Agents of the different mines are confident of bringing to ship the present season. A large proportion has already gone below, some of the mines having completed their year's business; in the others, the estimates are formed from the amount of copper in sight and on the docks. The tables will be found to be nearly if not quite correct:

Money leaders are asking 1 @ cent, more on mercantile paper; the rates of interest on call loans being 6@7 per 100 $ cent., and upon the Magnetawan 10@12 $ cent. The offerings at Bank have somewhat increased this week at the Wall street institutions, though, as a general remark, the supply continues to be quite scanty. The demand is pressing. The large Banks are disposed to meet it with customary liberality. Specie shipments continue. The Stock Brokers find money easy to obtain at 6 per cent. Call loans are made at 6 per cent. for the best grades. The Banks are still losing specie.

At New Orleans the Money market is easy, and exchange very weak.
