PITTSBURGH GAZETTE

PUBLISHED BY D. E. WHITE.

PITTSBURGH:

SATURDAY MORNING, NOV. 10, 1855.

Advance Payments.—Hereafter no subscriptions will be taken for the Daily or Weekly Gazette, unless payment is made in advance. Wherever the time is up to which the subscription is re ceived, it will be invariably stopped, unless the subscription is renewed by advance payment. All transient advertising, of every description, will be required to be paid in advance. The only exceptions will be where special monthly or yearly contracts are made. sept14dw

To Advertisers.—Neither the Editorial Rooms or Printing Establishment of the Daily Gazette, are opened on Sunday. Advertisers who desire their notices to appear in the paper on Monday morning, will please hand them in before 4 o clock, on Saturday.

Pittsburgh Weekly Gazette.—The extensive circulation of our Weekly Gazette offers to our business men most desirable medium of making their business known. Our circulation is between four and five thousand, reaching almost every merchant, manufacturer and shop-keeper in Western Pennsylvania, and Eastern Ohio.

THE RACE OF ENDURANCE.—It is impossible to look at the late contest between Judge Kane and Passmore Williamson otherwise than as a race of endurance between the two, the former striving to see how long he could endure the contempt and scorn of the people, and the latter for what time he could bear up under an unjust and tyrannical persecution. Nor is it difficult to see that in this race the Judge has been beaten.—For a while he maintained a sturdy front, would hear of nothing from his victim but absolute submission, and carried his warfare upon the well-settled law of the country with a high hand; but Williamson had too much back-bone for him. Standing up on his reserved rights, he claimed, one after the other, the means of protection thrown around him by the constitutions of the State and Nation; and as these, by ruthless assumption on one hand and cringing subserviency on the other, were swept away from under him, he fell back upon public sympathy and the power of physical sufferance, and has come off conqueror. Every point assumed by the judge at the outset of the case has been yielded by him. He committed Williamson for contempt in saying that it was not in his power to produce Wheeler's negroes, alleging that all the proof was against him and that he was guilty of perjury; he literated and reiterated his determination to put up with nothing less than the production of the negroes in answer to the writ of habeas corpus; and fortified his demand for their production by long-winded decisions in favor of the right of southern men to hold their slaves as slaves upon the soil of Pennsylvania: but all to no avail. The negroes were not forthcoming; and at last, by the force of legal principles which he dared not deny, he was compelled to direct interrogatories to be put upon which the defendant might file answers to acquit himself of the charge of contempt, and then he discharged him, as innocent, upon the very same answer for making which he had been declared guilty. A cleaner back-out was never before witnessed, either on the bench or off of it.

The only salve to the Judge's wounded honor was found in the application of Williamson for leave to purge himself of the contempt with which he stood attached, and this is construed, by his Honor's indiscreet friends, into an acknowledgment that he was guilty of contempt. Such consolation is so pitiful that it is hardly worth while to mar it; yet even those who use it must feel contemptible in doing so. The statement of a fact, that he had been committed for contempt, and an application for leave to "purge" himself, in legal phrase, by showing that he was innocent of it, was just the reverse of an acknowledgement of guilt. And so Judge Kane felt it to be; for instead of making the contempt binge, as at first, upon his answer to the writ, he made it turn upon his intention altogether, which was just as apparent at first as at last.

All the while that Williamson was enduring false imprisonment for righteousness sake, Judge Kane was suffering condemnation at the hands of the public, the bar, the press, and, we have no doubt, the bench also, if the bench had had a mouth to give itself utterance. Whether his own conscience stung him for his guilty act, or whether he was capable of remorse, can never be told by any but himself; but that he felt the lashings of public indignation is evident from the way he writhed under them. Once or twice he affected indifference; but those who are callous enough to feel such indifference never make a parade or boast of it as he did, nor yield to strokes unfelt. He is a living example, not only of the wholesomeness of public opinion, but of the power of public contempt. Henceforth he dwells in the limbo to which all objects of general execration are consigned.

But there are other trials in store for him than those he has passed through. Only so lately the triumphant persecutor, his friends are now crying out that he is persecuted! The service of a writ upon him in Delaware county, while on a casual visit there, on a suit for false imprisonment instituted by Mr. Williamson, is made the occasion of a tremendous howl of agony and desperation. The Pennsylvanian whines terribly, and threatens any amount of rebellion, among the rest that Judge Kane will not suffer himself to be tried in Delaware county, with honest country jurors and before an upright judge. But we can hardly see how he is to help himself. He is not omnipotent; and defendants are not usually choosers as to the tribunals before which they will be tried. He will have an opportunity, at any rate, of testing the sovereignty of the State, so lately spurned by him; and if he has any taste for experiments in legal jurisprudence, he will be able to gratify it in his own person. If, as his organ the Pennsylvanian hints, he is to be cheated in this suit before Judge Haines, of the Delaware district, he can solve the problem of Hudibras—

> "Whether the pleasure is as great
> In being cheated as to cheat."

PROCEEDINGS OF THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF HOMŒOPATHY, FOR 1855.—The sessions for this year were held at Buffalo, New York, last June. We are indebted to Dr. J. P. Dake, of this city, the general Secretary, for a copy of the pamphlet proceedings, which contains the interesting and important papers read before the body. Although but a small number of the physicians practising Homeopathy throughout the country are members of this Institution, yet the number of names recorded, and ability manifested by the proceedings, show to what an immense growth the practice of Homeopathy has attained in the course of a few years. The next session will be held in Washington City.

OUR BOOK TABLE.

THE HAHNEMANN EXPOSITOR, or, an Earnest and Scriptural Exposition of the question, will we know our friends in heaven? By Rev. H. Harbaugh, A. M. Ninth Edition. Philadelphia: Lindsay and Blakiston.

This is one of three vols. each complete in itself, on a connected subject. That the work has reached the ninth edition, speaks well for it. The theme is one that comes home to the heart of every one, and the reader will find it handled very ably in this volume.

A YOUTH FROM THE FIELDS HEAD OF THE MEDICAL PROFESSION: or, Memoirs of Eminent Physicians, by J. H. Brown, A. M., M. D. Philadelphia, Higgins and Perkinpine, 1855.

The Memoirs are on Drs: Good, Hope, Bateman, Goodman, Gordon, Broughton, Capadose. It is refreshing to see such intellects, bowing at the shrine of truth, while engaged in analyzing the physical machine, so fearfully and wonderfully made, as the body of man.

CHRISTIAN TRIBUTE; the Testimony of Reason and Revelation to the existence and character of the Supreme Deity. By Rev. Archer Thompson, M. A. Harpers.

This is a prize essay; 208 manuscripts were presented on the occasion. The premium awarded for this production was about $9000. A wealthy merchant of Aberdeen, who died 1784, set aside sixteen hundred pounds to be appropriated every forty years; this is the second prize. All the above for sale by J. L. READ, 78 Fourth street.

We are indebted to Hon. David Ritchie for a copy of the Patent Office Report of 1854, Agricultural Department.

A YANKEE TAKEN IN.—An ingenious downeaster who has invented a new kind of "Love-Letter Ink," which he had been selling as a safe-guard against all actions for breach of promises of marriage, inasmuch as it entirely vanishes from the paper in two months after date, was recently "done brown" by a brother downeaster, who purchased 100 boxes of the article, and gave him his note for 90 days. At the expiration of the time, the inventor called for payment, but on unfolding the scrip, found nothing but a piece of blank paper. The note had been written with his own ink.

MADEMOISELLE PARODI was greeted last night with the largest audience that ever assembled at a Concert in Pittsburgh. City Hall, seated for 2500, was crowded throughout with a most intelligent and appreciative audience.

And never have we seen an audience better pleased. The vast crowd of listeners went away delighted. STRAKOSCH was all himself, and brought wondrous music out of the piano, fully maintaining his high reputation. Madame Strakosch rendered her part of the programme excellently well; and PARODI achieved a complete triumph. Her "Casta Diva" was vehemently applauded, as was several other of her pieces; and after she had given "Carino Sentiun pocho," she was so rapturously encored that she came forward and sung the Marseillaise with extraordinary energy and spirit, bringing down the house with most tempestuous plaudits. It was a rich treat; and the enthusiasm with which she sung it stirred the American blood almost as thoroughly as the song usually does the French. It was the crowning achievement of the evening.

MADAME STRAKOSCH sung several Scotch ballads very beautifully, and the audience, as all American audiences do, testified the great pleasure they felt at hearing familiar airs given in classical style.

SIGNOR LEONARDI has a fine baritone voice and is a valuable addition to the troupe.

Another concert will be given, we are pleased to learn, on Monday evening, when "I know that my Redeemer liveth," the Marseillaise, and other musical gems will be given, the programme being a very rich one. Of course the opportunity will be improved by all who cherish a love for artistic music.

We would suggest to the manager that if there are foot lights to the stage, the use of them would much improve the effect; and that the hall needs to be better ventilated than it was last night. Much inconvenience was felt from the great heat of the room, which can be remedied by opening the upper sashes.

CORRECTION.—In an article copied yesterday from the Pennsylvanian, respecting an "Important trial at the Crystal Palace" of Scales, a very provoking blunder occurred through the omission of a single word. As printed, the commencement of the article read thus:

"The trial was confined to the relative merits of the celebrated Fairbanks Scales, manufactured by Duryee & Forsyth, Rochester, N. Y., and a newly patented scale manufactured at Vergennes."

It should have read thus:

"The trial was confined to the relative merits of the celebrated Fairbanks Scales, Scales manufactured by Duryee & Forsyth, Rochester, N. Y., and a newly patented scale,," &c.

The error was provoking, inasmuch as it represented Messrs. Duryee & Forsyth as being the manufacturers of Fairbanks' Scales, when in fact they are simply the manufacturers of a competing Scale of their own. The reader will remember that Fairbanks Scale was the only one that stood the test.

LITTLE MIAMI RAILROAD.—We have the pleasure of presenting, this morning, the advertisement of the Little Miami road, one of the most important connection we have with the city of Cincinnati. There is no finer, or better managed railroad in the country than the Little Miami, as all who have passed over it know. Very few accidents, have ever occurred on it the trains run regularly on time, the offices are accommodating and attentive, and the agents at Cincinnati and elsewhere are gentlemanly and obliging men. Travelers to the west, who on take this road in their route, will find it all that they can desire. See advertisement.

Our correspondent Inspector telegraphs as follows:

WASHINGTON, Wednesday Evening.

Important dispatches from London have been received. Mr. BUCHANAN transmits the final answer of the British Government on the Central American negotiation. Our ultimatum is rejected and correspondence is closed. Both Governments are released from the CLAYTON and BULWER Treaty. Great Britain retaining her glories, and protectorate, and we withdrawing from our anti-annexation clause. Assurance, however, of peaceful views are exchanged.

MR. BUCHANAN is still acting, but expects to leave for the United States about the 10th of this month.

Reinforcements have been sent to GENERAL SMITH in Texas with instructions to prevent incursions into Mexico.—N. Y. Cour.

NEW JERSEY ELECTION.—The result of the election in the State of New Jersey is considered to be a Democratic victory. The election was not as important as usual, being confined to the choice of lesislative Representatives and county officers. The Democracy was united, and the Whigs indifferent to a great extent. The Democrats have elected four of the six State Senators, and the next Senate will be composed of eleven Democrts, five Whigs and four Know Nothings. The Democratic majority in the Senate last year was two. This year the House will consist of thirty-seven Democrats, sixteen Whigs, six Know Nothings and one Temperance man, which is a gain of two members upon the Democratic majority of twelve last year.—N. Y. Tribune.

THE amount of gold brought down by escort from the Victoria mines during the first six months of the present year, had been £3,730,000 against £3,718,000 in the corresponding period of 1854. Owing to the greater security of the roads, the quantities brought by private hands would, if they could be ascertained, probably show a larger increase. The total shipped in the first half of this year had reached £4,630,000, against £4,310,000 in the same period of 1854.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

No Family Should be without Them.—We speak of M'LANE'S Liver Pills, which have become an indispensable Family Medicine. The frightful symptoms which arise from a diseased Liver manifest themselves, more or less, in every family: dyspepsia, sick headache, obstruction of the menses, ague and fever, pains in the side, with dry, hacking cough, are all the results of hepatic derangement—and for these Dr. M'LANE'S Pills are a sovereign remed y. They have never been known to fail, and they should be kept at all times by families.

DIRECTIONS.—Take two or three pills on going to bed second or third night. If they do not purge two or three times by next morning, take one or two more. A single brandy pill should invariably follow their use.

The Liver Pill may also be used where purging is simply necessary. As an anti-bilious purgative, they are inferior to none. And in doses of two or three, they give astonishing relief to sick headache, also in slight derange ments of the stomach.

☞Purchasers will be careful to ask for DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS, and take none else. There are other Pills, purporting to be Liver Pills, now before the public. Dr. M'LANE'S Liver Pills, also his celebrated Vermifuge, can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in the United States, and Canada.

I believe it saved my Life—Jacob Wooster, of Bush Creek, New Berkshire township, says:

"For two years I suffered the Vertigo, Nausea and Headache, alleading Dyspepsia, sometimes so severely as to incapacitate me for my effort—at others, to confine me to my bed. My bowels were often so constipated as to oblige me to use the most powerful purgatives to relieve myself. Indeed, I at last found it necessary to use something of the kind constantly. Last fall I commenced taking BURNHAM'S HOLLAND BITTERS, and found it just what my case required. I cannot recommend it too highly, for I believe it saved my life." no9-d&w8

"A thing of beauty
Is a Joy Forever."

So sang the gifted poet Keats. What can be more beautiful than a fine head of Hair, that noblest of nature's adornments. Who that is young, but values the luxuriant locks of youth, and would preserve them; and who that is old but would even baldness. To all such we would commend LYON'S KATHAIRON, universally acknowledged to be the most valuable and the most delightfully perfumed toilet article ever prepared. The Greatest Medical Discovery OF THE AGE.

Mr. Kennedy, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pastures weeds a remedy that cures every kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula to a common Pimple.

He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples of the face.

Two to three bottles will cure the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ear and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing in the pastures, and along old stonewalls, should cure every humor in the system; yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start Therefore no in nor ands, hums or ha's about it smiting somebreast and not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know its effects in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I save it to children a year old; old people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, wormy colicky children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to a sick headache, one bottle will warn cure it. It gives great relief to catarrh and headache, for which reason it is used by thousands every day.

No change of diet is ever necessary—eat the best you can get. I have likewise an herb, which, when simmered in sweet oil, dissolves scrofulous swelling of the neck and throat in from three to four days. Price 50 cts. Price of the Medical Discovery $1 per bottle.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.—Adult, one table-spoonful per day. Children over eight years, dessert spoonful. Children five to eight years, teaspoonful. Any variation in direction can be made applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Dr. KENNEDY gives personal attendance in all cases of blood disease.

NEW ALBANY, Ind., July 4th, 1853.

To R. A. Fahnestock:

GENTLEMEN—Having sold your valuable Vermifuge for some time, and having seen it used for many years, we would recommend it to all as a safe, sure and valuable remedy for all cases of worms. In no instance have we ever seen any evil results following its administration, but always has it answered the purpose for which it was intended, and given entire satisfaction.

Believing that everything that has been set forth in regard to its virtues is strictly in accordance with our observations not only as practitioners, but as men of business, we would acknowledge it to be our duty to say, that it is the best Vermifuge now in use, and that its virtues are best known when tried.

Kendall's Double Acting Machine,
FOR RIVING AND SHAVING SHINGLES

THIS improvement is the result of long mechanical experience and is now presented to the public as the first and only practical machine extant, for riving and shaving shingles.

Its operations are entirely dissimilar from every thing of the kind heretofore offered, and the combination and construction are wholly original with the inventor. It both rives and shaves with the rift of the timber, by first splitting from the block a piece thick enough for two shingles, which is equally divided, and by passing through two sets of knives completes the operation, thus producing two shingles every revolution. This machine will rive and shave three thousand shingles per hour, of uniform thickness and taper, and every way superior to those made by any other process. Not only is it adapted to pine and other soft wood, but works to equal advantage hard timber of various kinds. For right of Territory or Machines enquire at the City Hotel or at H. H. RYAN'S furniture warehouse, Fifth st.

All interested in the improvements of the age, should not fail to call at St Fifth st., and examine the workings of the Double River and Shaver.

PATENT GROUND SAWS.

HAVING purchased from Mr. Wm. Southwell his Patent Right, for grinding circular saws and other saws, for which we have paid him a large sum, and we are the sole proprietors of this patent. We will reward any person giving information of infringements on the same. This is the only Machine ever invented that will grind a saw perfectly even in thickness.

They will require less set—will not heat while running—will run smooth—save lumber—and keep an edge longer than any other saws made—and are not liable to become untrue.

All our Saws are made from an Extra Quality of Cast steel, imported expressly for our own use, at much higher cost than generally used for Saws.

We respectfully inform all manufacturers of Lumber, that no Saw will be sent from this Establishment but what is of superior Steel and workmanship; the Temper will be found more even and uniform than the usual way.
