PITTSBURGH:
FRIDAY MORNING, DEC. 7, 1855.

THE WASHINGTON STREET STABBING AFFAIR—McCOY'S DEPOSITION TAKEN.—The frightful affray in the miserable hovel of Mary Bruce, on Washington street, and the serious condition of Constable McCoy, the person injured, has created great excitement throughout the city. It was the subject of general inquiry, and the most exaggerated and unfounded rumors were afloat. It was almost impossible to ascertain precisely the history of the affair from the fact that McCoy had as yet made no succinct statement and most of the other parties, witnesses of the fray, were in jail.

At three o'clock on Thursday afternoon, however, Ald. Major proceeded to the house of Mr. McCoy, on Logan street, near Pennsylvania Avenue, and took his deposition. It will be seen that his account differs in some material points from the published accounts of the affair.

Mr. McCoy deposed as follows:

I was coming up the steps from Bayardstown and I met with a Mrs. Connor; she asked me to go into Mary Bruce's and see if her sister was not in there; I went in and found her there; her name is Martha Weaver; I told her that her sister did not like her to be there; Margaret Donovan or Sands was there; also Mary Ellen Doak and Dan Dunham; they had whiskey there; there were three fellows came in; one of them was William Caughey; the other men I did not know; Caughey was sitting in the middle of the three; and we got into a difficulty; I cannot say whether he struck first or I first; all I struck with was my hand; I was not making an arrest at the time; I was only there at the request of Mrs. Weaver; it was a quarrel between ourselves; I had been drinking; Caughey then commenced stabbing me in the house; it seems to me that I left the the house and he followed me and stabbed and stabbed; I went out the back door and up the little alley; he stabbed and stabbed until some man said I was a dead man; I do not believe there was any one who assisted or encouraged William Caughey in his assault on me; I ran from him and I have very little recollection of anything until you (Ald. Major) came there; you were the first person I recognised; I recollect seeing Mr. Finch there; I ran from Caughey when he attacked me but I cannot recollect that he made any remarks; I did not go to the house for the purpose of making an arrest; I had no warrant to arrest any one; I believe it was the intention of Caughey to kill and murder me; I drank liquor at the house; I do not know that any liquor was drank after Caughey came in; all in the house were under the influence of liquor; I cannot say that I know a man by the name of Cross; I did not go for the purpose of arresting Cross; to my knowledge there was no one aided, abetted or assisted William Caughey in his assault on me; to my knowledge I did not strike at Caughey at any time with anything but my fist; have no recollection of striking him with a chair; I was under the influence of liquor.

I do not know or recollect what was the cause of the quarrel between us; I do not think that Caughey at any time struck me with his fist; (the knife taken from Caughey was here shown to deponent by Ald. Major;) this I am positive is the knife with which I was stabbed; I saw it in Caughey's hand.

Mr. McCoy was very calm and collected when he made the above deposition. Previous to administering the oath, Ald. Major remarked to him that he thought it his duty to inform him that he was lying in an exceedingly dangerous condition, and desired him to weigh carefully his words and endeavor to give as clearly and as correctly as possible every circumstance that occurred. McCoy, although very weak, proceeded to tell his story as above in a consecutive and lucid manner.

The physicians pronounced him somewhat better yesterday, but he has yet to encounter the most critical period. His chances for life are very slim.

Caughey is known to the police as a desperate rowdy. He has been engaged in several affairs of a similar character, but has heretofore eluded detection.

The house in which the stabbing occurred having been vacated by the arrest of the old hag, Mary Bruce, some persons yesterday entered the hovel and cleared it of all its furniture, pitching chairs, tables, and beds into a gulley under "the steps."

Caughey will have an examination before Ald. Major on Saturday next. Mr. M. Ang[illegible] does himself credit by his promptitude and energy in regard to the affair. He is engaged in collecting evidence, and is determined that justice shall be done to all the parties.

THE STABBING OF MR. MARTIN—HIS PROBABLE DEATH.—We regret to learn that Mr. John Martin, who was stabbed by the negro Brown near Mount Ezmont, on Saturday night last, was lying at the point of death yesterday, and was not expected to live through last night. Inflammation had set in.

We also learn that a quantity of the goods stolen from Mr. McKnight was yesterday found concealed in Martin's lairs, and there is no doubt that Brown was planing them there when Martin entered the barn. Seeing Cosler with a lot of apples, Martin said, "You thief! I will prosecute you." Brown supposing Martin, by watching him, had discovered that he was concealing stolen goods, immediately sprang upon him and inflicted the wounds which will in all likelihood result in death.

DISTRICT COURT.—Before Judge Hampton.

THURSDAY, Dec. 6.

Joseph Allen vs J. C. Buffum. Defendant's attorney confesses judgment to plaintiff for $243,63, with interest from the 21st of March, 1853, with stay of execution for ten days.

Jno. T. Cochran vs. W. H. Everson et al. Court direct the deposition of Rev. Samuel Williams to be taken.

Court meets again this morning at nine o'clock.

FESTIVAL FOR THE INFIRMARY.—The lady managers beg leave to inform a humane public that they design holding their sixth annual Festival for the benefit this meritorious Hospital, in Masonic Hall, Fifth street, on the 18th and 19th of December, the week preceding Christmas. As the condition of the institution requires a general effort for its relief, they respectfully solicit donations in money, and provisions for the refreshment tables, and useful and fancy articles for the sale—all of which may be sent to the Hall on the morning of the 18th inst.

FIRE.—The drug store of Nevin, McKown & Co. caught fire yesterday about half past eleven by the overflow of a vessel of boiling oil in the cellar. Some of the wood work of the back part of the store was burned, but no other damage was done. Had the fire got under headway, the whole block would have been in flames as it is full of combustible material—the store above Nevin & Co's being a drug store and that below a tobacco store. The firemen were promptly on hand.

SLANDER AND LIBEL SUIT.—Wm. H. Young and Chloe Ann Young, his wife, entered suit in the District Court yesterday against Henry A. Jackson for slanderous words, and libelous publication in the advertising columns of the Dispatch. The case grows out of a difficulty with regard to the Rev. J. M. Williams, pastor of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, whom Jackson charged with adultery with Mrs. Young—which accusation was, we believe, proved to be unfounded. Bail in $1,000 required. A capias was issued.

ANOTHER BURGLARY IN ALLEGHENY.—The house of William Lane on Sandusky street, Allegheny, was entered by burglars on Wednesday night. They got in through the front door by means of skeleton keys, one of which the robbers left in the key-hole in their hurry to get off. They ransacked the lower rooms of the house carrying off a few articles, when they became alarmed and put incontinently.

DISCHARGED.—Patrick Flaherty, Lawrence Foley, Stephen Foley and Bernard Claherty, the four Irish laborers who were arrested some weeks ago on a charge of creating a riot on the Steubenville, preferred by Albert Scott, and who were committed for further hearing, were yesterday discharged from jail—the prosecution being withdrawn.

An objectionable slander occurred in the resignations of the Associate congregation of Seventh street with regard to the death of the lamented Rev. H. W. Lee. The words, "if it meet with the approbation of his widow," appear in one of the resolutions.) As they were copied by us from the Westminster Herald, we are unable to account for so great a mistake. It was probably an error in transcribing. Mr. Lee was not a married man.

WE are informed that the twenty one years lease of the Denny and Schenley estates, on Prospect, Webster and other streets in that quarter of the city, expires on the first of April next, and that it is the intention of the owners not to re-lease any of the property but to sell. Intending purchasers to erect good brick buildings thereon.

OPENING OF THE NEW PORTAGE R. R.—This important link of the State Improvement was opened for business on Thursday, the great tunnel being completed and all the track laid. All the leaning places are henceforth dispensed with, and the State now has a continuous road across the mountains unobstructed by these great hindrances.

FIRE.—Two brick dwellings in East Birmingham, were destroyed by fire on Monday night, belonging to Mr. John Brown, and were CHOKED TO DEATH.—Wm. Knox, of Washington, while at supper, on Saturday evening last, choked to death in attempting to swallow a piece of meat before it was properly masticated. A surgical operation was performed, and after the removal of the meat, Mr. Knox breathed but once. Had the Doctor arrived a few minutes earlier, his life could no doubt have been saved.

COLLISION ON THE CENTRAL RAILROAD.—Thursday morning, two freight trains came into collision on the Penn'a R. R., near East Liberty. They were both going the same way, and [illegible] front ones slackened up, the other not being checked in time, a slight collision was the consequence. No one was injured. Three cars were considerably damaged.

J. S. FISK, Esq. one of the editors of the Daily Lafayette (Indiana) Courier, is in the city, stopping at the St. Clair. He is on a visit to our city for the purpose of obtaining advertisements from our manufacturers and others, and we have no doubt they will find it to their interest to advertise with him

DANGEROUSLY ILL.—We are pained to announce that Alderman McKenna, of the Third Ward, is seriously ill, with but faint hope of recovery.—He is suffering from a bilious attack and has been confined to his bed for a week past.

HORSE STOLEN.—A valuable horse, the property of Mr. Mergenthaler, was stolen from his stable in Kittanning, on Wednesday night last.—The thief was traced as far as Indiana, but escaped.

ACCIDENT.—A man named Wm. Given was jammed between the bumpers of two cars at the outer depot of the Pa. R. R., on Wednesday.—He was not seriously hurt.

FIRE.—The alarm of fire at seven last evening was caused by the burning of a box in the cellar of H. Straw's clothing store, on Market street.

AN insane person named Mrs. McCLAIN, who escaped last July from the City Farm, was taken back on Wednesday by Officer Frost.

INDIANA BRANCH RAILROAD.—This road is now completed to within about five miles of Indiana. It will be finished through in a few weeks.

TO-NIGHT is the last of the Opera. "Crown Diamonds" will be presented. The house will be crowded.

THE Duquesne Greys meet to-night for drill. The roll will be called.

A MAN had his pocket picked a night or two ago at the City Hall, of $18.

ARRIVAL OF THE ST. LOUIS.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.

Southampton has arrived, she brings London dates to the 21st ult.

The Africa arrived out on the 18th. The papers furnish interesting items not contained in the Halifax dispatch by the Africa.

Three magazines belonging to the French artillery were blown up near Inkermann, killing 70 soldiers and ten officers. The magazines contained 30,000 kilogrammes of powder 600,000 cartridges, and 300 charged shells all of which were destroyed.

A large quantity of Russian grain has been destroyed along the Greskeirian coast.

A terribly destructive fire occurred in Paris by which the government bakery was consumed. It contained 28,000 quintals of corn and an equal quantity of flour and buiscuits which were burned.

The ship America which was wrecked near Cabrion, and which was sold by the underwriters has been got off by the purchasers.

A large amount of Russian grain on the coast near Gherseheinau had been destroyed by an allied flotilla sent for that purpose. The grain was intended for the army in the Crimea and was packed in six tiers which extended along the coast for two miles.

The Czar has dismissed Prince Menschikoff as chief of his staff, and appointed Gen. Odlenburg in his stead.

Advices from Kars state that Gen. Mouravieff, overcome by his defeat before Kars had become insane, and that Gen. Bobusoff had been summoned to assume the command.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 6.

SENATE.—Mr. Hale's Resolution calling on the President for a copy from yesterday's report was taken up.

Mr. Hunter remarked that it was unusual to make seats cells before receiving the annual message which might contain the information desired.

Mr. Hale consented that the Resolution should be laid over, and moved that when the Senate adjourn it adjourn until Monday.

Mr. Hunter hoped not as the House may organize to-day.

Mr. Clayton remarked that such an adjournment would delay the reception of the President's Message, which the country is anxious to see.

Several Senators urged Mr. Hale to withdraw his motion.

Mr. Hale—In view of the fact stated by the Senator from Delaware on which I was entirely ignorant that the country is waiting with great anxiety for the message, I withdraw the motion. (Laughter.) The Senate then adjourned.

HOUSE.—Mr. Whitney withdrew the name of Humphrey Marshall as a candidate for Speaker, 16th trial—Richardson 72; Campbell 79; Pennington 9, Fuller 20; Wheeler 16; Banks 6; Smith, of Al., 14; Valk 3; Thomson 2; Dunyear, Mace, Nichols, Andrew, Oliver, Edmundson, Carlisse, one each.

WASHINGTON CITY, Dec 6.—The House on the 17th ballot voted as follows:—Campbell 69; Richardson 78; Pennington 9; Fuller 21; Wheeler 11; Banks 14; Smith, of Ala., 6; Thurston 2; Whitney, Dunyear, Mace, Nichols, Oliver, Zollicoffer, Walker and Lake each 1.—There being no election the House proceeded to another ballot.

18th ballot.—Campbell 67; Richardson 71; Pennington 14; Fuller 23; Wheeler 11; Banks 18; Smith, Thurston, Dunyear, Mace, Nichols, Oliver, Zollicoffer, Walker, Marshall, Hughesten and Davis, of Maryland, each 1.

20th Ballot.—Richardson 71; Campbell 48; Pennington 19; Fuller 22; Wheeler 12; Banks 23; Smith 2; Thurston 2; Coxe 2; Mace, Nichols, Oliver, Walker, Lake, Howard, Davis, of Md., and Clingman, each 1.

21st Ballot.—Richardson 71; Campbell 46, Smith 7; Thurston 2; Nicholson 2; Oliver, Mace, Walker, Howard, Davis, Dana and Aiken one each.—111 votes necessary to a choice.—106 last vote.

The members of the House are interchanging views to-night and endeavoring so to arrange matters that an organization may be effected without further delay, but their figuring cannot promise them a favorable prospect. The Democrats are resolved to stand firmly upon their platform, recently adopted in caucus, in the hope of eventually succeeding, seeing that the majority of the House in opposition to them cannot unite, but some of the latter are comforting themselves with the assurance that after several of their number have been complimented with a heavy vote, an election of Speaker will easily follow.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Herald's Washington correspondent telegraphed that all that the administration knows of the Kansas affair, is that Gov. Shannon has telegraphed the President for authority to protect the Sheriff of Douglas county in the execution of a process. The President replied that on the occasion of a rising, he would exercise all the authority he possessed, as the Sheriff is not a U. S. officer and could not seize under the act of Congress; the law, the execution of which has been opposed, must have been an act of the territorial legislature, and the President in such a case has no authority except that which the act of Congress confer to employ the militia of one or more States and land and naval force of the United States to suppress insurrection in any State or territory.

Mr. Greely, of the Tribune, telegraphed last evening as follows:—Governor Wampler Marshall, prevented his supporters from going to Mr. Fuller yesterday. He and his friends would probably support Richardson if that would assure his election. Mr. Banks, with all the friends he can carry, voted to-day for Campbell and part of Pennington's friends followed suit. I do not think is possible to carry Campbell's vote over 100 in any contingency. I understand the next rally of the anti-Nebraska members will be made upon N. P. Banks."

Another Tribune correspondent telegraphs that Mr. Fuller, in reply to the questioning of certain members, declares himself unequivocally in favor of admitting Kansas into the Union, with or without slavery, provided she has sufficient population and possesses other constitutional requirements. This declaration has produced considerable excitement, particularly among the Republican members.

The Pennsylvania delegates had a conference this evening and resolved to cling to Mr. Fuller. The Southern Know Nothings are holding a caucus this evening, the result of which has not transpired.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 6.—Four men who were employed in painting St. Alphonsus Church to-day were precipitated to the ground, in consequence of the breaking of the platform, and all were seriously and perhaps fatally injured.

Chief Justice Taney has disposed of his residence in this city and intends residing permanently in Washington.

WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 6.—It has just been ascertained beyond the possibility of cavil that a dispatch has been received from Mr. Buchanan, relative to Mr. Crampton's difficulty, the tenor of which is that the British government, in a courteous but positive manner decline giving such explanation as were demanded by our government, regarding the alleged violation of our neutrality laws by British agents. This aspect of affairs imposes on the American government very delicate obligations, and it will require all its wisdom to extricate itself from the present dilemma.

The governments of San Salvador, Honduras, and Costa Rica have strongly protested to this government against the recognition, by Mr. Wheeler, the U. S. Minister of the present Nicaraguan government. He has probably thus acted with the concurrence of our government, and however, in accordance with our uniform policy, whatever may be the objections on the part of the Central American States.

The government of San Salvador predicts that the present order of things in Nicaraugua will not long continue for reasons stated, and declare themselves resolved to exterminate all foreign adventurers who may invade the soil for revolutionary purposes.

WASHINGTON City, Dec. 6.—The Union of this morning contains a correspondence by telegraph between the President and Governor Shannon of Kansas. The dispatch of the latter says:—I desire to call upon the U. S. forces at Fort Leavenworth in order to preserve the peace of the territory, to protect the Sheriff of Douglas county, and to enable him to execute the legal process in his hands. If the laws are not executed, civil war is inevitable. An armed force of 1000 men, with all the implements of war, it is said, are at Lawrence. They have rescued the prisoner from the Sheriff, burned a number of houses and threatened the lives of the citizens. Immediate assistance is desired. This is the only way to save blood shed. Particulars by mail.

The President replied as follows:—All the power vested in the executive will be exerted to preserve order and enforce the laws. On the receipt of your letter, the preliminary measures necessary to be taken before calling out the troops will be promptly executed and you will be fully advised.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 6.—By the arrival of the steamship Perseverence to day we have dates from Galveston to the 1st inst. A bill was before the Legislature proposing to loan to the Railroad Companies $5000 for each mile of railroad finished after 60 miles shall have been furnished, the State to retain a mortgage on the road. It is believed the bill will pass. Several of the papers are urging the Legislature to instruct Gen. Houston to resign his seat in the Senate, on account of his anti-Southern sentiments.
