RAPE.—We mentioned on Wednesday that a rape had been committed near Washington. We have the particulars from the Commonwealth:

One of the most brutal outrages was committed near this place, on Thursday last, that it has been our duty to record for a long time. Catharine Coogle, a respectable German girl, living with the family of Wm. Taylor, had been in town, we believe, purchasing some groceries, and on her return, while in a slip of woods belonging to Mr. Wilson, she was met by a negro residing in this place, named Ben Sherrow, who choked and knocked her down; and in order to check her screams and resistance drew a large dirk-knife and threatened to take her life if she made any further alarm, and then succeeded in ravishing his half insensible victim. He then made his escape, and the girl returned to her home. On Saturday the Negro was arrested, and on Monday a hearing was had, before Esquire Judson, when he was committed for trial at the next Court.

The Washington Reporter says he did not succeed in committing the rape. The Reporter adds that the prisoner is a dangerous man—this not having being his first offence. Some years ago he was sentenced to the Penitentiary for one year, we believe, for the commission of an outrage upon a girl, some 10 or 12 years of age, which must not be named in a Christian land! He has since been committed to our jail for minor offences. It is to be hoped justice will now overtake him and the community be rid of so vile and atrocious a character.

On Saturday morning the girl was brought into town, and confronted with the prisoner in the Justices office. She instantly recognized Sherrow as the person who attempted the outrage upon her person. As may be supposed, the popular excitement was very great—at one time, running so high as to menace the villain with a sample of Judge's Lynch's dealing with such characters. The better sense of the people, however, got the mastery; and the prisoner was committed for trial at the next term of our Court.

SOLDIERS OF THE WAR OF 1812.—In purtuance of a recommendation of a National Convention of the Soldiers of 1812, held in Washington, in January last, that an adjourned meeting should be held on the 8th of January, 1856, a number of the surviving soldiers of this county, met at the Court House, on Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock.

After the meeting was properly organized, resolutions approving of the objects of the National Convention, were adopted, and the following gentlemen appointed delegates to represent the soldiers of this county:

John Grayson, John D. Davis, Peter Fleeger, Fred. A. Hasley, D. Ayres Hays, John Willock, John Davis, R. Trovillo, James Chambers, John Parks, John M. Davis, Henry Bolton, S. Bonafon, John Burker, Joseph McMasters, E. F. Pratt H. Brackenridge, Henry Long, John Clark, Alex. Carnahan, John Eckels and David Lynch.

The following resolution was also passed unanimously:

Resolved, That we tender our hearty thanks to the President and Directors of the Central Railroad, tendering to the old soldiers a free passage to and from Washington.

ABOUT RIDING.—Our late Grand Jury is getting famous. We take the following from a New York paper which grows funny over their presentment of female Equestrianism as are improperiety. It says:

Why this should stalke the jury of that enlightened county as an "impropriety" (so denominated in the presentment) we are at a loss to perceive. Are the members of it so opposed to woman's rule that they will not even let her rein in the saddle? Or perhaps it is the force of the association of religious ideas, the much shocked jurors of that vicinity having an objection to have their wives come to them like the Baptist's head—on a charger. Yet we see nothing in these objections, and cannot understand why in the region of which we speak, Allegheny mountain's may not be made more common than they have ever been, and we hope that the intelligent guardiance of public morality in the same place may ere long ascertain that a riding dress does not necessarily lead to say loose habits.

ARREST OF A THIEF.—About dusk on Thursday, three young men entered the hat store of Orr and Sargent on Wood street, and while one of them was pricing a hat the other two took between the nine or ten dollars from the drawer.—They then made off, and the boy, who, was attending the store, discovering the theft immediately informed the police. Officer Moon proceeded to a low doggery on Fifth street just above Wood, and arrested a young man named John Montagu, finding concealed in the cuff of his coat, the amount of money which had been stolen.—He was placed in the Tombs. Shortly after, High Constable Richardson brought a Mrs. Marmaux to the cell and she recognized Montagu as one of the persons who some days ago robbed her till of forty dollars. She lives on Virgin alley, near Liberty. Montagu is known to the police as an incorrigible thief. He has been before Court three or four times, but has always been acquitted. We hope the present charges may result in placing him where he cannot pilfer.

Dr. Durbin has received news from home, which will render it necessary for him to curtail his stay in this city. His fourth Lecture will therefore be omitted and he will deliver tonight his third and last of this course.

Those who have heard, either of his two former lectures will need no urging to induce them to return again, but to those who have not heard him we would say, do not fail to avail yourselves of this last opportunity or you will regret it.—We can promise you a most entertaining and instructive lecture, and at the same time you will have the satisfaction of contributing your mite towards the support of a most diserving institution.

CLOSE OF THE PANORAMA.—With to-morrow night's performance Hannington's much admired Diorsamic Panorama of the Russian War, closes at the City Hall, leaving for the South on Monday. Go where it will, it is sure to please, and has our best wishes for its future success.

There is to be an afternoon exhibition tomorrow at three o'clock. Heads of families and Schools would do well to avail themselves of this last opportunity of gratifying their juvenile charges for whom the price of admission is lowered to ten cents.

DEATH OF A CLERGYMAN.—Rev. Daniel McKinley, D. D., formerly pastor of the Franklin street Presbyterian Church, in this city, died at Chambersburgh, on the morning of the seventh inst. His disease was complicated; bronchial and dropsical. He has been gradually declining since last Spring. His bronchial affection almost entirely prevented conversation, during all his sickness, but he gave unmistakeable evidences of resignation, and faith, and hope, and his latter end was peace. The Church is deprived of the services of one of her best sons, and the Board of Domestic Missions loses a most successful agent.

ACCIDENT.—On Monday last, the locomotive of the mail train from the West, on the O. & P. Railroad ran into a tree which had been blown across the track, the night before, somewhere between Alliance and Canton. The locomotive was thrown from the track and turned bottom upwards. The tender and baggage car were considerable broken, but no one, either of hands, or passengers, were injured.

At the meeting of the Allegheny County Horticultural Society this week, the members took a vote to decide upon the three varieties of apples best for early summer cultivation. The vote was as follows:

Early Harvest Apple, 9; Summer Queen, 6; Sweet Bough, 6; Red Astrachan, 3; Early Golden Sweet, 1; Benoni, 1; English Codlin, 1.

ALL the Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church are at present in the city. They are holding their Annual Consultation in Christ's Church, Penn street, and their labors will not be concluded before next week. The Bishops will preach in the various Churches of the city on Sabbath next. More particular notice will be given to-morrow.

THE packet Pittsburgh during her recent downward trip, was caught in the storm and blown aground at the Sisters. She was compelled to lighten and spar off. One of the spars broke and its fall killed a deck passenger, named Thos. Riley, from Brownsville, Penna., and injured two others. The Defender lost the top of her pilot house in the gale.

YESTERDAY was as disagreeable a day as we ever experienced in this disagreeable climate.—The rain fell all day and the pavements were covered with a consumptive mixture which is aptly called "slush."

SERGT BARTLY, JR., Esq., has instituted a suit for blander against John Clemens, Esq., of Monongahela City, laying the damages at $3,000.

We understand the Street and Railroad Committees have effected an arrangement with Wood, Morrell & Co., of the Cambria Iron Works by which that firm are to have the privilege of laying a railroad track from the termination of the Pennsylvania Railroad at the foot of Liberty street along the wharf twenty feet below the line of Water street to a point opposite the south east termination of Penn street. W., M. & Co. are to lay the track at their own expense, and the city is to receive twenty five cents per ton wharfage. The cost of construction to be refunded from the wharfage of the first two thousand tons, and the track to revert to the city where W. M. & Co. have shipped their iron, amounting to about 8000 tons, which will be before the first of August next.

THE Pennsylvania R. R. Co. yesterday applied for an injunction against John Taggart, who is engaged in erecting a house on the ground of the Company near the Canal Bridge, on Seventh street. A summons was issued, returnable on Saturday.

FIRE.—The alarm of fire yesterday at noon was caused by the burning of a chimney in the house of William Alexander on Washington street between Webster and Wylie.

NEW DEMOCRATIC PAPER.—The Chronicle makes the following announcement: "We have serious thoughts of nailing the Democratic flag to our mast head, and under it battle for the good old cause."

PARDONED.—Gorman, the Pittsburgher, who was recently convicted of a felony at Louisville, and sentenced to the Penitentiary, has been pardoned by the Governor of Kentucky, there being strong doubts as to his guilt.

A COLORED woman named Mrs. Arnett with a family of seven children, of Connonsburg, is about emigrating to Liberia. Her oldest daughter will devote herself to school teaching in the African Republic.

A RASCAL stopped a lady named Mrs. Patterson on an alley in the Second Ward Alleghany, on Wednesday afternoon and attempted to rob her, but became alarmed and left.

A MAN employed in McKnights Rolling Mill, Birmingham, had his foot badly smashed on Wednesday afternoon by the falling of a large bar of iron.

CAUGHT will have a further hearing on Saturday. He was not finally committed on Wednesday as McCoy's physician was not willing to pronounce him as yet out of danger.

THE Genius of the West, a capital literary monthly, published by W. T. Coggeshall, of Cincinnati, is again on our table. Terms $1 per year.

HENRY A. JACKSON who was prosecuted by W. H. Young and wife for slander, was released on bail yesterday.

THE Malpractice Case continues in the District Court. The evidence was concluded yesterday.

ANOTHER process for costs in a tippling house case was lodged against John Nicholas yesterday.

TELEGRAPHIC.

ONE WEEK LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE BALTIC.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.

The Baltic has arrived but is detained below; some of her passengers have arrived in the city, and have furnished English papers in advance of her arrival at her dock.

Cotton has declined from ½ to ¾, closing firm. The sales of the week were 49,000 bales.

Flour has declined 6d per bbl., and Wheat from 1d to 2d.

Consols have advanced to 89¾.

There is no important intelligence from the Seat of War.

The principal feature of the news of the week is a variety of rumors all stating that at last there is a prospect of peace. One rumor says that Russia has directly requested Prussia to make conciliatory offers to the Western Powers and Prussia is said to have accepted the mission, Austria assenting. But the most definite form of the rumor is that a proposition has been submitted to Napoleon on behalf of Russia which can be honorably accepted, namely:—that Russia will conclude a peace with the Western Powers without the intervention of either Austria or Prussia. The terms are said to be; Russia according to the guarantee of the independence of the Danubian principalities and the freedom of the Black Sea. Both parties are to continue preparations for hostilities, but no active operations are to be entered upon, up to a date agreed upon. All this is possibly premature, but the hopes for peace are strong.

The excitement respecting American affairs has almost passed away.

The Danish Conference met on the 20th ult., but took no action.

The King of Prussia in a speech to the Chambers announces decidedly the continued neutrality of Prussia.

Some unimportant changes have occurred in the English Cabinet.

There is nothing important from Asia or the Black Sea.

The admiralty contracts for navy supplies have been taken at much less rates than were expected. Beef was £7 7s and £9 for Pork per tierce. The tenders of American Pork extended to 10,000 packages, and were accepted at £8@£8 10s.

American stocks have improved with large sales. The 5 per cents closed at Paris at ½ advance.

LAYARD.—The King of Sardinia arrived at London on Friday, where he met with an enthusiastic reception.

Gen. Canrobert left Copenhagen for Paris on the 30th Nov. The operations at Sebastopol prepatory to attacking the northern forts were proceeding rapidly.

Admiral Bruat, commander of the French fleet in the Black sea, died of cholera.

Count Mole is also dead.

The American ship Telegraph with a full cargo of linseed, flax and hemp, had sailed from Archangel for Amsterdam. The White Cloud with a similar cargo was detained by ice and would probably have to remain all winter.

COMMERCIAL.—Liverpool Nov. 30.—Breadstuffs dull and slightly lower; Western Canal flour 42s 6d; Ohio 45s; mixed corn 45s, yellow 46s, white 58s.

In Henry's Circular quotes red wheat at 11s 6d and white 12s 6d. Western canal flour 42s@ 45s; Southern 44s@45s; Ohio 45s@46s; yellow and mixed corn 40s 6d.

Provisions.—Beef quiet; Mess 120s; Pork quiet, sales western prime Mess at 85s; Lard declined to 68s and closes quiet.

M'Henry quotes Lard 70s; bacon is wanted.

Cotton.—The market closed firm and middling unchanged; fair declined 1-16d, but a better feeling prevailed at the close. The sales of the week were 49,000, of which the speculators took 29,000.

Naval Stores.—Quiet; sales Spirits Turpentine at 37s 6d@38s; Rosin 5s; Rice inactive.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—The Jury in the Baker case have not yet agreed upon a verdict.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 13.—Sales Howard Street Flour at $8,87. Wheat unchanged. Corn slightly improved and may be quoted at 1c advance on better grades.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 13.—SENATE.—Mr. Jones of Iowa submitted a resolution authorizing certain committees to employ clerks.

Mr. Adams moved an amendment providing that no person shall be appointed who holds office under the Federal government. This amendment was rejected and the original adopted.

The Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—The House resumed voting for Speaker and on the 61st ballot the vote stood; Banks 105, Richardson 75, Fuller 33, Leiter 2, scattering 6.

At the conclusion of roll call Mr. McMullen said: "I give notice that unless within the next three days we shall elect a Speaker, I shall submit a proposition by way of compromise."

Mr. Giddings (loudly,) What is the proposition.

Mr. Florence. You can't compromise principles, Mac.

Much confusion ensued.

Mr. Giddings. Tell what it is.

Mr. Houston. (from the opposite side of the Hall) It is that you come over to us and a very fair proposition it is. (Laughter.)

Mr. Giddings. Make it now.

Mr. Houston. If all of you promise to come over to us, I'll make it now. (laughter)—cries: "You can't come that game; no doubt you'd agree."

The House again resumed balloting:

52d Ballot. Banks 104, Fuller 84, Richardson 74; scattering 10.

53d. Banks 104, Richardson 74, Fuller 34, scattering 10.

54th. Banks 104, Richardson 74, Fuller 35, scattering 9.

55th. Banks 104, Richardson 72, Fuller 38, scattering 7.

The whole number of votes polled, 223—necessary to a choice 112.

There being no choice the House adjourned.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 13.—The offerings of beef to-day were 1400 head, of which 100 were driven east and 125 left over. The remainder were sold at $5@$8,25 nett. There was a good supply of hogs and prices have declined, sales at $5@ $8,50 per 100.

WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 13.—The Speakership is the engrossing topic to-night. It seems to be the fixed determination of the friends of Banks and Richardson to adhere to their respective candidates. This being conceded, the supporters of Fuller hold the balance of power and with them tests the responsibility of making an election. Should the three divisions remain firm, a proposition is talked of to end the contest by partitioning the principal offices among them. The subject confuses the heads of all directly concerned in an organization.

NEW YORK, Dec 13.—10, P. M. The Jury in the case of Louis Baker charged with the murder of Poole is still out with no prospect of agreeing.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 13.—There was a large attendance on 'change this morning, but the announcement that the steamer had been telegraphed suspended business, both buyers and sellers being unwilling to operate until her advices are made public. There is more inquiry for Flour and most holders now refuse $8,50 for standard brands; sales 700 bbls extra at $8,85@$9. The demand for wheat continues quite limited and only a few small lots were disposed of at $1,90@$1,92 per bushel for fair and prime red and $2@$2,10 for white. Corn comes in slowly but the demand has fallen off; small sales new yellow at 78@79 and olds at 82 @83. Oats steady and in demand; sales 120 bbls prime new at $9 per 64 lbs. Timothy ranges at from $2,75 to $3,12 per bushel. Whiskey steady; small sales in bbls at 40 and in hhds at 39.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—Chicago and Rock Island R. R. 88¾; Cumberland Coal Co. 23½; Erie 48¾; Reading 88¾; Illinois Central sixes 86¾. There is nothing done in cotton worth reporting, the foreign advices having completely unsettled the market. Flour is languid, sales 5500 bbls at $9,75 for southern, Wheat quiet, sales 1200 bush. Corn firmer, sales 600 bush. Pork steady, sales 500 bbls. Beef dull, sales 250 bbls. Lard firm, sales 900 bbls. Whiskey firm, sales and tariff 24c. Coffee firm, sales $1000 bags Rio at 11¾. MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

The hog market continues inactive, buyers seem timid and owners are not disposed to press sales. The receipts of hogs over all our railways are used to their utmost capacity in the transportation of hogs from all points of the country, and the number which will be delivered here this season will far exceed that of last. The Price Current quotes the following as comparable rates for the week and for the season:

OFFICE OF CINCINNATI PRICE CURRENT.
December 11, 1855.

The receipts of Hogs, &c., for the week and season to same date last season, were as follows:

From Kentucky		17,771
By river and railroad		44,745
Through toll-gates		2,200
Slaughtered at Fairsville		7,112
Total		71,828
Previously reported		131,063
Grand Total		202,891
To same date last season		174,700
" " 1854		220,000
" " 1853		256,600
" " 1852		161,783
" " 1851		200,000

In the hog market there was a falling to-day approaching to a panic and prices were forced down considerably. A combination of circumstances, prominent among which was the unexpected money market, contributed to the result; but it may be remarked that it resulted more from a want of confidence which though manifested by packers from the commencement of the season, was more apparent to-day than at any previous time. From an average of $5,50@$6 per cwt. the sales at close were $5@$5,35 including light and heavy logs, but purchases could not be effected to any great extent at the latter rate. The decline in products was greater in proportion than in hogs, and the latter are positively higher than the former. Green Meats sold at 5¾ and 6¼ for Shoulders and Sides, and Hams 7¼@8—Cin. Gazette, Thursday.

The stringency in the money market is noted on last Wednesday, has very considerably increased since that date, and dealers are generally complaining of it. The leading commercial houses have for several days past been able to do little or nothing. This state of affairs has not produced any pressure, the effect being chiefly to lead to a contraction of business. Rates of discount range from 6 to 24 % per annum, being sold at 6@10 per cent. The Bills are plenty, and the call to raise for best names are equal to 6 per month. The same prices prevail for Southern and Western Exchange has remained at par and ¼ premium for Eastern, and par and ¼ premium for New Orleans, but the sales are few for the latter. Sterling is without change, but rather advancing.—Cin Gazette.

The demand for grocery continues active with an abundant supply on the market. Sugars are unchanged, and very firm at full, ranging from 12 to 13c. There is no indisposition on the part of capitalists to invest in first class securities, and the money market is a favorable one for that class of business, and the commercial affairs of the country are replaced with a healthy confidence.—N. Y. Times.

Rome—there is considerable enquiry for Cleveland, but the market is dull for sales making. Prices are very dull this morning at $9 for Flour. We quote old at 88@90c and new at $2,25@$2,50 per bus. Timothy Seed is still quoted at $2,25@$2,50, and Flaxseed at $1,90@$1,95 per bus.—Salt American.

An Ordinance

Authorizing the increase in the Capital Stock of the Pittsburgh Gas Company.

WHEREAS, the present consumption of Gas in the City of Pittsburgh is so great as the actual capacity of the Gas Works will admit of their supplying, while the increase of population and extension of Gas Mains demands a correspondent increase in the means of production, which will require the investment of funds, which can only be obtained by the increase of the Capital Stock of the said Gas Company. And

WHEREAS, the third section of the 1st Incorporation said Gas Company, approved 19th March, 1845, the Capital Stock of said Company may be increased to the sum of Three Hundred Thousand Dollars, by the decision of the Stockholders, provided the consent of the Select and Common Councils of the city of Pittsburgh be previously obtained.

Now therefore, Be it ordained and enacted by the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of Pittsburgh in Select and Common Councils assembled, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by authority of the same.
