GAZETTE—CITY DEPARTMENT.

PITTSBURGH:

THURSDAY MORNING, DEC. 27, 1855.

INTERMENTS IN THE CITY OF PITTSBURGH.

FROM DEC. 17 TO DEC. 24, 1855.

Debility	Adults.	Children.
Typhoid Fever	1	0
Small Pox	1	0
Scarlatina	0	1
Croup	0	2
Consumption	1	0
Still Born	OF THE AGES THERE WERE	2
Under 1 year		4
From 1 to 2		2
" 5 to 10		1
" 20 to 30		1
" 30 to 40		2
" 70 to 80		1

Males, 9; Females, 6; White, 10; Colored, 1; Total, 11.

By order of the Board of Health.

A. C. MURDOCH,
Physician of Board of Health.

Democratic City Convention.

The Democracy met in delegated convention at the Court House on Wednesday. There seemed to have been some misunderstanding with regard to the place and time of holding the Convention, as many of the Delegates assembled at the Market House while a number gathered at the Court House.

At a quarter before eleven, though the clock in the Court Room indicated the hour to be half past eleven, it was moved that JOHN S. KENNEDY be appointed Chairman.

Mr. Barnett objected to a present organization as all the delegates were not present. A scene of confusion and disorder followed, but things finally settled down and William H. Whitney was elected Secretary.

Somebody nominated Charles Barnett for Vice President, but he declined the honor. He said he was a democrat, not a fusionist.

The Secretary then called over the list of delegates and forty-two persons handed in their credentials.

Mr. Coyle moved that a committee of five be appointed to prepare resolutions expressive of the sense of the Convention with regard to the nomination of a Candidate for Mayor.

Mr. J. A. Irwin opposed the motion as contrary to the established usages of the party. The Convention ought first to make its nomination and then pass upon such resolutions as might be offered.

Mr Coyle said the Convention had assembled not for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Mayor but to consider the propriety of so doing.

The Chairman read the call for the Convention, which set forth its object to be "to take into consideration the best course to pursue in regard to the coming election."

Mr McClowry also opposed the motion of Mr. Coyle, and reflected severely upon those Democrats who had come into the Convention pledged to support Mr. Volz, a Whig, and who were determined to force him upon the Democracy of Pittsburgh. He thought there were Democrats who could embody the principle of Fusion as well as Mr. Volz.

Mr. Coyle did not desire to be captious but he might recriminate by charging that the gentleman who preceeded him had no right to a seat in the Convention as he had not been elected a delegate "between the hours of three and five."

W. W. Irvin, Esq., remarked at some length against appointing a resolution committee at that early stage of the proceedings.

Mr. Coyle withdrew his motion, and moved that the convention by a direct vote decide whether there shall be fusion or not, whether there shall be a distinctive nomination or not.

Mr. Barnett moved as an amendment that no man be supported as a fusion candidate who will not pledge himself to support the nominee of the National Democratic Convention for President and Vice President of the United States.

Mr. Coyle moved to amend the amendment to the effect that the Democracy make no distinctive party nomination for Mayor.

The yeas and nays having been called on the latter amendment, the Secretary announced the result as follows.

Yeas—Bennett, Buffum, Kennedy, Kent, Milligan, Herdman, Lafferty, Sproul, O'Brien, Connolly, Dermiss, Lacock, Montgomery, Felix, Leahy, McCabe, W. A. Lare, Whitney, H. Rea, jr., Law, Coyle, Flanigan, McClure, Speer, J. S. Kennedy, Bratt.—26.

Nays—Barnett, McGill, H. Keenan, Mathews, McCance, Mackin, Bell, W. W. Irwin, Latshaw, McClowry, Kane, Irwin, Rowley, Wuks, Rahm, Doris.—16.

So the amendment was carried.

Mr. Coyle said as Mr. Volz's name had been mentioned in the Convention he was authorized to state that he was pledged to vote for the Democratic nominee for President.

W. W. Irwin offered as a substitute for the amendment of Mr. Barnett as amended a resolution to the effect that this Convention will support no man for Mayor who will not pledge himself to support Hon. James Buchannan for the Presidency.

The Chairman decided that the resolution could not be received as a substitute, but could be offered as an original resolution.

Mr. McGill offered a resolution that this Convention recommend to the Democracy of the city to support John M. Irwin for the Mayoralty.

The Chairman decided the resolution out of order as being contradictory of action which the Convention had already taken.

Mr. Barnett appealed from the decision of the Chair.

The yeas and nays were called on the appeal —yeas, 26—ayes 16. So the Chair was sustained.

Mr. Coyle moved that a committee of five be appointed to draft resolutions. Adopted and Messrs. Coyle, Lare, Laird, Sproul and Speer were appointed said committee.

Mr. McGill offered a resolution that the Convention recommend John M. Irwin as the Citizens' candidate for Mayor.

Ruled out of order.

A motion was made to appoint an executive committee.

A motion was made to amend to the effect that no executive committee be appointed.

No action was reached on the motion of amendment.

W. W. Irwin moved to adjourn for an hour. Lost.

The same motion was renewed and the yeas and nays scalled. Yeas, 8—nays, 33. Lost.

The Resolution Committee then reported the following resolutions:

Whereas, The Democratic Executive Committee, having met pursuant to notice, issued a call for the Democracy of the several wards of the city of Pittsburgh to meet at their usual places of meeting on Saturday, December 22d, for the purpose of electing delegates to a city convention to assemble this day, for the purpose of "taking into consideration the propriety of making a Democratic nomination for the office of Mayor." and whereas, said convention having assembled at the time and place designated, and having been duly organized, the undersigned were appointed a committee to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of said convention in regard thereto—therfore.

Resolved, That the Democracy of the city of Pittsburgh, in covention assembled, deem it at the present time injudicious and impolitic, and against the wishes of the party, to make a distinctive party nomination

Resolved That while we deem it best to forego a party nomination at this time, we earnestly call upon our fellow Democrats of Pittsburg to go in earnestly for that citizens' candidate who will be strongest against the common enemy, "Know Nothingism."

Resolved, That this convention call upon all good citizens to rally around a citizens' candidate for the office of Mayor who will be most likely to defeat the common enemy, and as the sense of this convention recommend Hon. F. E. Volz.

Resolved, That this convention call upon all good citizens to rally around a citizens' candidate for the office of Mayor who will be most likely to defeat the common enemy, and as the sense of this convention recommend Hon. F. E. Volz.

Somebody nominated Charles Barnett for Vice President, but he declined the honor. He said he was a democrat, not a fusionist.

The Secretary then called over the list of delegates and forty-two persons handed in their credentials:

Mr. Coyle moved that a committee of five be appointed to prepare resolutions expressive of the sense of the Convention with regard to the nomination of a Candidate for Mayor.

Mr. J. A. Irwin opposed the motion as contrary to the established usages of the party. The Convention ought first to make its nomination and then pass upon such resolutions as might be offered.

Mr Coyle said the Convention had assembled not for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Mayor but to consider the propriety of so doing.

The Chairman read the call for the Convention, which set forth its object to be "to take into consideration the best course to pursue in regard to the coming election."

Mr McClowry also opposed the motion of Mr. Coyle, and reflected severely upon those Democrats who had come into the Convention pledged to support Mr. Volz, a Whig, and who were determined to force him upon the Democracy of Pittsburgh. He thought there were Democrats who could embody the principle of Fusion as well as Mr. Volz.

Mr. Coyle did not desire to be captious but he might recriminate by charging that the gentleman who preceeded him had no right to a seat in the Convention as he had not been elected a delegate "between the hours of three and five."

W. W. Irvin, Esq., remarked at some length against appointing a resolution committee at that early stage of the proceedings.

Mr. Coyle withdrew his motion, and moved that the convention by a direct vote decide whether there shall be fusion or not, whether there shall be a distinctive nomination or not.

Mr. Barnett moved as an amendment that no man be supported as a fusion candidate who will not pledge himself to support the nominee of the National Democratic Convention for President and Vice President of the United States.

Mr. Coyle moved to amend the amendment to the effect that the Democracy make no distinctive party nomination for Mayor.

The yeas and nays having been called on the latter amendment, the Secretary announced the result as follows.

Yeas—Bennett, Buffum, Kennedy, Kent, Milligan, Herdman, Lafferty, Sproul, O'Brien, Connolly, Dermiss, Lacock, Montgomery, Felix, Leahy, McCabe, W. A. Lare, Whitney, H. Rea, jr., Law, Coyle, Flanigan, McClure, Speer, J. S. Kennedy, Bratt.—26.

Nays—Barnett, McGill, H. Keenan, Mathews, McCance, Mackin, Bell, W. W. Irwin, Latshaw, McClowry, Kane, Irwin, Rowley, Wuks, Rahm, Doris.—16.

So the amendment was carried.

Mr. Coyle said as Mr. Volz's name had been mentioned in the Convention he was authorized to state that he was pledged to vote for the Democratic nominee for President.

W. W. Irwin offered as a substitute for the amendment of Mr. Barnett as amended a resolution to the effect that this Convention will support no man for Mayor who will not pledge himself to support Hon. James Buchannan for the Presidency.

The Chairman decided that the resolution could not be received as a substitute, but could be offered as an original resolution.

Mr. McGill offered a resolution that this Convention recommend to the Democracy of the city to support John M. Irwin for the Mayoralty.

The Chairman decided the resolution out of order as being contradictory of action which the Convention had already taken.

Mr. Barnett appealed from the decision of the Chair.

The yeas and nays were called on the appeal —yeas, 26—ayes 16. So the Chair was sustained.

Mr. Coyle moved that a committee of five be appointed to draft resolutions. Adopted and Messrs. Coyle, Lare, Laird, Sproul and Speer were appointed said committee.

Mr. McGill offered a resolution that the Convention recommend John M. Irwin as the Citizens' candidate for Mayor.

Ruled out of order.

A motion was made to appoint an executive committee.

A motion was made to amend to the effect that no executive committee be appointed.

No action was reached on the motion of amendment.

W. W. Irwin moved to adjourn for an hour. Lost.

The same motion was renewed and the yeas and nays scalled. Yeas, 8—nays, 33. Lost.

The Resolution Committee then reported the following resolutions:

Whereas, The Democratic Executive Committee, having met pursuant to notice, issued a call for the Democracy of the several wards of the city of Pittsburgh to meet at their usual places of meeting on Saturday, December 22d, for the purpose of electing delegatas to a city convention to assemble this day, for the purpose of "taking into consideration the propriety of making a Democratic nomination for the office of Mayor." and whereas, said convention having assembled at the time and place designated, and having been duly organized, the undersigned were appointed a committee to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of said convention in regard thereto—therfore.

Resolved, That the Democracy of the city of Pittsburgh, in covention assembled, deem it at the present time injudicious and impolitic, and against the wishes of the party, to make a distinctive party nomination

Resolved That while we deem it best to forego a party nomination at this time, we earnestly call upon our fellow Democrats of Pittsburg to go in earnestly for that citizens' candidate who will be strongest against the common enemy, "Know Nothingism."

Resolved, That this convention call upon all good citizens to rally around a citizens' candidate for the office of Mayor who will be most likely to defeat the common enemy, and as the sense of this convention recommend Hon. F. E. Volz.

Resolved, That this convention call upon all good citizens to rally around a citizens' candidate for the office of Mayor who will be most likely to defeat the common enemy, and as the sense of this convention recommend Hon. F. E. Volz.

Somebody nominated Charles Barnett for Vice President, but he declined the honor. He said he was a democrat, not a fusionist.

The Secretary then called over the list of delegates and forty-two persons handed in their credentials:

Mr. Coyle moved that a committee of five be appointed to prepare resolutions expressive of the sense of the Convention with regard to the nomination of a Candidate for Mayor.

Mr. J. A. Irwin opposed the motion as contrary to the established usages of the party. The Convention ought first to make its nomination and then pass upon such resolutions as might be offered.

Mr Coyle said the Convention had assembled not for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Mayor but to consider the propriety of so doing.

The Chairman read the call for the Convention, which set forth its object to be "to take into consideration the best course to pursue in regard to the coming election."

Mr McClowry also opposed the motion of Mr. Coyle, and reflected severely upon those Democrats who had come into the Convention pledged to support Mr. Volz, a Whig, and who were determined to force him upon the Democracy of Pittsburgh. He thought there were Democrats who could embody the principle of Fusion as well as Mr. Volz.

Mr. Coyle did not desire to be captious but he might recriminate by charging that the gentleman who preceeded him had no right to a seat in the Convention as he had not been elected a delegate "between the hours of three and five."

W. W. Irvin, Esq., remarked at some length against appointing a resolution committee at that early stage of the proceedings.

Mr. Coyle withdrew his motion, and moved that the convention by a direct vote decide whether there shall be fusion or not, whether there shall be a distinctive nomination or not.

Mr. Barnett moved as an amendment that no man be supported as a fusion candidate who will not pledge himself to support the nominee of the National Democratic Convention for President and Vice President of the United States.

Mr. Coyle moved to amend the amendment to the effect that the Democracy make no distinctive party nomination for Mayor.

The yeas and nays having been called on the latter amendment, the Secretary announced the result as follows.

Yeas—Bennett, Buffum, Kennedy, Kent, Milligan, Herdman, Lafferty, Sproul, O'Brien, Connolly, Dermiss, Lacock, Montgomery, Felix, Leahy, McCabe, W. A. Lare, Whitney, H. Rea, jr., Law, Coyle, Flanigan, McClure, Speer, J. S. Kennedy, Bratt.—26.

Nays—Barnett, McGill, H. Keenan, Mathews, McCance, Mackin, Bell, W. W. Irwin, Latshaw, McClowry, Kane, Irwin, Rowley, Wuks, Rahm, Doris.—16.

So the amendment was carried.

Mr. Coyle said as Mr. Volz's name had been mentioned in the Convention he was authorized to state that he was pledged to vote for the Democratic nominee for President.

W. W. Irwin offered as a substitute for the amendment of Mr. Barnett as amended a resolution to the effect that this Convention will support no man for Mayor who will not pledge himself to support Hon. James Buchannan for the Presidency.

The Chairman decided that the resolution could not be received as a substitute, but could be offered as an original resolution.

Mr. McGill offered a resolution that this Convention recommend to the Democracy of the city to support John M. Irwin for the Mayoralty.

The Chairman decided the resolution out of order as being contradictory of action which the Convention had already taken.

Mr. Barnett appealed from the decision of the Chair.

The yeas and nays were called on the appeal —yeas, 26—ayes 16. So the Chair was sustained.

Mr. Coyle moved that a committee of five be appointed to draft resolutions. Adopted and Messrs. Coyle, Lare, Laird, Sproul and Speer were appointed said committee.

Mr. McGill offered a resolution that the Convention recommend John M. Irwin as the Citizens' candidate for Mayor.

Ruled out of order.

A motion was made to appoint an executive committee.

A motion was made to amend to the effect that no executive committee be appointed.

No action was reached on the motion of amendment.

W. W. Irwin moved to adjourn for an hour. Lost.

The same motion was renewed and the yeas and nays scalled. Yeas, 8—nays, 33. Lost.

The Resolution Committee then reported the following resolutions:

Whereas, The Democratic Executive Committee, having met pursuant to notice, issued a call for the Democracy of the several wards of the city of Pittsburgh to meet at their usual places of meeting on Saturday, December 22d, for the purpose of electing delegatas to a city convention to assemble this day, for the purpose of "taking into consideration the propriety of making a Democratic nomination for the office of Mayor." and whereas, said convention having assembled at the time and place designated, and having been duly organized, the undersigned were appointed a committee to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of said convention in regard thereto—therfore.

Resolved, That the Democracy of the city of Pittsburgh, in covention assembled, deem it at the present time injudicious and impolitic, and against the wishes of the party, to make a distinctive party nomination

Resolved That while we deem it best to forego a party nomination at this time, we earnestly call upon our fellow Democrats of Pittsburg to go in earnestly for that citizens' candidate who will be strongest against the common enemy, "Know Nothingism."

Resolved, That this convention call upon all good citizens to rally around a citizens' candidate for the office of Mayor who will be most likely to defeat the common enemy, and as the sense of this convention recommend Hon. F. E. Volz.

Resolved, That this convention call upon all good citizens to rally around a citizens' candidate for the office of Mayor who will be most likely to defeat the common enemy, and as the sense of this convention recommend Hon. F. E. Volz.

Somebody nominated Charles Barnett for Vice President, but he declined the honor. He said he was a democrat, not a fusionist.

The Secretary then called over the list of delegates and forty-two persons handed in their credentials:

Mr. Coyle moved that a committee of five be appointed to prepare resolutions expressive of the sense of the Convention with regard to the nomination of a Candidate for Mayor.

Mr. J. A. Irwin opposed the motion as contrary to the established usages of the party. The Convention ought first to make its nomination and then pass upon such resolutions as might be offered.

Mr Coyle said the Convention had assembled not for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Mayor but to consider the propriety of so doing.

The Chairman read the call for the Convention, which set forth its object to be "to take into consideration the best course to pursue in regard to the coming election."

Mr McClowry also opposed the motion of Mr. Coyle, and reflected severely upon those Democrats who had come into the Convention pledged to support Mr. Volz, a Whig, and who were determined to force him upon the Democracy of Pittsburgh. He thought there were Democrats who could embody the principle of Fusion as well as Mr. Volz.

Mr. Coyle did not desire to be captious but he might recriminate by charging that the gentleman who preceeded him had no right to a seat in the Convention as he had not been elected a delegate "between the hours of three and five."

W. W. Irw