JOSEPH WHITE'S CARRIAGE REPOSITORY! JOSEPH WHITE now (carrying on business) at his spacious premises, (now lately enlarged,) between Pittsburgh and Lawrenceville, (near the Two Mile Run,) respectfully invites the public to inspect his stock of CARRIAGES, BUGGIES, &c., and he particularly requests purchasers to note that one price only is made. Fourteen years experience in the business, enable him to say that before he leaves the present stock, he will have on hand a stock of Carriages, which so many years past it has been his study to supply the public with, from the various and most talented Eastern Manufactories. The success of his new system is complete, the economy of his arrangements will enable him to sell at the most fashionable Manufactory at moderate prices.

Unencumbered by those heavy expenses, which the system of executing Houses of business has handed over to the public (owing to large rents,) he feels confident that he will sell on ready money only, at much less than the usual selling prices.

N. B.—Carriages repaired in the best manner, with despatch. oct1-1yd

The Adams Express Company. Pittsburgh, Rochester and New Brighton Express. FOR the especial accommodation of the large population along the line of the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad, between Pittsburgh and New Brighton, whose intimate business and social relations require such constant communication, this Company have made such arrangements with the Railroad as to enable them to put a trusty Messenger on the Accommodation Train, which leaves Pittsburgh at 4 P. M., and returns at 8 A. M., and by this means they are enabled to deliver the proper packages, &c., at the Stations on the Railroad, at an early hour after the arrival of the Train. All articles entrusted to them to be delivered in the city—communicate intelligence, obtain bills of collection, and return with the money, goods and returns them—make purchases, large or small, from a person or firm to be selected by the shipper—do all kinds of jobbing, at per cent. to be settled for in the two cities, within reasonable distance, without extra charge, but at a fair rate for the time employed, and generally for private business, should be required.

☞ Any Station ag, all matter will be left with the Station Agent of the Railroad Company, when the proper party is not at home, and a receipt taken therefor, to receive the goods.

The charges for carrying packages, &c., and for services rendered by the Messenger, are intended to be within reasonable limits. When the nature of the business will admit of it, a charge will be made.

As the Messenger is required to settle his bills and account for the money received by him, he is in fact the person of the line will please not ask him to wait till next trip, as he cannot do so, and will be governed accordingly.

HENRY E. IRWIN has been appointed Messenger, and will commence his duties on Monday, Dec. 24, 1855.
