AFFAIRS IN KANSAS.—The war in Kansas is by no means over. We shall no doubt soon have the details of more outrages by the Missouri ruffians, on the occasion of the late election for State officers. In the meanwhile, however, there are cheering indications that the Free State men will finally conquer. Atchison's ruffianly crew have overshot the mark, and have by their outrages converted nearly every Southern settler into a Free State man, if not to an abolitionist. A gentleman from this city, lately returned from Kansas, states that the most of his neighbors were from the Slave States, principally from Missouri, and were at first in favor of Slavery in Kansas, but the conduct of Atchison and Stringfellow had changed their minds, and nearly all of them were now as zealous for freedom as they had been for slavery. A letter in the New York Tribune, also notices this change of sentiment:

"A few months ago there was very little general Anti-Slavery feeling in Kansas; but since Gov. Shannon came here, and Pierce called us "a mob," since his officials publicly and fraternally associated with Atchison's minions at the recent "Law and Order" Convention—since the ballot-box was seized at Leavenworth, and Lawrence was threatened by the Border Ruffians with destruction—"Abolitionist" has ceased to be a word of reproach with hundreds of men who previously detested the name. I have heard men who were semi-Southerners before, declare, with Garrison:—

"I am an Abolitionist!
I glory in the name!"

—since Kansas was invaded. I had heard others hint that even Garrison himself was rather an old fogy, because it does not go far enough in opposition to Slavery. The world does move."

These are cheering signs and should encourage thousands of settlers from the Free States to flock there as soon as navigation opens in the Spring. The population is now set down at 80,000, and it will increase with amazing rapidity as soon as it is certain that it will be a Free State. Those who are first on the ground have the best show of success, besides the pleasure of knowing that they have contributed to promote the cause of human freedom in so vast and fine a territory. In the East there are symptoms of a large emigration in preparation. The New York Kansas League are daily engaged in receiving and replying to applications, and anticipate a much greater amount of business than heretofore. With their experience, facilities and arrangements for transportation, and the success which has already attended their operations, they will be ready, at the opening of the season, to send settlers with every advantage.

It is believed, by some of those best qualified to judge, that between ten and fifteen thousand new settlers are likely to be added to the population by midsummer next, from the East alone; and that the numbers from the Middle and Western free States will much increase that amount, while the preceding considerable immigration of Free State men from the Slave States will be a large item. Let every man who goes take arms with him, and if possible one of Sharpe's rifles. They will easily be able to dispose of them to advantage, if they have no use for them when they get there. The great fight will most probably come off next Spring, and it is therefore important that every Northern man should be early on the ground. A letter to the New York Tribune, dated at Lawrence, Jan. 5, says:

"Col. Lane received a note from Gov. Wright of Indiana by the last mail from Westport, which, from the confidence it has exerted, deserves to be recorded in the annals of our State. It is dated Indianapolis, Dec. 4. He says he has news had just been received of Lane's resistance to the Border Ruffians. He has money and sons, and is ready to come himself, and spend every cent he has got in defense of the Northern Free-State immigrants. He has five hundred men who are ready to, march at once for Kansas. "Write immediately, and telegraph if possible." The boys here are greatly excited, but have confidence in Jim Lane."

Such is the substance of the letter.

As it is more than probable that we will have to fight on the first Monday of March next—when our Legislature assembles and the State Government is put in operation—it would be well if the young North, who are ready to assist us to the death, if necessary, would immigrate as soon as navigation opens, instead of waiting until special messengers or telegraphic despatches apprise you of our danger. The "late war" is not the last of the Missouri invasions. Atchison is not a man to be thwarted in his designs, although for a time he may delay the execution of them. Quitman and other Southern filibusters (it is said in Platte County) are prepared to march to Kansas early in the Spring. Georgia, Alabama, the Carolinas and Mississippi are ready to assist the Borderers with money or men. If the North re-enforces us by March, peace will be preserved; but with our present number and resources there is no hope of escaping a civil war in Kansas. Let Emigrants escape Kickapoo, Atchison and Delaware Cities, and settle in Leavenworth, Lawrence, Topeka, Prairie City, Council City, or Doniphan. Sail from St. Louis to Leavenworth—not to Kansas City; for it aided our invaders, misrepresents our party, and is situated in Missouri.

Private letters have been received here from Gov. Reeder. From the comments he makes on the contest for Speaker, I infer that he will soon desert the National Democracy for the Republican party. Col. Lane, since the war, appears to be drifting in the same direction.'

In the meantime the South is not idle, various projects are discussed for securing Kansas for Slavery. The one most relied on, is the proposal to raise funds by a tax on slaves, to hire men to go to Kansas with a number of negroes, Atchison is making most urgent appeals for help. In a late letter, published in the Atlanta (Ga.) Examiner he writes:

"We are in a constant state of excitement here (Platte City). The Border ruffians have scores to my room day and night. The very air is full of rumors. We wish to keep ourselves right before the world, and we are provoked and aggravated beyond sufferance. Our persons and property are not for a moment safe; and yet we are forbid, by the respect we owe our friends elsewhere, by respect for the cause in which we are engaged, to forbear. This state of things cannot last. You are authorized to publish the whole or a part of what I have written; but if Georgia intends to do anything, for us, let it be done speedily!

"Let your young men come forth to Missouri and Kansas! Let them come well armed, with money enough to support them for twelve months, and determined to see this thing out! One hundred true men will be an acquisition. The more the better. I do not see how we are to avoid civil war, come it will. Twelve months will not elapse before war—civil war of the fiercest kind—will be upon us. We are arming and preparing for it. Indeed, we of the border counties are prepared. We must have the support of the South. We are fighting the battles of the South. Our institutions are at stake. You far Southern men are now out of the nave of the war, but if we fall, it will reach your own doors, perhaps your hearths. We want men, armed men. We want money—not for ourselves, but to support our friends who may come from a distance. I have now in this house two gallant young men from Charleston, S. C. They are citizens of Kansas, and will remain so until her destiny is fixed.

"Let your young men come on in squads as fast as they can be raised, well armed. We want none but true men. Yours truly,

"D. R. ATCHISON.

"P. S.—I would not be astonished if this day laid the ground-work for a guerrilla war in Kansas. I have heard of rumors of strife and battle at Leavenworth, seven miles from this place, but the ice is running in the Mississippi river, and I have nothing definite. I was a peace-maker in the difficulty lately settled by Governor Shannon. I conncided the 'Ruffians' to forbearance, but I will never again council peace.

"D. R. A."

Southern editors back up these appeals with all the eloquence they can muster, and no doubt a large number of ardent young men will be induced to flock to Atchison's standard. Where is the President all this time?

MR. WILKINS' LICENSE BILL.—We find in the Harrisburg papers a copy of the license law introduced by our Senator, Mr. Wilkins.

It provides that none but citizens, of good character, shall be licensed to keep a public house; that he shall give bonds in $1000 not to sell adulterated liquors, suffer drunkenness or disorderly conduct in his house, or permit gambling in it; that public houses shall be divided into two kinds—the first to be authorised to sell spirituous, vinous and malt liquors, and the second fermented and malt liquors only; that those of the first kind shall be divided into ten classes, the first of which shall pay a license of $1000, the second, $800, the third, $600, the fourth, $400, the fifth, $300, the sixth, $200, the seventh, $100, the eighth, $50, the ninth, $30, and the tenth, $25, the rate to be decided according to the value or yearly rental of the house; that those of the second kind shall pay just half the rates of the first kind, according to the value or yearly rental of the house; that no license shall be transferred, nor be applicable to any other building than the one described in it; that the license shall be framed under glass and kept in the house open to public inspection; that any infraction of the law shall be punishable upon conviction by a fine not exceeding $50 for the first and $100 for the second offence, and forfeiture of the license; and that licenses granted to hotels, inns and taverns shall not authorize the sale of liquor to any but strangers, travelers or sojourners therein.

The bill also provides that licenses shall be granted in all the counties of the State, by the Courts of Quarter Sessions, except in Allegheny county, where they shall be granted by a board of Licensers, to be appointed by the Judges of the Courts and County Commissioners, which board shall have power to pass upon all applications, and approve or reject them.

These are the main features of the law; to some of its details we shall recur again.

THE GREAT STRUGGLE—HENRY A. WISE IN THE FIELD.—Gov. Wise has sent a special Message to the Virginia Legislature, remitting some resolutions of the Legislature of Vermont, which resolution he pronounces in every sense offensive and unbecoming, and recommends that no action be taken upon them, and concludes in the following strain:

Our attention is called to Washington city, not to Montpelier.

Virginia, affiliated with those of Vermont who have sent to us these resolutions have grown so strong as to succeed in electing to Congress more than one hundred representatives to oppose a mere minority who are now defending the Constitution, and in withholding from that minority the support of thirty representatives more, chiefly of the Southern States; and the effect is that the House of Representatives cannot be organized, except upon terms subversive of the Constitution and Union; and the South is distracted and divided against itself. Is the design of the plurality disunion? Is the purpose of the faction division among ourselves? If so, it is time that all people and all interests in our country should be aroused to a sense of the fact that the easiest step to disunion is a withdrawal of representation, and that the most potent cause to compel a withdrawal of representation is to disorganize, distract and degrade representation.

How long Virginia shall be kept waiting for organization on constitutional terms! how long she shall be kept waiting on disorganization, to avoid being put upon terms of dishonor or being exposed to danger? are questions for her people and her legislature to determine. For my part, I repeat the recommendation, of calm, collected dignity, and of patient and forbearing patriotism.

Wait, but be not wanting to ourselves and our posterity, I earnestly implore you

With the highest respect,
Your obedient servant,
HENRY A. WISE.

If a Northern Governor should thus coolly point out the easiest mode of disunion, he would be denounced as a fanatic and an enemy to his country, but the traitorous suggestions of Gov. Wise will pass without the slightest rebuke from Northern Doughfaces.

IN WANT OF FUNDS.—The administration papers are becoming very cross about the disorganization of the House. Their anathemas against the "Black Republicans" are loud and long, because they will not suffer the seventy-five administration men to elect Richardson. Their friends in Washington are also in trouble. Letters from there say that the delay in passing a deficiency bill is causing great distress to those friends of the Administration dependant on Legislation.—They are borrowing money at three per cent. a month, and the shavers are reaping a rich harvest. The organization of the House will not end their troubles either. The Anti-Nebraska men are so indignant at the conduct of the Administration party in thus obstructing the organization, that they declare that when the Administration wants its Deficiency Bill it will put in its turn, and pay its three per cent. a month for a much longer time than is expected or agreeable. When it is recollected that many of the very men who now obstruct organization voted for the plurality rule when it elected Cobb, their conduct and that of the administrations which sustains them, deserves severe rebuke.

"PAY YOUR SCHOOL TAX WITHOUT GRUMBLING."—Geo. Sumner, of Boston, who has lately returned from Europe, where he has spent several years, delivered a lecture in New York last week, on the educational characteristics of Europe, from which we select the following pregnant paragraph:

"If there be any moral to the tale I have told, it may be summed up in a few words. Pay your school tax without grumbling; it is the cheapest premium of insurance on your property. You are now creating those who are to make laws for yourselves and your children. In the light you are educating those who are to elect your Judges. Build more school houses, they will spare you the building more jails. Remember that the experiment of other countries shows that the development of free and extended education has been followed by public and private prosperity; that financial success and political tranquility have blessed the lands which have recognized its importance. Remember that education without freedom is barren in its results; that freedom without the education of the moral sentiments soon runs into anarchy and despotism; and that liberty, ever vigilant herself, demanding ceaseless vigilance in her votaries—liberty will not linger long in those lands, where her twin-sister knowledge is neglected."

DIED—On Saturday morning, 19th inst., at half past 1 o'clock, at the residence of Wm. H. Young, of Robinson Tp., AUGUSTA JANE BAILEY, in the 16th year of her age.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Interesting to those suffering from HEADACHE.—A certain Remedy found in Dr. McLane's Celebrated Liver Pills.

☞The following is a sample of certificates received daily from our own citizens:

NEW YORK, August 1, 1852.

This is to certify that I have been subject at times to severe headache; sometimes the pain would be so severe I could rest neither day nor night. Hearing of Dr. M'Lane's celebrated Liver Pills, I sent and got a box, of which I took two pills on going to bed, for two nights. They relieved me entirely. Some time has now elapsed, and I have had no more trouble from sick headache.

M. JOHNSON, 118 Lewis st.

☞Purchasers will be careful to ask for Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Liver Pills, manufactured by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa. There are other Pills purporting to be Liver Pills, now before the public. Dr. M'Lane's genuine Liver Pills, also his celebrated Vermifuge, can now be had at all respectable drug stores. None genuine without the signature of FLEMING BROS.

The War on Worms, now raging by Dr. I. Scott & Co., is throwing Sebastopol and its tragedies quite out of sight. Read the following Certificate from Mr. SAMUEL HOWELL, (son of Ed. Levin Howell,) who is well and favorably known in this community:

This is to Certify that a few days since, I procured of Dr. I. Scott a vial of McLane's Improved Vermifuge, gave a portion of it to two of my children that were sick, and in a few hours they discharged a large quantity of worms and were at once restored to health. I have used in my family Dr McLane's old Vermifuge and several others, but I can unhesitatingly say that the Improved Vermifuge of Dr. I. Scott & Co. is vastly superior, and did my family more good than any other Vermifuge I ever used.

The Traveling Community.—A remedy such as Bowhaw's Holland Bitters cannot be too highly recommended. To the traveling community, especially it is certainly an invaluable remedy; having little or no exercise, constantly exposed and subject to the effects of a change of climate and water, they require some pleasant medicine of this kind to regulate the bowels.

Speaking What They Know.

These gentlemen take pleasure in testifying in regard to B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge, because two of the firm have used it in their private practice as physicians for a number of years, and they have known it, by observation, to be good.

NEW ALBANY, Ind., July 4th, 1855.

To B. A. Fahnestock & Co.—

GENTLEMEN—Having sold your valuable Vermifuge for some time, and having seen it used for many years, we would recommend it to all as a safe and efficient remedy for all cases of worms. In no instance have we ever seen any evil results following its administration, but always has it answered the purposes for which it was intended, and been entirely satisfactory.

Believing that everything that has been set forth in regard to its virtues is strictly in accordance with our observations not only as practitioners, but as men of business, we would unhesitatingly say to all who read this, that it is the best Vermifuge now in use, and that its virtues are best known when tried.

Nelson's Ambrotypes.

The Ambrotype is decidedly the most pleasing, beautiful and durable style of Portrait ever known to the art. Their time-defying velvety and harmonious tone is degree never obtained by the old process. Being taken on glass, they are exceedingly brilliant and yet unlike the Daguerreotype, they are perfectly distinct in any angle. Little children are pictured not only more beautifully but in almost inappreciable point of time by the Ambrotype. By no other process can pictures be made so perfectly beautiful. We respectfully request our friends and the public generally to call and examine specimens and judge for themselves. Remember the place.
