THE PREMIET'S MESSAGE OF KARSAS AF-TAILES.—It would be always agreeable to us to consider the official documents proceeding from discountenancing the agitation of the Siavery question. He was appointed, last fall, a 'mem-ber of the Bepublican Site Committee, which place he holds to this day. Now the mission of to President Pierce this is impossible. He is as much a partiena as the veriest hangeron of any party or faction which exists, and his official wery question, believing that agitation to the agitation to believing that agitation to believ much a partiean as the veriest hanger on of any clared himself a member, is to agitate the Sla-party or faction which exists, and his official very question, believing that agitation to be incomminications to Congress, when they refer to right. If, therefore, Mr. Fuller is sincere in Easter that agitation to be right. If, therefore, Mr. Fuller is sincere in Easter that agitation to be for one party in the controversy which would disgrace and shame any man of honest and statemanlike rives.
