Tgw election of Mr. Banks is the first instance on record in our Congressional History, in which Sisvery, with an Administration at its back, has not been able to force its measures, either by fair means or by intrigue and delay, on the House of Representatives. Freedom has here tofore baffied a Pro-Sisvery Administration taken singly, and has sometimes successfully grappled with the Sisvery Representation on the floor. But it was reserved for the Revuerbedge of the Thirty-Fourth Congress to win the first victory over both the combined forces, at once!—Alb. Esc. Journal.
